WANTED.—A good barber in Andover.

NEW stock of job material next week. Bring on your jobs.

BERRIES are plenty in this market at six cents per quart.

GRAPES are appearing in the Hornellsville market. Early.

BUSY.—Our City Father is busy on the roads. Plenty of room for improvement.

SWEET POTATOES.—Crandall & Brainard have got it bad. Also Peaches and other fruits in their season.

PERSONAL.—Mr. S. M. Thacher of the Canisteo Valley Times, office paid us a visit on Thursday last, Squire was looking as robust as ever and running over with good humor, Come again.

Rev. Mr. Camp formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this place, was in town for a few days this week calling on old friends.

Our friend Jack Hunt was in town last week, he called at the Advertiser office on several occasions and demonstrated to us that he was doing a good business in the sale of his Patent Plow, Jack has got a good thing and the farmers only needed to see it work to convince them that it is good.

DROWNED.—At Belmont, on Thursday last, a son of Griff. Wilson, aged about 10 years, his body was found near the lower river bridge, and his clothes were found some thirty rods further up the stream.

WE would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Henry's Vermont Linament, for sale by Benton. The Linament is well recommended by those who have tried it, and will doubtless meet with a ready sale.

THURSDAY—Aug 19th, was the hottest day of the season so far.

Why is the town of Andover like an arsnel? Because you have both large and small cannon there.

WE publish on 3d page an Andover Correspondence on Swearing. Read and profit thereby.

Mr S. E. Wescot will please accept our thanks for a basket of cooking apples.

New wheat from Genese Valley was sold in New York on the 17th of August at $1.90 per Bushel

MR. Baundrage is building a neat picket fence around his new building on the corner of Greenwood and Main Streets.

NEW SIGN.—Mr. B. B. Miller of Millers Hotel, has just put up a new sign. It is got up in a tasty manner and shows off well.

THE farmers are all busy harvesting their Oats. We have heard of several fields that average seventy bushels per acre, and have not heard of one poor lot yet.

BAND MEETING.—All Citizens interested in the organization of a Brass Band in this place, are requested to meet at the Good Templer Hall to night at half past seven o'clock.

MR. C. H. Simmons, of the Regulators, is now on another visit to New York. Everybody knows what he is here for. We need but to say that another heavy stock of goods is soon expected at Simmon's

UNDER OBLIGATION.—We are under obligation to William Benton for the pains he has taken in picking up local items and handing them into the office. Do so some more Billey.

RARE.— Dr. D. McClay of this place, has an early apple tree that has born a goodly quantity of ripe apples and now has several new blossoms upon it. This, as the old women would say, is a bad sign, as we heard one say the other day, it was a sure sign of death in the family. Don't feel bad Dr. we dont believe any such thing.

We are under obligation to the Doctor for a nice basket of crab apples.

ANDOVER WOOLEN FACTORY.—This property was disposed of on Thursday last as per notice. The property was sold to Mr. Edmund Brown of Independance for about one third its value $11,850 which will give the stockholders but a very small dividend after the debts are all paid. We are informed that Mr. Brown in company with several others will at once make arrangements to stock the Factory. We sincerely hope this is true for it will somewhat enliven business. Mr. Brown is a thorough business man and we have no fears but what the property in his hands will be made to pay. We wish him success at all events.

ANDOVER GRADED SCHOOL.—The school opened on Tuesday under the management of Prof. W. R. Wright, as Principal and Miss M. Lanphear as assistant, with Miss Crabtree in the intermediate and Miss V. Adams in the primary departments.

The school opened with one hundred and fifty scholars. Tuesday and Wednesday were occupied in grading the school and making some changes in text books. They have now introduced the Union Series of Readers and Spellers, and Robinson's Mathematics.

The number of scholars far exceeds anything we had anticipated. The school now bids fair to equal any in the county. We shall give our readers a more lengthy description of the school and its working in a week or two.

ALFRED CENTER ITEMS.

Indications favor a full term. Old students are returning, nearly every room is taken. Those of the teachers who have been rusticating during vacation, have returned.

The mansion of Rev. A. H. Lewis is tending toward completion and is being furnished in superior style Farmers in this section are closing the campaign in haying with aboundent profit. Wheat and Oats are a splendid yield. Potatoes never promised better. A heavy shower on Saturday afternoon set the small streams in a violent commotion for a time. J. S.

FINE MUSIC.—Twice within the past week our citizens have had a real musical treat, from the Alfred Cornet Band. The first, about a week ago, which was a serenade, in which the ADVERTISER was honored by a liberal share. We all respect you gentlemen, it is so seldom that a band can be got together where all are sober that it is a double treat to see you. We hope you may have frequent calls this way, and may meet with that substantial response that is a delight not only to the heart but to the pocket. Many of the members of the Alfred Band are our personal friends and we shall always have a good word for them.

FROST.—Quite a heavy frost visited this locality this morning. Although an unwelcome visitor, he met with a warm reception and disappeared before 10.

OUR Independence friends will find something of interest to them in the card of J. G. Green, Esq. The Singer is one of the best machines made, and Mr. Green is one of the most gentlemanly and obliging salesmen.

Hon. Hamilton Ward is to deliver the annual address before the Hornellsville Agricultural Society at their fair on Sept. 30th.

ALFRED CORRESPONDENCE

ALFRED, N. Y. Aug 23d.

MESSRS EDITORS—As it is a season of accidents. I will give you a sketch of one in the town of Almond about one mile from Alfred Station, on the farm of J. C. Potter, as Mr. Potter and his hired man was a drawing hay with one horse up a steep hill. As they had nearly reached the top of the hill the rack slipped back just enough to completely break the hind wheels of the wagon by the middle cross piece of the rack, causing the horse to pull enough to break the whippletree, stripping the harness clear from the wagon. The waggon went to the bottom of the hill at a right smart gait, the hired man scrambled off the forward end of the load somewhat like a frog, saving himself just in time for "Faigins wake." as the wagon tipped Top side Bottommost square on top of the hay covering forks, rakes and &c., the duce to pay, no pitchforks broke, damage estimated at about fifteen cents. POST OFFICE RULES.—We find the following floating around the country and published for the benefit of those interested:

When you call at the Post Office for mail, and the Postmaster hands it out, ask him if that is all.

If you ask for mail and he tells you there is none, tell him there ought to be, then go home and send the rest of your family around to ask through the day.

Don't bring your mail to the office until the mail closes, then complain of the Postmastar for not unlocking the mail bag and putting your letter in.

When you want a stamp on your letter, tell the Postmaster to put it on; if he dont lick it, you kick him. In case you put it on yourself, soak it in your mouth long enough to remove the mucilage; It will then stick till it is dry.

Be sure to ask the Postmaster to credit you for stamps; if he has any accommodation about him at all, he will do it.

If you have a box, stand and drum on it until the Postmaster hands out your mail; it makes him feel good, especially if he is waiting on some one else.

Cuba Correspondence.

CUBA, Aug, 31st, 1869.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—I feel as if I was inspired, but by whome or what, I know not and as there is no remorse of conscience I will proceed.

My page can be found in the last page of last years Almenace (?) it reads thus

We shall flee unto the ridges where the Lion roareth and the Whang doddle mourneth for its first born.

Now Mr. Editor will it be out of the way if we suppose that this was the very place, where we have Small Ridges, Large Ridges, High ridges, Low ridges, Patridges, Love ridges, Eldridges, Lot ridges, and Good-ridges.

But now Mr. Editor the Lion hath ceased to roar, the whang-doddle hath ceased to mourn and a change has taken place, The high ridges are now made more useful for on them we feed our flocks.

The Patridges have taken advantage of the squatters sovereignty act and fled some at home there, but they are still somewhat afraid of man, but I suppose the roaring of lion and the mourning of the whang-doddle is the origenal cause thereof.

Lotridge he is rather a portly man, keeps a large stock of Groceries and Provisions, he is bound that even if the lion doth roar he will sell goods cheap.

Eldridge he is our Postmaster and will inform the people by mail if the whang-doddle is unfortinate enough to lose any more of her offspring he also keeps a good supply of provisions and ready made clothing.

Loveridge, he has his eye on the lion and if it violates the law he will see that it has the full extent of the law, as he (Loveridge) is a Lawyer and can stand at the Bar (not where intoxicating liquor is sold, O, no for he is a good dipper) and defend the people against such acts Now Mr. Editor the lesson to be drawn is this, that at the Fair to be held here on Sept. 28th 29th and 30th, the people need not be afraid to come, as behold old things have past away and all things become new.

The spirit has ceased to mourn, so let us close by singing;

The Lamb and the Lion
The dog and the cat,
all sleep together
on a three cornered Hat.

Yours Respectively,

F.
