SWINK'S HOTEL

ANDOVER, N. Y.,

PETER SWINK, - - - - Proprietor.

This House has been thoroughly refitted, and the Proprietor is now ready to entertain all who may give him a call. A good barn in connection with the House. All charges reasonable. 2ty1

If you want a good glass of soda water go to Geo. Green's.

Several new dairies are being established throughout Cataraugus County.

The Exchange Hotel, Ellicottville, has been purchased by D. E. Blair.

The foundation of the new Free Will Baptist Church at Springville, has been laid.

The Cattaraugus County Teachers Association is to meet at Olean, July 1st and 2d.

We will furnish next week a full report of the Temperance Convention, held at Alfred on Monday last.

We call the attention of our readers and the public generally to the card of the Swink's Hotel on this page.

H. P. Benton is in New York for the purpose of purchasing new goods. Read his advertisement on another page.

Teachout, the man brute convicted in Warsaw, Wyoming county, for poisoning his wife, will be hung on the 11th of June.

There is a family in our village where one-half the living, one-half the dead, one-half the married, one-half the single, and, of course, half that have been born, are red headed.

Our village was honored one day last week by the Excise Board of this county. Whether they were here as an Examining Board or Gugers, we have been unable to learn.

On account of an error at the time when we bought our paper, we are obliged to issue this week's edition of the ADVERTISER on paper that is two inches every way too small. All O. K. for next week.

We are compelled to defer the publication of our Market Report until next issue. Also, several notices of books, magazines and newspapers. They shall be remembered next week.

To keep bugs from melons, pumpkin and cucumber vines, mix flour of sulpher and fine coal dust together, sprinkle the vines with water, and dust them with this mixture. It is death to all bugs.

The Cattaraugus Republican notices the fact that a quantity of skim milk cheese manufactured at the factory in that place, was sold in New York a few days ago for 21 cents per pound. How are you skim milk cheese?

It has been decided in the Supreme Court that travelers must withdraw their baggage from the keeping of railroad companies upon arrival; that the companies are under no obligation to store the baggage, and are not liable for its loss if not taken care of in a reasonable time.

In the Common Council of Janesville, the question of ordinances relating to dogs was under discussion, when the records were referred to, and one was found to read, "All dogs to be muzzled or shot, except dogs from the country coming in on business."

The Fourth of July this year falling upon Sunday, the 5th is by statute designated a legal holiday. Paper falling due on 5th is therefore payable the 5th, and paper falling due the 4th, must be paid the 3d. Some embarrassment may perhaps be saved to business men by noting this fact.

OUR NEW POST OFFICE. — Great credit is due Geo. Green, our present post master, for the improvement he has made in his department of business. He has just replaced the old, dilapidated case with a new one, with all the improvements of the age thereto. He is himself obliging and courteous.

BUILDINGS.—B. C. Brundage is making arrangments to build a two-story building on the corner of Main and Greenwood streets.

Robert Barret has his dwelling house on Second street enclosed.

J. A. Robinson has the frame of his cottage up and ready for the roof.

Mr. Shaut has his house completed, and has moved into it.

THE ELMIRA ADVERTISER AS A PROPHET.—In the Advertiser of June 2d, we find the following:

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1.—The store of R. Smith & Co., was robbed of silks to the amount of $2,000 on Saturday next.

How would that work in circumstantial evidence? We believe that wherein a man says that on a certain day such a deed will be done, he is supposed to know something about it. How is it, Fairman?

IT IS COMING TO TOWN.—Van Amburgh's great Menagerie, with one of the largest and best collections of animals ever exhibited on this continent. It is strictly a moral and instructive entertainment. There is no circus attached. Let all, both young and old, improve the only opportunity they will ever have to see a collection of animals from every quarter of the globe. The procession will pass through the principal streets of this village about 9.30 a. m., on Monday, June 14th.

OUR ADVERTISEMENTS.—We would call the attention of the public to the advertisements in this issue of the paper. And we will say in connection that from personal examination we feel safe in saying that goods can be and are sold cheaper than in any other town in the county. We invite all who wish to buy good goods and cheap, and have the pleasure of dealing with honest and reliable men, to look over the advertising columns of the Andover ADVERTISER and profit thereby.

Your special attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Van Sickles & Burrows, on the fourth page, and they would again remind you of the great importance of making your purchases where the assortment is full, which means business, and can afford to sell low.

Ladies wanting a nice button or lace Gaiter, or one of those new style Parasols, would do well to call.

Gents wanting the finest French Calf or French Kip Boots, warranted, please call and see them.

Most any family want a good Tea, which is always found there, which they are offering at reduced rates. Just try them.

Don't fail to call and buy one of those cheap Linen Coats, as warm weather is expected some time this summer, if not sooner.

Anything in their line will be found at the bottom of the market.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of Wm. Armstrong, insurance agent. It is the interest of every town and county to do business, as far as possible, within itself, and as Mr. Armstrong lives nearer to this place than any other first-class agent, and visits it every two weeks, we think it to be the interest of our citizens to insure with him. We see his companies to be the very best represented in this State—companies that have earned the public confidence by their promptness in the payment of their losses.

KILLED.—Jas. Coffin, a track-walker, on the Alfred section, was killed by No. 1 engine on Monday night. The particulars were as follows: He had walked to the east end of his section, and turned and came back fifty rods and sat down on the end of a tie and fell asleep. The cylinder of the engine struck him on the back of the head, killing him instantly. Mr. Coffin was a young man of good habits. He lost an arm in a similar manner before.

Since the above was in type we have received several different reports; all that we are certain of is that the man is dead.

ALFRED ITEMS.—The road from the "Center to the bridge" is now in good order. This is pleasing to us, as it was lately in a condition spoken of as horrible. For it's present fine state we are much indebted to Mr. S. Clarke, whose efforts were opposed by all the "old fogies" in town.

The walks on the "Institution's grounds" are being overhauled. Prof. Allen has a corps of men at work on them; the old planks, so long the detestation of all students, are being removed, and a good, durable gravel walk is taking their place.

Four new houses are being built here this season.

The Athenæum Lyceum (ladies) will hold a Fair and Festival at Brick Hall, Thursday evening, June 3. Supper will be served to all who wish it. There will also be lemonade, ice cream, etc. Good music will be furnished, and a general good time is expected.

The Managers of the House of Refuge in the City of New York gives notice that the Girls' House has ample provision for 250 girls of the class embraced within the scope of the several laws enacted by the Legislature at different times, directing the disposal of juvenile offenders of both sexes. In addition to the provisions of the act incorporating the "Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents," passed March 29, 1824, the State has authorized the Managers to receive girls who may be committed as vagrants in any city of county of the state (act of April 10, 1850,) and such also as are "deemed disorderly children," in accordance with sections 5, 6 and 7 of the act of March 22, 1865.

By another act, passed April 12, 1859, the supervisors of each county are authorized and directed annually to fix the compensation to be paid to officers for the conveyance of juvenile delinquents to the House of Refuge.

At the present time there are less than 150 girls in the female department, and the Managers therefore give notice, in order that the committing magistrates of the interior counties may be made aware of the provision made by the State for the reformation of female juvenile offenders, as well as males.

The House of Refuge is situated on Randall's Island, having a ferry at the foot of 117th street (Harlem), and is readily accessible at all hours by the horse-cars running on the 2d and 3d Avenue Railroads in the city of New York.—Exchange.

By all means take a copy of the Andover ADVERTISER and keep posted; it will pay you well.

Mrs. Sally Fisk Granger, mother of the late Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, died on Sunday last at her residence in Clifton Springs, N. Y., of heart disease, in the eighty-first year of her age.
