GRAND GIFT CONCERT AT WASHINGTON, D C.—Attention is called to this worthy Enterprise for the benefit of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, &c.—A list of prizes will be found in another column.

It is said that figures won't lie, but when in a part of our last week's issue figures said that J. J. Harman & Son were selling Pork at 19 cents per lb., and Prime Green Tea at 55 cents, the figures fabricated falsehoods fearfully. The pork is only 10 cents, and the tea 50 cents per pound

"Coming events cast their shadows before." Andover is bound to be an express station. On Saturday morning, Train 8 uncoupled, and the baggage-car and four passenger cars stopped and all the residue and remainder of the train went on nearly out of sight of the depot.

LITERARY.—The following production is a specimen of what teachers sometimes get, and indicates how highly some parents appreciate the efforts which are made in behalf of their children We print it, by request, verbatim et literatim, but do not presume to attempt its interpretation.—The circumstances which called it forth are these. Several pupils were in the lower department of our school all last term without being furnished with the books which the Board of Education required them to have. Teachers did all they could to have them furnished with books, and failing in that, did what they could to keep such pupils up with their grades, but succeeded very indifferently.

At the commencement of the present term, these same pupils came to school without the required books and have been without them up to the present time.

The nuisance finally become so intolerable that teachers were instructed to send such pupils home for their books, and continue to send them until the books were forthcoming. They obeyed their instructions, and one of them has, in consequence received the following polite intimation that the intelligent (?) author understands his business and proposes to run his part of the school to suit himself. It remains to be seen whether the Board of Education are prepared to vacate their office.

This week we have no time to write;
We work all day and part of the night,
We neither heed the wind nor weather,
Boys, W. B. wants more good leather
To build those boots so good to winters,
For which he a ways wants the 'spinters'.
So off we go, our work to seek,
We'll turn "machine" again next week.

Andover, Sept. 27th, 1871.

There is a story going the rounds to the purport that one of the Alfred delegates to the County Convention was the victim of misplaced confidence. He voted for Dr. Crandall, on the informal ballot, thinking in his blissful ignorance, that no choice would be made on that ballot. It is stated that he said he designed to vote, on formal ballot for A. N. Cole, but the second ballot was non est. That delegate has our thanks for his unintentional support of our friend Dr. Crandall.

Romanism as it iS.

This book, an elegant octavo volume, containing 700 pages, and 105 first class engravings, is unique and standard work, entirely adapted to the times. It fully discusses the Romish system from its origin to the present time, expose its baseless pretension, its dangers to perse-ution, its gross immorality, its opposition to public schools, and civil religious liberty. It shows Romanism working which it strives to bring to bear in this country under full Romish control. Prospectus, and book ready on application. Coon Publishing Co., Hartford, Conn. 01476

AGENTS Wanted for STATE PRISON LIFE

BY ONE WHO HAS BEEN THERE.

It is strongly fascinating, powerfully written, and thoroughly reliable by all. From a new stand point and upon a subject of vital and absorbing interest to two-thirds of the people. Showing the inefficacy of the barbarous system of treatment in vogue in many prisons and the advantages of the system recently inaugurated in others. Together with a true and detailed account of the experiences and sufferings of a gifted young man, who, shunned and avoided by his fellow-prisoners alone, shunned and criminal-like with female convicts, undergoing months of starvation, solitude, bad health, cramps, sheet-ches, and incidents, scarcely paralleled in prison life. Will sell rapidly, without other competition. Written by a CONVICT IN CONVICT'S CELL. In one year 50,000 copies, over 40 editorial endorsements, made every-body for this book. 48 antique pages, sample free. Illustrations, extra cash inducements to active agents, for 50 cents. U S Pub. Cincinnati, New York and Chicago. 01476

THE

Novelty Clothes Wringer.

Nothing, except the Sewing machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the household as the Wringer. But its usefulness does not end here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture, last twice as long when wrung in a Wringer as when wrung by hand. The Novelty has cog-wheels on both ends, and The rolls are adjusted to separate freely at either end. These, beside other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.—N Y Independent.

The Novelty Wringer.—Has become indispensable furniture in thousands of families.—And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited—for the Nov lty evidently possesses all the qualities of a first-class, practical machine. Indeed, after using one for a time the wife in our family, was so prepared to recommend the Novelty as unsurpassed by the hundreds she had previously tried.—Moore's Rural New Yorker

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1869.

Allow me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are, BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Boiling Water, Juniper Berries, by distillation, are used to form a fluid. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits, added from this, and Buchu. Very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. The whole is filtered, and may be filtered.

Buchu is a product of the Cape of Good Hope, a dark rather. It is stated that its peculiar properties are extracted in a manner more delicate and more complete by using a fluid extract. Many physicians prefer the separate ingredients. Specific dose, one teaspoonful to a tablespoonful. Diuretic, it is by one of the most active of the genus. Combined with other medicines, it is a valuable adjunct. Dose, half to one fluid ounce. Price, $1 per ounce. Liberal discount to the trade.

I enclose you a few of the many testimonials received. Hoping that you will give Buchu a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

I am, with a feeling of profound respectfulness,
Yours, very sincerely,
H. T. HELMBOLD.

Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.
