Republican State Convention.

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, ROOM 9, NEW YORK, July 30, 1874.

A Republican State Convention will be held at ELMIRA, on WEDNESDAY, the TWENTY-SECOND DAY OF SEPTEMBER next, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating State Officers, and for the transaction of other appropriate business. The assembly Districts will be entitled to representation according to the accompanying apportionment, pursuant to resolution of the State Convention of July 1, 1873.

ALONZO S. CORNELL, Chairman.
STEWART L. WOODFORD, Secretary.

The Illinois Democrats are in a fearful quandlie. They don't know whether they are stock or on horseback, and are anxiously hunting for some one to tell them.

The Tribune special of Saturday says the Supreme Court of Wisconsin has virtually decided that it has not original jurisdiction of the application for an injunction to compel compliance with the Potter Railroad law.

The State authorities have agreed upon increased rates for the keeping of county insane persons in their institutions, and the several Boards of Supervisors will be called upon, at their fall sessions, to comply with the increased rate.

Hon. Thomas Raines, the state Treasurer, is at present stopping with his brother William, in the village of Brockport. He is fully restored to health, and will proceed to Albany on the 15th inst., for the purpose of resuming his office.

The New York Star says that while "all the men interviewed believe Mr. Beecher innocent, the women are positive he is guilty." Which leaves a natural inference that men have more faith in man's honesty, than women have in woman virtue. It is sad, but true.

The old organ of Virginia Democracy, the Richmond Enquirer, now uses the following style of argument: "Who wants to convince a nigger? Plague take the nigger. Treat him as if he were not in the world. Concentrate your white votes and let the niggers slide."

The Michigan women are somewhat divided on the Female Suffrage question. A Mrs. J. A. Church, who conducts one of the Journals of the State, declares in strong terms that the women of Michigan do not want any more burdens, and that they do not want the ballot placed in their hands. Sensible.

And now it is announced that a radical reform in army and navy tactics is seriously thought of, in the shape of a plan to make our warriors skilled in both branches of war, combining the science of army and navy knowledge in one, letting the soldier and the sailor acquire these both. A good idea and a feasible one.

The Secretary of the National Grange at Washington, states in his report that the number of Grange organizations throughout the country is very rapidly increasing. During the month of July alone, 500 new lodges were constituted. These accessions were chiefly in the Southern States. There are now 20,000 lodges in the whole country, including an aggregate membership 800,000 persons. In the Southern States only white persons are admitted to the organization, and that they are consequently regarded by the colored people with much distrust.

If the Beecher-Tilton case, is really, as is said, "on trial by newspapers," it surely would befit the press to exhibit something more of the judicial temper and attitude than a good many journals now display. It is not usual for courts to be split into partizan factions, as this press tribunal now seems to be.—We do not envy those of our contemporaries who have taken sides in the pending conflict—no matter which side they may have chosen as their own.—[Rochester Democrat.

Correct. We hold that in justice of both parties the press has no right to pass a judgment upon the matter until the whole testimony shall have been received. The good of society demand this.

The Louisiana Republican State Convention re-assembled on Friday afternoon; among the resolutions passed was the following: "That duty, and sound sense alike, constrain us to nominate and support for office none but men of known honesty and capacity, and that men who are unmindful of the interests of the State and those whose records are a reproach to the party, shall not be permitted to force themselves upon us in any capacity under any pretense whatever." Which is all right if they will be governed by it. The resolutions endorse the State administration, denounce violence and attempts to bring about a conflict between races, and pledge the party to honest and fair election and reduce expenditures.

The Buffalo people are agitating the question of additional means of crossing the Niagara River. It seems that the International Bridge company have failed to provide the necessary accommodations for foot and carriage passengers, also for railroads. The N. Y. Commissioner controls the bridge already in operation and there is several roads on each side anxious for some means by which they can get across the river. The question is an important one with Buffalo, for if they do not get some means to cross there they will at some other point, and Buffalo cannot afford to lose the business of all these roads. The Buffalo papers, consequently, are waking up on the subject, and strongly urging either a tunnel or another bridge to be constructed immediately.—The tunnel idea has the most advocates, and as it has been pronounced practicable by competent engineers, there is every probability that the issue is not long in doubt. The great amount of travel that will pass under the Niagara River, if a tunnel is made, will be a great boon to the public. Buffalo is a good place for a tunnel, and we hope the project will be speedily carried into effect.

The Buffalo women have taken the lead in the Woman's Rights Movement. Instead of being female suffragists, they are female lunderbellas. They have formed a club—admission fee, monthly dues $1—the object of which is to discourse the trifliers of the opposite sex. Each member is expected to bring each member some [illegible] of gossip in regard to the doings of the male members of the club. The club is composed of married women, and the object is to keep the husbands in the traces.

EXCURSION TO NIAGARA.

There will be an excursion to Niagara Falls from this place on the 20th inst. Fare to Niagara and return $2 50, leaving here on train 6 in the morning and returning on train 1 the next day. A cordial invitation is extended to all to join in this excursion as it will be one of the grandest chances ever offered to view the works of Nature. Turn out. Tickets for sale at D. S. Bradley's, Burrows & Young's, and at the Drug Store.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican County Convention is called to be held on the 3d of September. This call set the political ball of this county on a roll. We hope that the Republicans of this county will see it for their interest to place in nomination good men, men who will command the whole of the party vote. It is time, if they look for the good of the party, that these few who have been striving to drive out of the party all of those who they cannot control, should cease such labors at once; there is nothing to be made at that kind of work. Let this faction business be stopped, get to work as of old, and there will be no doubt as to victory, it will be easily obtained. None but good men for office, no matter where they come from or who they are if they are good men, and will administer the affairs for the people honestly and justly, not for one or the other, but for the whole. There is a mighty responsibility resting upon the party just now; let us go cautiously to work, with but one mark to guide us, and that, RIGHT.

THE WHITE AND BLACK.

The following is from the Rochester Express on the North Carolina election: "We observe that the race question is receiving more and more attention every day. The indefensible course adopted by the whites of the South in separating themselves from the blacks, and initiating a war of races, will most assuredly react on the South itself. Peace, harmony and prosperity will be delayed so long as this spirit is evinced. In exciting public attention and mutual hostility on this question, the Southern Democrats advance the strangest and most illogical statements. Here is one we have just clipped from an exchange. It appeared in the Vicksburger, a Virginia paper: "There is not a village, a town, a city, a farm or a county in the State, that would not be tenfold better off if there was not a negro in it. We could soon supply their places, and with our own labor and intelligence regenerate his country that God in his extremely inscrutable wisdom has cursed with negro rule so long." This wild, foolish utterance was evoked by the experience the community has had of negro rule. But the writer forgets two or three things One is that there would have been less of ignorant and corrupt if the whites had operated amicably and harmoniously with the blacks; again, it comes with an ill grace from a pro-slavery man to denounce the presence of colored people in his neighborhood. There was a time, not distant, when it was claimed that black labor was essential in the South; and still again, when the Vicksburger declares that the whites could soon supply the negroes place, and with their own labor and intelligence regenerate the South, he forgets that he has the opportunity to labor and regenerate the South, all the same as if the exterminating policy should succeed. It is a pity that these gentlemen who are drying with disgust because the negro isn't out of the way so that they can have an opportunity to work and display their intelligence, should not first furnish some proofs that they could work in such a contingency, and have a little intelligence. At present we are in doubt upon both points."

GOLDSMITH MAID.

Goldsmith Maid has beaten her own time of 2:16! Last week at the Buffalo Driving Park Races she made a mile in 2:34½! This has not, we believe, ever been beaten by any horse known to the history of the trotting, at all events she wears the laurels which belongs to the fastest horseflesh in the world.—The Rochester Driving Park Association has offered a purse of $1000 to any horse that will, during the inaugural meeting this week, beat Goldsmith Maid's time of 2:16¼. The Maid is now in Rochester, but the day is not set when the race will take place, but she will endeavor to out-do herself.

Since the above was in type Goldsmith Maid beat her own time at Rochester yesterday, making her mile in 2-14¼. The fastest time on record.

THE COEN CROP.

An increase in the corn area of fully 2,000,000 acres is apparent, or 6 per cent above the breadth of last year.—The percentage is largest in the South; the increase in acres is largest in the West. Returns make the gain in Iowa over 300,000 acres; in Missouri, about the same; in Illinois, about 200,000; in Indiana, fully 200,000; in Kansas about 170,000. Georgia shows almost as large an increase as Iowa and Missouri; Alabama, 180,000 acres; Mississippi, 120,000 acres; Texas, 200,000 acres. The inducement to enlarge the corn area of the cotton States appear to have been less influential in the Mississippi Valley than in the more eastern States, Georgia particularly. The increase in Texas is simply due to the natural expansion of crop areas from immigration, and is equally noticeable in cotton and other crops.

The number of States reporting a decrease in area is small, including only Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Florida, Louisiana, Tennessee, West Virginia, Kentucky, and California.—In Northern New England a late unfavorable spring interfered with planting, and in Louisiana the area is less by reason of the overflow.

The States making increase are as follows: Maryland Virginia, Wisconsin, 101; Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nebraska, 109; Massachusetts, Oregon, 108; Connecticut, North Carolina, Illinois, 104; South Carolina, Michigan, 106; Indiana, 108; Iowa, 109; Mississippi, Minnesota, 110; Alabama, Arkansas, 112; Kansas, 114; Georgia, 115.

The condition of corn is generally good in the West, but elsewhere variable. The only State reporting average condition, or above, are Massachusetts of the Eastern States, Pennsylvania of the Middle States, Maryland, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Texas of the Southern States, and the Western States, except Minnesota, reporting 94, and California and Oregon.

The St. Louis women have taken the lead in the Woman's Rights Movement. Instead of being female suffragists, they are female lunderbellas. They have formed a club—admission fee, monthly dues $1—the object of which is to discourse the trifliers of the opposite sex. Each member is expected to bring each member some [illegible] of gossip in regard to the doings of the male members of the club. The club is composed of married women, and the object is to keep the husbands in the traces.

Another Confidence Operation.

Of all the numerous operations of confidence men and women which have come to our knowledge, we have found that in nearly every case the victims were people who never or at least seldom, read the papers. A confidence game was played on a couple of green-horns on the Central cars last evening, which for sheer stupidity of the victims, we have never heard of being equalled. And yet they were both very intelligent-looking men. One of them hailed from Bowne, Bradford county, Pa., and his name is J. Passmore. The other victim's name is J. W. Woodburn. They are good honest specimens of the American farmer, but lacking, we fear, the sharpness for which the Yankee is celebrated. They were on their way to Niagara Falls, and east of Rochester they fell in with two men—one an elderly and fatherly looking fellow, and the other a young man "dressed up to the handle," and carrying a cane. The elderly gentleman represented that he was a drover, had a number of cattle in this city, which he was anxious to ship to Niagara Falls; but that, unfortunately, he was short of the few dollars in money necessary, to pay the charges. He wanted to borrow a little, and offered a $1,000 bond as security, until the small sum should be repaid. Only $85 was wanted, and the $1,000 bond was, of course, ample security. Mr. Passmore didn't have the money just then, but his friend Woodburn did, and, to cut the story short, the money was handed over to the cattle drover, and the bond was handed over to Mr. Woodburn. After arriving in Rochester the elderly man gave the nobby young man ten dollars, and both came up town to transact their business. They were to be back again before the train left, but they, of course, failed to come to time. The bond was shown to several police officers, and it was found to be nothing else than a bond issued by the "United States Silver Mining Company of Denver, Col.," payable in 1876, and worth the amount it would bring as paper rags. Woodburn and his friend left the care, the former looking quite disconsolate. Just before leaving he stated that he did read a weekly once in a while, but that as a general thing he did not keep track of the news. He probably will after this.—[Rochester Express.

COMMON TALK.

"Troy has base ball clubs named after Beecher and Tilton respectively."—[Ex. The question is, is the club named after Mrs. or Mr. Tilton.

Here is the way Buffalonians name their different drinks, straight whisky, &c.: "Leg-on-a-log," "Long Mary," and "Frozen Shoemaker."

Juvenal thus hits off the propensity to scandal:

"There is a lust in man no charm can tame,
Of hardy publishing our neighbor's shame;
On eagle's wings immortal scandals fly,
While virtuous actions are but born to die.

The tribe of Osage Indians has been reduced to a bob-tailed pony, a cross-eyed squaw, and a Government agent who is gradually stealing the squaw blind.

The Bourbons have carried Kentucky. Once upon a time the Dutch took Holland, it is said.

What a day for Reporters. Five men are to be hung in New Orleans on the 21st inst.

"Better give the ministers another title than 'divine.' Some of them are of the earth, earthy."—[Rochester Express. How cruel.

"After many days of arid dessication the vapory captains marshaled their thundering hosts and poured out upon scorching humanity and the thoroughincinerated vegetation a few inches of aqua pluvialis," and that's the way in which a Western journal describes the advent of the recent rains.

A woman died of consumption in Jeffersonville, Ind., the other day, and the man who wrote her obituary says that she "gently strode into the darkness of eternal night at half-past six o'clock in the morning."

The Chicago Journal says: "The entire population of the earth at the present time is computed at 1,391,023,000, exclusive of the 'People's Party' of Chicago, the Democratic party of Illinois, and Spotted Tail's Sioux, of the Black Hills of Wyoming, all of whom are outside of the pale of civilization."

Here is one man who has done full justice to his name. He was bookkeeper for a grocery firm in New York, and his name was Swindells. He fell sick, and another book-keeper found that he had swindelled the firm out of over $3,000.

Graceful tribute. The New York Commercial Advertiser says: "Professor Swift is bound to get even with the other astronomers. They disputed his discovery of old Coggia—so what does he do but gracefully level his telescope and—discover another."

A Romeo (Mich.) marksman thinks that he has made the most extraordinary shot on record. He aimed to bring down a woodchuck and chipmunk at one shot, and brought down a spring calf.

Gov. Woodson made a speech in Lafayette county, Mo., the other day, which it was hoped would have a beneficial effect in inducing the Grangers to join the Democratic party. At the close of the effort, a particularly astute Granger was asked what he tho't of it. Pondering a moment, he replied: "It reminds me of one of my cows.—She raises her tail higher, bellows and paws the ground, and makes more fuss than other critter on the farm, but gives less milk."

POLITICS AND PRESS.

It is said that Gen. Butler has concluded to run for Congress in the Essex district. Who can or what will kill him?

The Democratic party of Ohio is on the high road to reform. It is going to nominate the notorious Jim Ashley in the Sixth Congress District.

Illinois papers say there never was more real enthusiasm than now in the Republican party. The conventions are crowded, and the leaders look for victory this autumn.

In Missouri, after the first day of January, 1876, every person, in order to become a voter, must be able to read and write. And so it should be in every State in the Union.

A Newport, Vermont, dispatch states that a majority of the delegates elected to the Congressional Convention of that district are pledged to vote for the renomination of Judge Poland.

Free trade, free rum and hard money are the leading "principles" announced by the Illinois Democracy, around which to rally and unite the opposition to the Republican party this fall. For this purpose a State Convention is to be held at Springfield Aug. 26th. There will be some fun at that convention—see if there won't. As well attempt to unite and assimilate oil, water and quicksilver as to bring together incongruous and conflicting elements proposed in one harmonious political organization.—[Chicago Journal.

The Yates County Chronicle, of this week, displays at its most head the call for the Republican State Convention. This indicates a design on the part of the Chronicle to honor the Republican nominations, when they shall be made, in the same way. It is useless to remark that we observe this state of things with supreme pleasure. We shall welcome the Chronicle very gladly to its old place again. Its editor, Mr. Cleveland, has no place except in the Republican ranks. He has fought too long and too efficiently in the cause to be lost at last. There is good cheer in this shadow of a coming event.—The fatted calf shall be killed, and the prodigal son shall be welcomed with a right hearty welcome.—[Elmira Adv.

GENERAL NEWS

—The mint at New Orleans will open soon for the first time since June, 1861.

—About 1,872 poor children of the 8th ward, New York city, enjoyed the free picnic on Saturday.

—Thomas A. Stewart, is in the Erie county jail in default of $500 paid, on the charge of snuggling silk.

—The judicial investigation into the assassination of Marshal Prim in Spain has resulted in the indictment of over fifty persons.

—The strike at the Vulcan Iron works has ended by the men returning to work at ten per cent. reduction of wages.

—The Liberal Republicans will hold a State convention at Albany on the 9th of September. Gen. Cochrane is to issue his proclamation.

—A negro named Worley was lynched by the infuriated people of Johnson's City, East Tennessee, on Friday night, for causing the death of a white girl.

—The railroad war on emigrant rates West has ended, the trunk lines having restored the rates from $5 to Chicago, to the old rate, $15, and proportionately to other points.

—The California farmers show a disposition to hold back grain for better prices, the Grangers being strong in the movement. The consequence is but little wheat is loading at San Francisco for foreign markets.

—The steamer Henry Amos struck a snag or something in the Mississippi river on Friday night and sunk. Several lives were of course lost, but the exact number is unascertained at present.

—Victims of the steamer Pat Rogers fire are being daily brought to the surface of the river, the number of dead reaching about fifty. And yet people will persist in trusting themselves on those infernal boats

—A Wilmington, Delaware dispach states that the body of a wealthy drover named Robert A. Mackey, was found in a creek near Odessa. He had been robbed and murdered. The police are in pursuit of Joseph Taylor, who was last seen with Mackey.

—The most destructive fire known in Montreal for many years broke out at two o'clock Saturday morning in Henderson's saw mill, on the canal bank. The fire lasted five hours. About $250 000 loss was the result. One life was lost.

—The rain-storm of last Friday and Saturday on the Connecticut and Long Island shore has been very heavy. The storm in New York City, Brooklyn and vicinity, was accompanied by a heavy northerly gale, stripping trees of foliage, and doing other slight damage.

—A friend in need.—Dr. Wistars Balsam of Wild Cherry is a friend indeed. Who has not found it such in curing all diseases of the lungs and throat, coughs, colds, and pulmonary affections, and "last and least," consumption? The sick are assured that the high standard of excellence on which the popularity of this preparation is based, will always be maintained by the proprietors.

—Reports have been sent to the Bureau of Justice from Sequin, Texas, containing accounts of aggravated Ku Klux crimes in that vicinity. Two parties were captured in the night by masked men, and severely maltreated, one being forced to submit to one hundred lashes, while an attempt was made to hang the other, but the cries of the victims brought assistance, and the masked ruffians gave up their design. Two or three families have been compelled to leave the vicinity.

—Victoria C. woodhull and Tenny C. Claflin were arrested on the charge of Achsah M. Truman, who alleges that in 1871, when Woodhull & Claflin were doing business in Broad street, she deposited with them to be invested $400 which she was to receive on demand with interest, and she has since made several demands but never got the money. They were held in $500 bail on the Tombs office. Miss Claflin and her mother were to sail for Europe in the French steamer Lafayette saturday

—They tell a curious story about the origin of accident insurance. One day, about the first of March, 1864, Mr. James Bolter, now President of the Hartford National Bank, meeting President Batterson in the street in front of the Hartford post-office, said: What'll you take to insure me $5,000, if I get killed by accident in going from here to my house in Buckingham street? "Two cents," replied Mr. Batterson, promptly. "Agreed; here is your money," said Mr. Bolter. This verbal agreement made in perfect good faith by both parties, was the first accident insurance made by the Travelers' company.

—The total school population of the thirty-four States reporting was 12,740,751; that of the seven Territories being 88,697, and the grand total 12,828,847.
