Woman's Suffrage. We publish on the eighth page, an article headed "Abandoned Women."

Here let us pause a moment. Do you suppose, for one moment, considering the writer's argument, that if women were given the ballot box, and an office among our public officials, she would be any more virtuous and religious?

All this we are willing to concede, taking the writer at his own words. As to women doing the same labor as men in most branches of business, it would be an impossibility...

The evil is patent. Where and when is the remedy? Centralized into a sentence, it is this: The independence of women!
