Court Calendar.

Circuit Courts, and Courts of Over and Terminer, and Special Terms of the Supreme Court in Allegany County, for 1869.

Fourth Monday of February, at Belmon, by Justice Marvin.
Second Monday of July, at Angelica, by Justice Hatch.
Third Monday of October, at Belmont, by Justice Marvin.

Wellsville is to celebrate the coming Fourth of July.

Strawberries are selling in our streets at 25 cents per quart.

Don't forget the Auction to-morrow afternoon.

Don't forget to read Elwell's advertisement, in another column.

The 10th day of July next is announced by the Adventists as the day upon which this sphere is to be demolished.

The Union prayer meeting for Sabbath next will be held at the Presbyterian Church, at 9 o'clock in the morning.

If you want a good dish of Ice Cream just step into H. P. Bundy's. It will only cost you 25 cents.

They have going about Kentucky, what is called a "Peripatetic Parritheoptikonic Exhibition.

The French government offers to transport, without cost, all laborers who will go to Algiers for the harvest.

Hay is $30 a ton in the Northern part of Vermont, and in some sections the cattle are said to be starving.

Walker will sell a full Sett of Crockery, 99 pieces, for $16 50.

Farmers, don't forgot to call on Shaut & Porter, and buy one of Kellogg's Improved Horse Rakes.

Mad dogs are quite numerous in Corning. Several have been reported there in the last few days.

A new Medical Association was organized at Courtland last week by Eclectic Physicians, under the title of "The Central New York Medical Society."

Mail Changed.—The mail going east will be carried on No. 12 hereafter, and all mails will have to be in the office at 5 P. M.

We are obliged to again allude to the cross sidewalk in front of Bradley's. It is not safe. Somebody's horse will have a leg broken there yet.

Dr. J. J. Harmon has built a new sidewalk in front of his residence. A few more in this village should follow his example.

Dr. W. W. Crandall has built a good sidewalk from his store to the north line of his lot. We are in hopes to be able to note an extension to the corner next week.

Our City Fathers have for the last week been quite active in fixing up our roads. Keep on, thou good and faithful servants.

New York Professors of Dancing have introduced the "Kiss Cotillion," the peculiar feature of which is that the partners osculate as they swing corners. A grand chance for dancing masters the coming winter.

You can find good Tea, for a low price, at Walker's.

We clip the following from the Chautauqua Democrat:

The Hotel keeper in Rutledge has taken down his sign, and boarded up the doors of his hotel, all on account of not receiving a license to sell liquor.

Mr. T. A. Case, of Ellington, has obtained Letters Patent upon a new and improved kind of Cream Pump, which is said by dairymen who have tested it to be far superior to any heretofore in use.

Hosea B. Cummings is appointed Post Master at Charlotte Center; Alex D. Holdrich, at Mina; Thos. J. Newell, at North Clymer; Capt. Joseph C. Russ at Stockton. The Post Office at Center Sherman is discontinued.

Some miserable scoundrel entered the premises of Mr. James Homewood, three miles west of Westfield, and brutally mutilated a very valuable cow, belonging to Mr. H. Such scamps deserve to be severely dealt with.

The Fredonia Normal School is to be opened September 7th. The faculty will be announced in due time by circulars from Supt. Weaver.

On Thursday last, Miss Stonehouse, a Milliner, of Mayville, had her pocket picked of $250, while seated in the cars en route from Mayville to Buffalo.

The application of the Irving Bridge Commissioners to the Supreme Court, for a writ of mandamus to compel the Board of Supervisors of this County to appropriate the five thousand dollars, imposed by law, to aid in building the bridge, was granted, and the Attorney for the County had the proceedings stayed to carry the case to the General term.

On Sunday afternoon last an Irishman by the name of William Patt, while walking across the Dexterville railroad bridge, was struck by the express train and instantly killed, his body being horribly mangled. It appears that the deceased and his son were leisurely taking a stroll, and in their way were passing over the bridge. The express train, being four hours late, came along at a rapid pace, and was not discovered by those persons until it was on the bridge, a high bluff and a sharp curve preventing the train being seen. Mr. Patt and his son attempted to run off, and the son just succeeded in reaching the end of the bridge and jumping one side, but his father was struck and killed. Coroner Price summoned a jury who se verdict was 'accidental death,' attaching no blame to the engineer. The deceased was an industrious, steady man, about 70 years of age. He was generally known as 'Uncle Patt.' Had resided here a number of years.

Call at Walker's and see the Poplin at 25 cents per yard.

Willing to do it.—If the Andover Advertiser will exchange with us, we will publish the prospectus of that paper in return. What's the matter with you, Barnard?

Yes, we will. There is no other reason for your not receiving The Advertiser, than carelessness on our part in doing up the mail. We ask pardon.

Something Good.—The Manufacturer and Builder is the title of a large work, in pamphlet form, of forty pages well bound and illustrated. It is just the thing for a farmer and mechanic, and should be in the possession of every one. It is ably edited and richly deserves success; for subscription address, Western & Company, 37 Park Row, N. Y.

Benevolent Institution.—Russell & Wolcott, in behalf of those not able to stand the high prices of goods, have concluded to let the buyer set his own prices on all kinds of goods. Therefore they will offer, at Andover, every Friday afternoon, a large stock of Dress Goods, Cloths, Cassimeres, Glassware, and in fact everything and anything that the human race could want. Give them a call to-morrow afternoon.

If you want Glassware, cheap and good, call at Walker's.

A parasol was left at E. Swink's Hotel on Monday last. The owner can obtain it by proving property and paying the expense of this notice.

We have received additional advance sheets of the "Life of Jefferson Davis, with a Secret History of the Southern Confederacy," published by Edward A. Pollard, author of "The Lost Cause." It is printed on good paper, and well illustrated. The work is now nearly ready for the press, and will be issued at an early date.

Big Crowd.—Monday last was a great day in Andover. A large concourse of people gathered together to witness the Great Golden Menagerie. Our streets were crowded, still all passed off quietly. No fighting, except, as we have been informed, a couple of rounds fought between two of our citizens, and there it ended, time being called by one of the parties.

Post Office Changes in Chautauqua County.—The following new postmasters have recently been appointed in Chautauqua county: Charlotte Center, Hosea B. Cummings; Mina, Alexander D. Holdrich; North Clymer, Thos. J. Newell 2d; Stockton, Joseph C. Russ.

The post office at Sherman Center has been discontinued.—Catt. Republican.

Friendship Academy of Music.—The commencement exercises of this Institution will open on the 14th of July and continue until the 16th. On the afternoon of the 16th the class of '69 will receive an address from the Rev. Thomas K. Beecher. In the evening there will be a reunion and supper. The mention of this affair is enough to warrant a good time to all who shall avail themselves of this opportunity.

Advance.—The firemen on the Erie Railroad recently took steps to present a petition to the Managers of the Company, asking for an increase of their wages. The officers of the Company, recognizing the justice of the claim, without waiting for the petition to be presented, voluntarily raised the wages of the firemen twenty-five cents per day.

Sample Sewing Machines given away on the following conditions.—A beautiful Family Sewing Machine, that will do all kinds of Plain Sewing, will be given to any club of seven subscribers to "Arnold's Family Magazine." Price only $1 a year. Sample copies sent free of charge. Agents wanted, male and female. Large wages paid. Address

H. S. Arnold & Co.,
Riverside, N. J.

Good.—We were shown on Monday last, a new cultivator, by J. & W. Hunt. It is a double revolving mould board, and works to a charm, leaving the dirt in good shape and well pulverized. As a cultivator it cannot be beat. It works upon the same principle as their large plow. This is by far the best improvement of the kind that we have ever seen, and every farmer should avail themselves of at least one of them, if not both. Call and examine them at the residence of Jackson Hunt and we venture to say you will not go away without leaving your order with them for a plow.

Oswego is lighted by kerosene in consequence of an exorbitant price of gas.

It Don't Pay to Advertise.—We commend the following sensible article clipped from an exchange, to the earnest consideration of all business men here and elsewhere:

Don't it? The man who says it don't pay to advertise, is, just as likely as not, doing it in some way, all time. If the merchant hangs a fish of his goods outside the door—he is advertising. If the cabinet maker hangs a chair or other article of furniture at his shop door, he is advertising. If a man loses a horse or a cow and tells every one he meets, he is advertising his loss. The doctor who has a boy to run into church and call him out in haste, is advertising.

A man cannot do business without advertising, and the only question should be, the best way to advertise. If you have a lot of personal property to sell, which is the best to write out a few notices that not one-in fifty will stop to read, or go to the printer and have a lot of well displayed posters? If you are in business of any kind, is it not better to keep a regular standing advertisement in your home paper, that will stare your friends and customers in the face every week, rather than trust to the fogy idea of —Oh they all know me?

But, says Mr. Sawsall, 'advertising costs money.' Very true, and so does everything else; and it is a good thing for you that advertising does cost something. If it did not, every little worthless concern would stand as good a chance for being known as the very best and most useful. If you want the people to know that you have anything to sell, advertise it in your home paper first, then in your neighboring papers. The man who has reputable business, and spends the most in a liberal system of advertising, is the one who makes the most money. This is a truth well verified by the experience of those who have tried it. A wagon may be made to run without greasing, but it's hard work; so a man may manage to scratch along without advertising, but he will be apt to see his advertising neighbor going ahead of him at 2:40 gait.

The Universe.—The Chicagoan, started over a year since by H. N. F. Lewis, (publisher of the Western Rural,) as a literary weekly, and which has distinguished itself for some months past by its discussions of social questions, is to be enlarged and name changed to The Universe. The Chicago Sorosis and Advance Guard have have also been purchased to be merged therein. The first issue under the new name, to appear June 24th, will contain a paper by Hon. Robert Dale Owen, entitled "Spiritualism a Moral and Social Necessity." Something on this subject from a man of Mr. Owen's eminence will attract much attention among all thinkers. Mr. Owen, Epes Sargent, and others, are to write regularly. There will also be commenced a story involving social questions, entitled "Married; or A Woman's Deception," by Mrs. Caroline F. Corbin, author of "Rebecca; A Woman's Secret, of which the Morning Star, (the leading Baptist organ,) says:—"There are power, and genius, and art, and skill, and passion, that show it to be the work of a woman, busy with the great problems which the country cannot escape." Every number will also contain two or more completed stories and sketches and much other matter. The facts given concerning social crimes are startling.

The terms of The Universe are $2.50 per year, or three months on trial for Fifty Cents. Try it three months or send ten cents for a specimen copy. Address the Publisher, H. N. F. Lewis, Chicago.
