Off For Florida

Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Davis left Tuesday evening for their winter home at Holly Hill, Fla. They were accompanied to Olean by C. F. Randolph and Frank Lobaugh, where they took the Pennsylvania train for Washington. From there they were to go Wednesday afternoon for their destination.

It is a pleasure to all the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Davis that they are able to go to that land of sunshine, where we are sure they will recuperate more rapidly than in an Allegany county winter and we trust they will return to Alfred next spring fully recovered from their serious accident last spring. Alfred Sun.

To Conduct Annual Humane Trap Event

Albany.—For the eighth consecutive year the American Humane Association of this city has announced its annual humane trap contest which will close April 30, 1935. The contest is open to everyone.

The judges, eminent men in the field of conservation, will award six prizes, totalling $500. Prizes of $150 and $75 will be given for the best traps for taking animals alive and unhurt. For traps of the leg-gripping type, holding without injury, the prizes will be $100 and $50 and for traps of the killing type the prizes are $85 and $40.

It is not the purpose of the association to paralyze trapping, but rather to alleviate the suffering of wild life. Humane traps are being used by trappers to good advantage. They find that unmarred pelts are more easily marketable and for animals trapped for the purpose of propagation the alive and unhurt type of trap is invaluable.

Legislators and conservation bodies thruout the country are cooperating with this movement. They realize that not only does the wild life merit consideration but that from a commercial standpoint the pelts themselves assume an increased value thru the use of humane trapping.

Surrogate Court

Judicial settlements were granted to Harriet Stout and Harold B. Stout as executors of the will of Edgar Stout of Andover; and similar settlements were granted Frank S. Clark and A. D. Fuller as executors of the will of M. Eleanor Brundage of Andover. The third settlement also concerned Andover people with settlement given F. S. Clark as administrator with will annexed in the estate of Elmer A. Cottrell of Andover. No letters of administration were granted at this session.

Seaplane Visited Cuba Lake Monday

A seaplane destined for Brazil rested on the waters of Cuba Lake Monday while pontoons were adjusted to it and it was made seaworthy. It was manufactured by the Taylor Aircraft Co., of Bradford and was flown here from that place by "Ken" Wright, pilot, accompanied by W. T. Piper. Mechanics spent some hours in converting it into a seaplane.

It is one of four which have been sold by the company for delivery in Brazil.—Cuba Patriot.

Rebekah Assembly President Visiting Monroe County

The Rochester Times Union in Friday's edition carries a fine picture of Mrs. Clara Ingalls of Allentown, President of Rebekah State Assembly, who in company with her official staff is making her official visit to Monroe county this week.

Beginning with a dinner given in Mrs. Ingalls' honor by the Past Noble Grands Association, Friday evening, a series of entertainments have been arranged for each evening.

Mrs. Law Former Andover Woman

Last week's News carried the account of the Taylor-Law marriage at Plainfield, N. J.

At the time the News editor did not place the bride as a former Andover resident, as we should have. Mrs. Law was formerly Miss Cecelia McGinty, daughter of the late Manus McGinty of Andover and a niece of the late Dan McGinty, also of this village. She was also a niece of Mrs. Anna Mitchell and among the relatives who came to Andover to attend Mrs. Mitchell's funeral a few weeks ago.

We publish these facts thinking perhaps there may be others as well as the editor, whose memory failed to place Mrs. Taylor.

Recipe for the Week
CRANBERRY PUDDING
½ cup butter ½ cup sugar
3½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt 1 egg
1 cup milk 2¼ cups flour
1 cup raw cranberries.
Cream butter and sugar and well-beaten egg. Mix and sift dry ingredients—saving 2 tablespoons of flour for the cranberries. Add dry ingredients to first mixture—then add the milk. Finally fold in the cranberries which have been rolled in two tablespoons of flour. Turn into a buttered mould and steam for two hours.
Sauce
1 cup sugar 2 cups cranberries
3 tbl. cornstarch 1 cup water
½ tsp. salt 2-4 tbl. butter
2 cups boiling water.
Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Add 2 cups boiling water. Stir until thickened. Cook 10 minutes in a Double Boiler. Cook cranberries in 1 cup cold water until soft. Crush them thru a sieve. Add to cornstarch mixture. Add butter. Serve hot on pudding.

Daily Household Helps
1.—On cold winter days when washing, put clothespins into the oven. This heats them just enough so they help the laundress keep her hands warm when hanging out the clothes.
2.—A soft cloth moistened with camphor is efficient in cleaning a greasy mirror or window glass. Polish with tissue paper or crumpled newspaper.
3.—Cornmeal and vinegar will remove fruit stains from the hands. Moisten the cornmeal with the vinegar and rub on hands. Stains on the fingers caused by preparing vegetables can be removed by holding the hands in very strong tea for a few minutes—then wash with soap and clear water.

You can't expect much while the lawyers that work for corporations are smarter than the lawyers who make laws.
