ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Today, March 17th, again brings the wearing of the green with the celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

England, Scotland and France—anyone may have been the birthplace of St. Patrick. Authorities cannot accurately determine in which country he was born.

The word "Patrick" originated from the Roman word, "Patricius."

The life of St. Patrick was one of romance and adventure. At the age of 16 he was captured by pirates from Ireland and taken to that island where for six years he was forced to tend sheep for an Ulster Chieftan. During these years of wretched slavery he became a Christian and after his escape entered monastic life. Directed by a vision he returned to Ireland in 432 as a missionary and devoted his entire life to zealous working in his adopted country. So successful was his work as a missionary that he became known as "one who found Ireland heathen and left it Christian." He established over 800 churches and baptized over 120,000 people.

Many of the tales surrounding the name of St. Patrick are purely legendary and fictitious. The shamrock originated during his time, however, as the national emblem of Ireland.

Wherever the Irish have penetrated whether it be in America, Europe or any section of the world, March 17th is celebrated as St. Patrick's feast day and it will no doubt continue to be a day of celebration for centuries to come.

Editor Speaks at A.C.S.P.A. Meeting

Katherine Barber, editor-in-chief of the Hi Herald, led a discussion on editorial writing at the meeting of the Allegany County Scholastic Press Association which was held in Bolivar Central School, Saturday, March 12th. In a brief, well-planned and clear-cut speech, Katherine discussed editorials along various lines such as their purpose and place in a school newspaper, the subject of editorials and the difficulties attendant upon writing editorials which teach and at the same time interest the average high school reader.

The editor-in-chief of the Hi Herald is to be complimented not only for the excellent material in her speech, but for the delivery as well, which was exceptionally good.

Mystery Thriller Senior Play Choice

Mystery, romance and conflict!—All are embodied in a very entertaining three-act play, "The Phantom Bells," which will be presented by members of the Senior Class on March 31 and April 1.

Telephone calls and mysterious orders supposedly given by Mr. Rhodes but he has been dead for two weeks. Hands reach out of the fireplace for Laura's neck and withdraw quickly as she suddenly steps aside. Whose hands are they? Darrel disappears then appears again out of thin air. Who attacks Jack as he arrives at the house?

You can watch the solution of the mysteries unfold by being present at the performance of this delightful play whose cast is as follows:

Laura Rhodes—Charlotte Cook.
Jean Rhodes—Laura's stepmother—Marian Swarts.
Joe Kennedy, Detective—Donald Hardy.
Jack Page, Laura's sweetheart—George Joyce.
Victor Lavalle, a suitor of Laura—Henry Antan.
Harriet, the maid—Katherine Barber.
Ned Carruthers, a lawyer—Carol Burdick.
Miriam Booth, his secretary—Doris Honegger.
Darrel Carson, an invalid—Chas. Burgett.
Lela Salyes, his nurse—Thelma Abram.

Bolivar Host to A. C. S. P. A.

The third meeting of the Allegany County Scholastic Press Association took place at Bolivar, Saturday, March 12th. It was a successful meeting from every standpoint.

The meeting began at 10 o'clock with a social hour which lasted until 11, and included dancing, a tour of the building, including the journalism room where all school papers were exhibited, ping-pong and shuffleboard in the gymnasium.

From 11 to 12 o'clock there was an entertainment in the high school auditorium, under the leadership of Fred Stimson, president, and sponsored by members of the Bolivar school. The program consisted of:

Cornet selections, by Irene Richardson; piano selections by Joseph Matson; a one-act play, "Getting a Job." Characters: Mary, Phyllis Coyle; John, Robert Nagle; Mr. Ford Thomas Ackerman; Miss Watson, Jean Turner.

The program closed with saxaphone selections by Susan Green, state and national saxaphone solo contest winner. Miss Frances Yerden was the accompanist for both Miss Richardson and Miss Green.

Luncheon was served in the cafeteria from 12 to 1 by the cafeteria staff.

After the luncheon the members adjourned to the auditorium where they were welcomed by Principal Whitford of Bolivar Central School.

Raymond Woods, a representative of the Oakley Stationery Company, gave a color demonstration on the mimeograph machine, explaining in detail the best methods to operate a mimeograph machine to receive satisfactory results.

Following the demonstration Fred Stimson, president of the A. C. S. P. A. took charge of the program, which began with the reading of a letter addressed to the association from Mr. Herrick the editor of the Bolivar Breeze. Mr Herrick has spent some time in carefully examining the school papers on the exchange list of the Bolivar Central School "Sentinel." He criticized severely these papers and their staffs by pointing out that too much space was devoted to columns, essays and jokes, none of which are news. The editor of the Bolivar Breeze did not confine his criticism to destruction alone, but showed how the papers can be generally improved. He suggested omitting the jokes columns and essays and printing only strictly news items. A staff should be alert, watchful and quick to search out news. Mr. Herrick also gave advice on the technique of writing a news article, outlining some of the elementary rules of journalism.

The meeting continued then with discussion from the students present. Andover was asked to speak on "Editorials," in which the editor, Katherine Barber, pointed out that in order to receive the full benefit of editorials, it is necessary to know their purpose.

The Friendship editor, Helen Bull, spoke on awards for staff members. Several suggestions were made, among which were a quill for the entire staff, a quill pen for the entire staff; awards for Senior members only; awards for officers and awards for editors only. A representative from Rushford spoke on special columns emphasizing the feature article.

The next meeting of the A. C. S. P. A. will be held at night at Alfred some time in May.

Andover High School was represented by the faculty advisor of the Hi Herald, Miss Catherine R. Killigrew; editor-in-chief, Katherine Barber and staff members: Charlotte Coryell, Coretha Mead, Donald Oakes and Jack Saunders.

Girls' Chorus In Assembly

Friday morning, March 11 the girls' chorus, under the direction of Miss Evelyn Lloyd, made their first appearance in assembly this year.

They sang two numbers both arranged by Mable Cain, "Robin in the Rain," and "Lullaby."

Noble Cain is a very famous composer of such songs as the girls sang. He has three daughters to whom he dedicates a song after he has finished composing it. He dedicated "Robin in the Rain" to his daughter Charlotte, and dedicated "Lullaby" to his other daughter, Jo Anne.

Probably the next public appearance that the chorus will make will be at the Genesee Country Music Festival at Houghton.

Students Hear Talk on China

In a timely and interesting talk, Mr. Willard Sutton, professor of chemistry at Fukien Christian University at Foochow, China, told the Senior and Junior high students many different things about China in assembly last Friday, Mar. 11th.

The Chinese want to read and write. Their goal in life is scholarship. The Chinese honor the educated people so much that they have a stove on the street in which papers of all kinds are burned instead of being trampled underfoot.

He illustrated some of the Chinese dialects and some of the symbols by which they write. The Chinese government has appropriated a great deal of money for the building of schools, the engagement of teachers and the purchasing of books of foreign languages.

The girls' chorus opened the program with two songs, "Lullaby" and "A Robin in the Rain" by Noble Cain, under the direction of Miss Lloyd.

Legion Sponsors Speaking Contest

The American Legion, to further National consciousness in the minds of American youths is sponsoring a state-wide oratorial contest whose subject is "Americanism."

Four Andover High School students under the direction of Miss Josephine Cappuccilli, teacher of English and director of dramatics, have entered the contest. They have chosen the following topics:

Marion Swarts, "Let Not the Ancient Landmarks be Removed."

Thelma Ahrens, "Americanism and the Constitution."

Clyde Briggs, "Our America."

Donald Oakes, "Americanism and the Constitution."

The four students will give their orations Friday, March 18th at 9 o'clock in the high school auditorium. There will be three judges who will select the best two speakers to whom will be awarded the prizes of $3 and $2 respectively.

The first winners will then compete in a county contest with winners of other schools in the county.

The orations are original and are delivered by the writer. Each one is limited to six minutes in length.

Senior Interview

Donald Edward Hardy was born in Andover the 10th of August, 1920. He has always lived in Andover and attended school here. His favorite subject at the present is chemistry.

Swimming is Don's favorite sport despite the fact that he is an excellent basketball player and a member of this year's team. Outside of sports the recreation he enjoys most is attending movies. Sonja Heine and Gary Cooper are the stars whom he likes the best.

Don is planning to take a postgraduate course next year and then attend Alfred University.

One of the best liked Seniors, Donald has participated actively in extra-curricular activities while maintaining an enviable scholastic record. Besides being on the basketball team he is a member of the orchestra, an active member of the dramatic club and has been in several leading school productions in one of which he is now rehearsing, "The Phantom Bells." This year's Senior play.

May Don's future career be as successful and profitable as his high school one has been.

Civil Service Commission Issues Warning

The following warning has been issued by the U. S. Civil Service Commission in regard to claims made by fakers:

The public should not be misled by promises of Government positions by so-called "civil-service schools," their agents or their advertisements. No school is able to fulfill any such promises. The public is also warned against schools or agents that would lead one to believe that they represent the Government or are connected with the Government in any way, or that give assurance of success in passing civil-service examinations on the completion of their courses.

Caution is particularly made against claims by schools that their courses are required in order to take the examinations of the U. S. Civil Service Commission; that they are given advance information regarding civil-service examinations; that they have influence with the Federal Government to procure employment for applicants; that they can secure special advantages for those taking their courses; that they have been authorized by the Federal Government to give examinations. Such claims are false.

Anyone can obtain civil-service information free from the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board at any first or second-class postoffice or from the office of the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C.

A Branch Line

Nature Lover (gazing at a large tree): "Oh, wonderful, mammoth oak, if you could speak what would you tell me?"

Gardner: "He would probably say 'If you please, I'm not an oak, I'm a spruce'."

No Room

He: "This dance hall is certainly crowded."

She: "I'll say so. A half hour ago I fainted, and I had to dance around four times before I could fall."

Caught Short

"Say, waiter, I ordered strawberry shortcake and you brought me a plate of strawberries. Where is the cake?"

"Well, suh, dat's what we is short of."

Sentinels of Health
Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—constantly producing waste matter. The kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.
When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause backache, dizziness, rheumatic aches and pains, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, nervous nights, puffiness of the eyes, feet and ankles, tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.
