FORGET SCHOOL

Now that school is out, forget everything about it. Plan some kind of a vacation this summer. Get out in the open all you can. Your body needs plenty of fresh air after nine months inside in school.

When you come back to school in the fall, be ready to go to work, and work hard. A busy, enjoyable vacation will do much toward a successful season in school next year.—Editor.

Retiring Editor Expresses Appreciation

At this opportune time, we wish to thank all the members of the Hi Herald staff, the faculty, especially Miss Killigrew, the Hi Herald advisor, and other students who have helped to make this year's issue of the Hi Herald successful. Mr. Rockwell also, who has given the paper good write ups and excellent headlines, we wish to express our appreciation.

The success and the achievement which the Hi Herald has accomplished could never have been gained without the excellent cooperation of all the people mentioned.

To those who have expressed the desire to have a paper we could like to have a paper in this way they may have it next year during our existence as the position of editor has been given to Pleasure and Profit.

May the new editor have all the success that may be possible and may the members of next year's staff cooperate with them as well as they have done during this present year.

Katherine Barber.

Mr. Host Honored By Seniors

A surprise supper was given in honor of Laurence E. Host, Senior Class advisor and vice principal of Andover High School last Wednesday evening, June 15, by the Senior Class.

Supper, which consisted of potato salad, buttered rolls, olives, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cupcakes, was served at 6:00 o'clock.

Following the supper, Donald Hardy presented Mr. Host with a desk set as a token of appreciation from the Senior Class. Mr. Host expressed his appreciation in a brief speech in which he thanked the class and assured its members that the set would be put to good advantage in his new position as principal.

Other faculty members present were: Principal and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McGee and Miss Mary Wood.

Achievement "A" To Be Awarded Girls

According to William S. McGee, in charge of the awarding of the achievement "A" to girls, the following have secured a sufficient number of points to win the "A":

Thelma Ahrens Marion Burgett
Mary T. Burns Charlotte Cook
Charlotte Coryell Dolores Farwell
Doris Honegger Betty Jo Ludden
Bethel Millspaugh Marion Swarts
Mary Mesler

The points are based upon extra-curricular activities such as club, music, dramatics, journalism, athletics, scholastic record and attendance.

The girls who have won the coveted "A" which will be awarded Commencement night are to be congratulated. The achieving of the "A" is a definite indication of a well rounded, worthwhile school career.

Rev. R. E. Dronsfield Principal Speaker

Rev. R. E. Dronsfield, minister of the Presbyterian church at Alfred, N. Y., and formerly of Andover, will be the principal speaker at the annual Alumni dinner Monday evening, June 27. Rev. Dronsfield was unusually well liked by the entire community while in Andover and his many friends are looking forward to seeing him again and to hearing him speak.

The annual dinner given by the Alumni Association of Andover High School in honor of the graduating Class of 1938 will take place in the Masonic hall at 7 o'clock. A large attendance is expected.

Across the Principal's Desk

Each year it has been brought to my attention that on Commencement night the seating problem has presented many difficulties, particularly in regard to parents of members of the graduating class.

Certainly we will agree that the parents should receive first consideration in any seating arrangement, and so, after consulting with the class, the following plan has been developed and we solicit the cooperation of everyone in making it as successful as possible.

There will be two reserved sections: Section I for the fathers and mothers of the graduates only, and Section II for the brothers and sisters and other relatives to whom the graduates wish to give the limited number of reserved section tickets that will be issued.

It should be kept in mind that the seating capacity of the auditorium is limited, and that the value of a reserved section is lost if the section is made too large. Seniors cannot give reserved section tickets to but a few of the people to whom graduation announcements were sent. We will provide as many unreserved seats as it is physically possible to do with safety.

Since parents of graduates will be seated in a separate section, it will not be possible for other relatives to be seated with them. Likewise, other relatives who have Section II tickets should not expect to have seated with them those who do not have reserved section tickets. In other words, if only those to whom the seniors can issue reserved section tickets are seated in the reserved sections, there will be no difficulties.

And in closing I would again thank and commend those who have helped make this school year successful.

—Board of Education, faculty, parents, pupils, and the many organizations and village people who are genuinely interested in the education and development of young people.

Clever Stunts Planned For Class Night

The Seniors have prepared a class night program which promises to be one of the most entertaining ever to be given here. Rehearsals began today since the majority of the class have completed their Regents examinations. The program is built around a court room scene wherein the members of the class are lawyers, witnesses and the guilty parties.

One of the most delightful features of Commencement week, in direct contrast to the solemnity of Commencement night itself, Class Night annually draws a large audience which laughs with the class as they entertain at Andover High School for the last time.

Donald Oakes Editor for '39

Donald Oakes, a member of the Class of 1939, has been elected as editor-in chief of the Hi Herald for the next school year. Selections for the offices of editor-in-chief and business manager for the 1938-39 term were held Friday, June 17th. The elections were held after the two nominees had published trial issues of the paper.

The new editor in chief, Donald Oakes, will be the first boy in a number of years to hold this position.

Mary Teresa Burns was elected as business manager.

News of 4-H CLUBS

4-H Clubsters Should Get Particulars on Livestock Awards of Their Leaders

Around 1,000 4-H Clubsters will receive awards this autumn starting with county prizes in the ninth annual National 4-H Meat Animal Project Contest, conducted by the Extension Services of the various states. Particulars may be obtained of the local club leaders.

A watch fob with gold emblem of achievement will be awarded in every county of the United States to the Clubster whose record in livestock projects is designated as outstanding by the county agent.

Records of county champions in this state will be judged for state honors in the State Club Leaders' office previous to Nov. 1. The winner will compete with other state champions in his extension division for a Chicago trip. Three of the highest rating trip winners will be awarded cash college scholarships of $300, $200 and $100. No fee or obligation of any kind is required of contestants except that they be bona fide 4-H Club members carrying on livestock projects.

In nine years 240 boys have won gold watches as state prizes, 21 boys and one girl have received trips to the National 4-H Club Congress and International Livestock Exposition and $4,800 in college scholarships have gone to national winners.

These awards are annually accepted by the State Extension Service from Thos. E. Wilson, as valued incentives to boys to master problems of successful production, marketing and exhibition and develop superior herds and flocks to help them thru college or start farming for themselves.

The short open season for the taking of beaver in this state rewarded 867 trappers with 2,639 of the highly-prized rodents, the Conservation Department announced recently. Hamilton county produced the highest take, 645.

Goldman and His Band to Honor Sousa's Name at N. Y. State Fair

A special tribute to the late John Philip Sousa, the famous bandmaster, will be paid by Edwin Franko Goldman and his band when they appear at the New York State Fair in Syracuse, August 29 to September 10.

After the death of Sousa, Edwin Franko Goldman, conductor of Goldman's Band took his place as the world's leading bandmaster. Goldman is also internationally known as a composer. His whole career has been profoundly influenced by Sousa. One of Mr. Goldman's finest marches is entitled, "Tribute to Sousa," and he is also composer of "On The Mall" which ranks in popularity with the most famous marches ever written.

Paul Smith, Fair Director, announced that Goldman's Band will appear each afternoon on the bandstand in Empire Court. It will also play during the religious services on Sunday. A tremendous turnout is expected for the religious services this year because the Fair will run two weeks instead of one week, as formerly. Everything seems in readiness for the biggest Fair in the ninety-eight years of it's history. The industrial exhibits will be a real stock-taking of industrial progress throughout the State. The livestock show will be greatly augmented and New York State institutions and departments all plan special exhibits.

There will be special programs provided by volunteer firemen, the American Legion, National Grange, Farm & Home Bureau, 4-H Boys and Girls and the New York State Federation of Garden Clubs. The latter will sponsor the flower show. There will also be endless free acts including Lucky Teter, a rodeo, aerialists, clowns and specialty numbers. Among the programs scheduled for the coliseum is a fashion show, State-wide dancing contest, horse show and three of the finest swing bands in the country.

4th of July Eye Injuries Still Too High

Pointing out that the toll of eye injuries among the children and adults is still needlessly high, the State Commission for the Blind lists ten easy Fourth of July DONT'S to help reduce blindness:

Don't try to investigate unexploded firecrackers (they may be just going off).

Don't be careless with blank cartridges (a powder blast may mean the loss of sight.)

Don't stand near a tin can with a lighted cracker under it (the can may shatter and hurl metal splinters into the eyes.)

Don't put a lighted firecracker in a bottle (glass splinters frequently strike the eyes.)

Don't hold sparklers near the eyes (they are not harmless.)

Don't hold Roman candles except parallel to the body (they may backfire.)

Don't throw lighted firecrackers near anybody (this may blind another person; it has happened.)

Don't stand near a bursting torpedo.

Don't get near a rocket (it sometimes shifts direction and may strike back.)

Don't spoil your fun by jeopardizing your own or another person's eyesight or life by being careless.

HELP KIDNEYS
To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste
Your kidneys help to keep you well by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys get functionally disordered and fail to remove excess impurities, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-wide distress.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance.
You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.
In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. A multitude of grateful people recommend Doan's. Ask your neighbor!
