THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., JAN. 14, 1891.

The Silver bill pending in Congress provides for buying $13,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of silver now in market.

Next week, if not sooner, the senatorial question is liable to culminate at Albany. There may, however, be a scattering fire of Democratic votes for some days.

The census announcement that there are a hundred and forty religious bodies in the United States, exclusive of many independent congregations, will be received with surprise by most people whose knowledge of different sects does not embrace more than a dozen or twenty at the most.

It is reassuring to learn from the report of the department of agriculture that the farmers are selling their corn at 77 per cent. more than last year, their wheat 20 per cent. more, their oats at almost double last year's price, their potatoes at 90 per cent. more and their rye, buckwheat and tobacco at a considerable increase. Hay is the only farm produce that shows a decline.

The Chattanooga Tradesman has collaborated southern statistics which show an increase of over $3,700,000,000 in the wealth of the section and a decrease $22,000,000 in the state indebtedness during the past ten years—a gain of 62 per cent., while population increased less than 20 per cent. Capital invested in manufactories increased over 200 per cent., from $170,000,000 to $551,000,000. The railroad mileage has more than doubled.

In the twentieth annual report to the state Legislature of the operations of the Middletown State Homoeopathic Hospital for the insane, Dr. Selden H. Talcott, the medical superintendent, heartily extols the national game of base ball as the best form of outdoor amusements that can be provided for patients afflicted with mental disorders. This institution is the only asylum in the world which maintains among its patients a regularly organized and equipped amateur base ball club as a part of its remedial treatment.

A vote for choice for the next president has been in progress for the past three months, among the farmers exclusively. Postals have been sent out by the leading journals in the east, south and west, asking for an expression, and up to date over two hundred thousand have been received. Blaine leads Harrison about 8,000 out of 71,000 votes, and Cleveland leads Hill 71,000 out of 88,000. The Democratic vote was mostly cast for Cleveland and Hill, while the Republican vote aggregated about 40,000 for McKinley, Reed, Rusk and others. The south was almost solid for Cleveland on the Democratic side and for Blaine on the Republican side. This may be called a straw so far as farmers are concerned. It may be considered a hay stack in the eyes of David B.

A Wonderful Telephone Feat.

Monday's Elmira Advertiser says:

Yesterday morning the Rev. T. K. Beecher, pastor of the Park church, delivered a sermon prepared with especial reference to the religious life and character of the late Mrs. Olivia Langdon. The daughter of Mrs. Langdon, Mrs. Olivia Clemens of Hartford, Conn., was unable to be present and therefore arrangements were made for her to hear the sermon by telephone. The long-distance apparatus was placed in Mr. Clemens' house in Hartford and Manager Estabrook placed it also on the pulpit of the Park church, where it was concealed by flowers. The line went by the way of Syracuse, Albany and Springfield to Hartford, a distance of 413 miles. The experiment was completely successful, the entire service being heard distinctly by the friends in Hartford, and at the same time by friends in Buffalo. Last evening, by request, a number of Mr. Beecher's friends in Buffalo enjoyed his sermon in the same manner.

Chautauqua Politicians Tremble.

A dispatch from Jamestown says:

A first-class political sensation promises to develop this week at Mayville, when persons charged with the attempted bribery of delegates to the Republican Assembly convention will be placed on trial. An indictment was found a few days ago, but the names of the indicted have been kept from the public. The alleged attempt was to turn Woodbury's delegates over to Towne. Hardened old politicians are in a quiver from threatened revelations of the Chautauqua idea in politics, but the better element of Republicans say the party needs just such a purification.

Surprise in Greenwood.

A surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brewster at their home in Greenwood, Jan. 5th, which was Mrs. Brewster's 70th birthday. After a social time of music and singing, an oyster supper was served, after which presents were given by the friends. The young people retired to a room and enjoyed themselves as was agreeable to them, and the older ones did the same. In the wee small hours of the morning all returned to their homes wishing Mrs. Brewster many more such happy greetings. Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Orlando Palmer of Hornellsville, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swain of Canaseraga, and Mrs. Emily Lisk of Romulus. The guests numbered thirty in all.

Ohio Oil Coming.

The large storage tanks of the united pipe line situated at Olean are now being filled with Lima Oil. A new pipe line has been constructed from Colegrove to Olean, and this is now used in transporting the Pennsylvania oil from what is known as the middle field. The pipe line between Olean and Kane, Pa., which was formerly used for this purpose, now conveys the Ohio oil. Over three tanks have already been filled and the work goes steadily on both night and day.

After the tanks at Olean have been filled, no doubt the sweet smelling fluid will be pumped to the tanks east of this village. Everybody will know when it comes, for with the wind in the right direction, Wellsville will be treated to the most delicious odor that ever pervaded our thriving city. You can't disguise the smell of Lima oil.—Wellsville Reporter.

Last Week's Court.

Hon. John S. Lambert of Chautauqua county, held his first term of court in Allegany county last week. A small amount of business was transacted. The first case was between parties in Grove who had a dispute about some land. The second was between J. N. Middaugh, as executor, against C. P. Collins, and resulted in a non-suit. The case of Renwick against the Erie railway was put over the term. The case of the Erie against Dayton is to be tried at a special term of court to be held at Belmont March 2.

The case of Frace against the N. Y. L. E. & W. railway resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff of $3,000. The action was brought to recover damages for the destruction of the old Frace Hotel and other buildings belonging to it at Scio, on Sunday, April 21, 1889, it being claimed that the buildings were set on fire by sparks from a passing train.

THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury completed its work on Thursday and were discharged by the court.

Indictments for the violation of the excise law were found against several. Wm. P. Decker of Wellsville coming in for 7 counts and Wm. Beever for 4. W. W. Church of Belfast, and Benjamin F. Diller and Jno. M. Newton, of Bolivar, each on one count.

Mrs. Lydia Jeffers was indicted for practicing medicine without a diploma.

Henry J. Smith was indicted for connection with the Bohemian oat business.

The Smith Murder Trial.

The trial of Henry Smith for the murder of Rufus Carnahan at Clarksville May 1st, 1890, was begun at Belmont Monday. The entire day was consumed in getting a jury, whose names are as follows: F. W. Potter, Andover; Jas. Farwell, Ward; J. O. Barnes, Independence; S. H. Almy, Scio; C. L. Sternberg, Alma; M. A. Vance, Alma; W. A. Nye, Belmont; W. O. Sheppard, Independence; A. D. Lawrence, Wirt; Calvin Slocum, Andover; Geo. Trahey, Wellsville; H. K. Bassett, Independence. Eighty-one jurymen were examined before a jury was secured.

Tuesday morning the case was opened by District Attorney Brown. Last evening the prosecution had about finished, and it is expected the trial will be finished by to-morrow.

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

John D. Hamilton, one of the most prominent and respected citizens of Steuben county died at his home in Campbell at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

A tailor is making an old-fashioned sheeps-gray suit of clothes for Calvin Fairbanks of Angelica, such as were worn in 1860, with brass buttons and swallow-tail coat. The suit will be a curiosity.

Fayette McKee of Caneadea, who recently received a charge of shot in one of his hips from a gun in the hands of comrade, while out hunting rabbits, has had a long and tedious period of suffering, but is now slowly improving. During his illness his wife and daughter were sick with scarlet fever.

Thomas B. Caulkins, a young man residing in Elmira, met with a horrible death on the D. L. & W. railroad near Mt. Morris Saturday night. Caulkins was a brakeman and his death was caused by falling between two cars and being fatally injured. The accident happened about 9 o'clock, and strange to say occurred directly opposite the house of Mrs. T. McNeily, mother-in-law of the young man.

The annual election of officers of the Allegany County Farmer's Club was held at Angelica on January 7. The old officers were all re-elected, viz.: President, A. W. Litchard, Rushford; vice presidents, W. D. Renwick of Friendship, and J. W. Richardson of Andover; Secretary, Mrs. M. L. Rumpff, of Angelica; Treasurer, J. W. Green of Angelica. The club now numbers 635 members. The next meeting will be held at Cuba, the first Wednesday in February.

Dr. C. W. Saunders of Belfast, died at his home in that village on Wednesday last of an acute form of Bright's disease, aged 54 years. Dr. Saunders has practiced his profession in Belfast and surrounding towns for about 31 years., and has been an active business man as well, having a half interest in an extensive mercantile trade in company with his brother, N. C. Saunders. He was vice president of the bank of Belfast, has been Supervisor from his town for four terms, was a member of the school board and has been for 17 years, and its president the most of the time.

Every week the Scientific American presents whatever is new in the world of science, art and manufactures, thus doing service to both the theoretical and practical workers. PRONOUNCED HOPELESS, YET SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada F. Hurd of Groton S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough setn and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave mysels up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman. THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Measles have come to town.

Found—a door key. Owner will find it at this office.

Beebe, Williams & Co. are unloading a car of middlings to-day.

Anthony McAndrew is reported very ill of pneumonia. Doubts are entertained of his recovery.

A Mr. Smith of Hornellsville, who is working at the ice house, got thoroughly ducked in the pond Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Alvin Richardson of Friendship, mother of J. W. Richardson of this place, is seriously ill, and very little hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Mrs. D. J. Comstock had the misfortune Sunday evening to fall and sprain her ankle. The accident occurred at the north end of the bridge near her home.

Ward Oatley, who has resided in Andover during the past year while engaged in building Frank S. Clark's new house, has moved his family here and proposes to make Andover his home. Everybody is glad to welcome Mr. Oatley as a citizen. He occupies J. A. Grant's house on Main street.

As a sort of supplementary chapter to his "Looking Backward," Mr. Edward Bellamy has written an article for the February issue of the Ladies' Home Journal, under the title of "Women in the Year 2000," in which the famous Nationalist will sketch woman, marriage, courtship, &c., as they will be regulated in the year 2000.

A piano agent has found a couple in Otsego county, that have not spoken to each other in 20 years. He sold them a piano, the business being conducted by their 14-year-old daughter through both of them were in the room all the time.—Exchange. The piano will help matters any, and if the lady in the house commences practice on it the old gentleman will probably retaliate with a cornet or a violin.

The funeral of L. D. Crandall was held at his late residence, Friday, at 1 p. m., Rev. W. Wells officiating. Mr. Crandall was, we believe, a native of Andover, this county, where he spent the story of his early life. He afterwards resided at Scio, Andover, and other places in the county. He was an honest, plain man in all his dealings, but as a father, husband, and neighbor he was tender, kind and obliging. His remains were taken to Andover for interment.—Belmont Post.

Much matter of local matter will be found on the editorial page to-day.

Geo. Prangen's ankle was hurt at the pond Monday. He has been confined to the house since.

The donation for Rev. G. M. Janes will be held at Prest's hall next Wednesday evening, Jan. 21. Everybody is invited.

L. A. Burrows and Jason Beebe have started a Newspaper Subscription Agency in this place. Both of these gentlemen are well known here, and the new firm have all the advantages secured by ability and means. The time was when an enterprise of this character was an important and profitable one in this place, and there is no reason why the new firm should not build up an equally extensive business. Success to them.

The Hawthorne Circle will meet with Mrs. Cunningham next Monday evening. The following program will be presented: Singing. No. 9 in Chautauqua Songs; roll call, quotations from Tennyson; lesson, English History, 25-40. Chaucer to Tennyson, 13-26, Queen's English No. 3, World of to-day. Reading, Death of King Charles 2nd, by Mrs. Pease; game, Who am I? Minnie Freeborn will act as questioner.

Mrs. A. M. Burrows was in Belmont Monday.

E. J. Atwood made a business trip to Hornellsville Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Hibbard of Angelica, visited Andover friends during the past week.

D. K. Porter and family and W. H. Church and family visited in Wellsville Sunday.

H. Mourless, wife and youngest child visited friends in Salamanca and New Albion during the past week.

J. M. Brundage of Russell, Kas., is visiting his uncle, B. C. Brundage, and other friends in Andover. Mr. Brundage was formerly a resident of this place.

G. W. Benton, formerly of this place, but lately of Arkport, has moved his family to Hornellsville. Mr. Benton in company with Dr. J. E. Walker of Arkport, left yesterday for Chicago and other points in the west.

How Ice is Harvested.

Prangen Brothers of Hornellsville, began cutting ice at the pond above the village last week. Their large ice-house is not yet finished, but ice-men cannot "make hay when the sun shines," and so they will pack their ice and complete the building afterwards.

The ice-house is 100 feet long and 60 feet wide, and the lowest point of the roof will be 32 feet from the ground. The building is divided into four compartments of equal size, each of which will hold about a thousand tons of ice.

The first operation preparatory to harvesting the ice is scraping off the snow. This is done by means of large scrapers drawn by horses, and after the scrapers have passed over the surface there is very little snow left.

The ice is cut by a machine called an "ice plow," an implement with handles like any plow, drawn by one horse. All there is of the machine except the handles is a long thin piece of steel six or eight inches high, having teeth on the under side. This is drawn over the ice, cutting it to a depth of about two inches. The same operation is repeated until, with the present thickness of ice, it has been cut to a depth of five or six inches, leaving about the same depth uncut. The ice-plow is followed by men with saws, who detach huge cakes of ice which are floated towards the ice-house by men with long-handled hooks. As the ice nears the elevator it is broken apart into single cakes, and floated upon a long endless chain or elevator, which carries it up an inclined plane to an ice-planer, located at a point higher than the tiers of ice have reached in the ice-house. This planer shaves the top of the ice to a depth of from one to three inches, leaving the cake free of all dirt and "snow-ice," which accumulate on the top of a pond of ice. From the planer the ice goes down a chute into the ice-house, where a number of men are ready with ice-tongs to grasp the cakes and put them into proper position.

The power for the elevator is furnished by two steam engines. The capacity of the elevator is about thirty cakes a minute. It takes a small army of men to do the work, no less than fifty men being now employed. As fast as the ice-house is filled the planer is moved up higher, and is always kept at a point sufficiently high to allow the cake to shoot rapidly into the house.

The ice-house is now about half filled, and the proprietors expect to finish this week.

Hundreds of visitors have watched the work during the past week, and the sight is well worth a trip to the pond.

Prangen Brothers have a large ice-house in Hornellsville, which may be filled with ice from this pond later in the season.

For the Murder Trial.

The following named residents of this town were drawn on the extra panel of jurors for the Smith murder trial, which is progressing this week at Belmont: Augustus Fanton, Frank W. Potter, Chester Clair, Wm. Simkin, Calvin Slocum, Henry Horan, Jr., Thomas M. Comstock, Levi Adams, Jas. McGinty, Eugene Cook.

Died.

Monday morning, Jan. 12, 1891, at his home in Andover, Patrick O'Connor, aged 70 years. The funeral was held this (Wednesday) morning at the Catholic church, and the remains were taken to Wellsville for burial.

Monday evening, Jan. 12, 1890, at his home in Elm Valley, Samuel Bullard. The deceased has been ill for many months with a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held at the M. E. church in this village Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Our School is Growing.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held last Thursday evening, it was unanimously decided to employ an extra teacher for a portion of each day. Mrs. A. D. Brown was chosen to fill the position and she began her duties on Monday of this week. She is present three hours each day, and certain classes in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades recite to her.

This departure was deemed necessary after a careful investigation, which revealed the fact that the higher grades have increased in numbers to such an extent that it was no longer possible for the teachers to give proper attention to the classes unless extra help was employed. The time formerly given to each class had to be cut down one-third in order to get through the large number of classes, and the lesson could not be properly explained to all the members of a class in the allotted time.

As evidences of the growth of the higher grades, it may be stated that there are now 107 scholars up stairs. The tuition paid by foreign scholars amounts to $103 for this term, and will aggregate about $300 during the present year. Six years ago the tuition was $57 for the year, five years ago it was $120 for the year, and the amount has steadily grown until the present year, as stated above, it will amount to $300. There were nine graduates last year, and the prospects are that there will be fourteen this year. Thus it seems not only proper, but absolutely necessary that the Board should increase the number of teachers to keep pace with the growth of the school. Should they do otherwise, there would be cause for complaint, and the school would soon retrograde.

We believe it is a matter for public congratulation that the school is growing. There are few advantages more potent for the building up of an enterprising village than a good school, and we have yet to learn of a live, growing village which did not have an excellent institution of learning. The growth of a school and the growth or a village are inseperable.

If there is a person in the village who does not endorse the action of the Board of Education, we think he will be convinced by spending an hour or two at the school house when school is in session, and we guarantee such an one will be courteously received by Prof. Mitchell and his assistants.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

The heavy rain Sunday about ruined the sleighing.

The S. D. Baptists held their annual Cemetery meeting at the post office Monday evening.

Mr. Wm. O. Shepherd has taken charge of the Alliance store at Whitesville. "Billy" is an experienced merchant and will probably give good satisfaction to the stock holders.

Mrs. H. C. Coleman of Alfred Centre, was in town and attended church here Saturday.

Miss Emma Snyder of Alfred, was visiting friends in town the latter part of last week and attended church Saturday.

There will be preaching and a conference meeting at the S. D. B. church next Friday evening, and the next day communion services will be held.

A number of men of this vicinity attended the Fast Mail show at Wellsville last Thursday night, and speak highly of the entertainment.

Mrs. J. T. Livermore and two little daughters, Amy and Anna, are making an extended visit to friends in Belmont and Friendship.

There were about 50 in attendance at the S. D. B. Ladies' Aid Society at Mr. Stephen Chapman's last week Tuesday, and the receipts amounted to $5. A good square meal at 10 cents each is cheap enough.

Tent No 51, K. O. T. M. of Whitesville intend to have a public installation at their hall on the evening of Jan. 20

Rev. H. D. Clarke is enjoying a visit from his uncle, Mr. B. Clarke of Little Genesee.

Mrs. Lorenzo D. Brown, who has been very ill for some time past, died last Saturday, and the funeral services were held at the family residence in the village of Whitesville on the following Monday at 2 o'clock p. m. Mr. Brown is deserving of much sympathy, as he recently lost his only remaining son, and is indeed lonely in his desolated home.

The young friends of Miss M. Genevieve Jacobs, to the number of 28, inaugurated a surprise party for her, which culminated last Saturday evening, and from beginning to end the fun waxed fast and furious 'till about the "noon of night," when the weary ones departed for their several homes, as gay and happy as young people generally are on such inspiriting occasions.

Last Saturday night the following officers of Sawyer Post, 333, G. A. R., were publicly installed by Mustering Officer J. L. Crittenden, at their hall in the village of Whitesville: Commander, Chas. J. Matther; Sen. Vice Com., J. L. Crittenden; Jr. Vice Com., Ransom Fish; Adjt., Wm. R. Deake; Chap. J. D. Jacobs; Surgeon, D. Gray; Q. M., J. L. Chase; Serg. Maj., Albert Halsey; Q. M. Sergt., Sidney Crandall; O. D., P. K. Millspaugh; O. G., Harry Hauber. After the business was fairly over, the W. R. C. furnished a lunch fit for a king. The remainder of the time was taken up with speeches, songs, and instrumental music, and "swapping lies" among the old vets. All in all it was a jolly good time to the end of the proceedings.

WORMS IN CHILDREN.

Mother Gray, a nurse in the Children's Home in New York, has for years treated children successfully with a remedy, now prepared and put on the market, called Mother Gray Sweet Worm Powders. They are sold by all druggists at 25 cents a package. They remove all worms, are harmless as milk, pleasant to take and never fail. Valuable for feverishnes and headache, even if no worms are present. Sold by all druggists.

Trusts and Mistrusts.

We are often asked to put our trust in things above; sometimes customers ask for "trust," and the pleasant grocery clerk "trusts" all your family are well. Then there are sugar trusts, pork and grain trusts and other trusts, including mistrusts. But we trust you will at once try Tulip Soap for you can safely trust to its efficacy. Then it is so lasting, you know, and economical.

EPUEPSY.

This is what you ought to have in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and oust the demon Dyspepsia, and install instead Eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle, by
