SUPREME COURT VACANCY.

The death of Hon. Thomas Corlett, Justice of the Supreme Court, which occurred in Buffalo last week, leaves a vacancy in the Eighth Judicial District, which comprises the counties of Erie, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Orleans, Niagara, Genesee, Allegany and Wyoming. Justice Corlett's term would have expired Dec. 31, 1891, and the duty now devolves upon Governor Hill of appointing a Justice to fill the vacancy. Naturally the Governor might prefer to appoint a Democrat, but there are several reasons why a member of that party should not be appointed, among which may be mentioned the fact that the Republican Senate would probably refuse to confirm the appointment. And again this is a Republican district, and Governor Hill should not take advantage of the circumstance of a vacancy by death to substitute a man who could not be elected by the people.

Assuming then that a Republican should be appointed, the question naturally arises, who shall it be? The names of several eminent men have already been mentioned, any of whom could probably fill Mr. Corlett's place with ability. But the question of locality is one that should be well considered in making the appointment, and we believe that Allegany should receive most favorable consideration in this connection. This county is clearly entitled to representation upon the Supreme Court bench, and now seems the proper time to urge our claims, whether the man appointed be a Republican or a Democrat. This county can supply a man eminently qualified for the duties of the position, and we believe Governor Hill will act wisely in giving us the long deferred honor.

P. S.—Since the above article was put in type the press dispatches bring news that Governor Hill has appointed Hon. Hamilton Ward of this county to fill the vacancy made by the death of Justice Corlett. All honor to Gov. Hill for this appointment! Mr. Ward is the one man in this county, who, above all others, is entitled to and qualified for the position. All hail, Justice Ward! May thy years be long in the land which thy lord the Governor giveth thee.

The selection of Geo. A. Scott for State Secretary of the New York Farmers' Alliance is an honor no less to the organization in this county than to Mr. Scott. He is Secretary of the Allegany County Alliance, and has shown that he possesses the ability to do the State work in a manner highly creditable to himself and satisfactory to all concerned.

The annual convention of the National Educational Association of the United States for the present year will be held at Toronto, Canada, and as it will on this occasion be of an international character, it promises to be the most successful meeting of the series. Most of the railroads have agreed to give half-rates, plus $2.00, membership fee to all who attend the meeting, this rate being open to the public generally as well as the teachers. The Canadians are making great preparations to welcome and entertain the visiting teachers, and numerous cheap excursions are being arranged to all important points on the great lakes, the St. Lawrence, and the sea-side, after the convention, which will afford to teachers the best opportunity for enjoying their summer vacation they have ever had. The official bulletin, containing program for meeting, railway arrangements, and all other particulars, is ready and will be sent free to any one desiring it, on their dropping a post card to Mr. H. J. Hill, Secretary Local Committee, Toronto.

STATE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

Organized at Hornellsville Last Week--Allegany Honored.

The city of Hornellsville was crowded with farmers last Wednesday and Thursday, to see the organization of the State Farmers' Alliance of New York. It was expected and had been announced that State organizer, Wm. C. Crum of New York, would wield the gavel, but he did not.

After a few remarks by the National Lecturer, J. F. Willette, of Kansas, Geo. H. Sually of Cattaraugus county was elected temporary secretary, and George Scott of Allegany county his assistant. Mr. McGuire of Albany, representing the Knights of Labor, talked upon the question of taxation and the 5 per cent. interest bill. His colleague, Mr. Hicks, spoke on the union of interests between the knights aid the farmers.

The report of the committe on credentials showed the presence of 60 delegates, representing the counties of Allegany, Cattaraugus, Erie, Wyoming, Livingston, Steuben, Yates, Ontario, Monroe, Wayne, and Chemung. Seven other counties were not represented, they having no county organization. The 18 counties have a total membership of 25,000 voters.

At 1:30 the convention re-assembled and was presided over by the National president, L. L. Polk of Washington. His address, which consumed nearly the entire afternoon, was devoted to the work of the order. He outlined the work done in the West and South, and spoke emphatically upon the question of politics. He declared that the Alliance was no asylum for disgruntled politicians, and advised the local bodies to shun anything in the nature of politics. We want no third party, he said; only a just and reasonable code of laws for the farmer, and a more economical administration of government.

At the conclusion of his address the regular routine committees were appointed, and also a committee to report on the Tax-listing bill. The afternoon meeting was behind closed doors, and the members left the hall under injunctions not to give the proceedings away.

At the opening of the Thursday morning session the committee on permanent organization presented their report, which was adopted, electing Harvey Arnold, Arcade, president; Chas. Moore, Canisteo, vice president; Wm. C. Warner, Yorkshire, state lecturer; Geo. A. Scott, Belmont, secretary; T. E. Henderson, Rose, Wayne county, treasurer. The executive committee are Giles Shaw, Cattaraugus county, J. Gale Wales and J. Henry Shalies. As provided in the report of this committee, the St. Louis platform was adopted as a whole and no other platform was put forward. The meeting of the forenoon resulted in no other practical business being accomplished, the time being given to debate and discussion.

National President Polk spoke quite extendedly, and other speakers took part. President Polk and a large number of the visitors departed on the noon trains.

In the afternoon came the reading of the resolutions. They called most emphatically for the state control of the canals after a heated discussion. They ask for the fraternization of all societies of whatever nature, which are based upon the St. Louis platform of the Alliance. A special resolution declared against a third party, and stated that the only way in which the Alliance could complete its end would be by independent voting. The return of the direct tax money was called for as specified in the bill of Assemblyman Johnson of Wyoming county.

An agressive canvass of the rural districts was ordered to be made in the interest of the Alliance. The usual provisions for the lowering of official salaries, the more economical administration of the government and the expansion of the currency were passed with a whoop. A black-list of the assemblymen not in accord with the ideas of the Alliance is reported to have been made. All through the convention was most harmonious, and the reports of the committees were passed almost without opposition. The special committee appointed to investigate the Candor Listing-tax law sat down upon it in fine style, and they were endorsed in so doing. The Knights of Labor and the Greenbackers received the blackest eye of all, and it is safe to say that those questions are buried in the Alliance for the present at least.

The convention at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon completed the work and made the final adjournment until the second Wednesday of November, at some place not yet decided on.

Father Kean's Lecture.

There was a fair-sized audience in attendance at the temperance lecture delivered at Prest's hall last Wednesday evening by Rev. Father Kean of Hornellsville. There is no doubt that the unusual amount of sickness prevented many from being present who would otherwise have been there, and it was much to be regretted that Father Brown of this place, by whose efforts the lecture was secured, was compelled to remain away. But those who were there had the pleasure of listening to a logical presentation of facts concerning the drink evil. The lecture throughout was forcible and convincing and we believe will have an effect upon the people of this place. Father Kean is an easy, graceful speaker, and should he ever consent to visit Andover again we believe he would be warmly welcomed. In addition to the lecture a musical program was prepared, consisting of an anthem, solo, and several choruses, all of which were exceedingly well rendered, and contributed largely to the success of the entertainment. Those who took part in the singing were Mrs. Ed. Swain, Misses Florence Oatley, Anna O'Leary, Mary Cannon, and Messrs. A. P. Wood, T. K. Regan, J. E. Cannon, Ward Oatley.

Andover people will wish Mr. Sidman and his wife a successful and pleasant life, and will expect to find him a better actor than ever when he returns here next month.

Coal at Hammondsport.

A vein of coal two inches thick was found, from 20 to 30 feet below the surface of the earth, in the excavation being made at Hammondsport for the new vaults of the Pleasant Valley Wine Company. The coal is of a bituminous character and burns readily. The vein thickens as it extends back into the steep hill-side. Gas has long issued from the crevices in the rocks in the old vaults, and there are surface indications of gas and oil in other places in this neighborhood, and who knows but that all three of these valuable elements only await the proper developments to bring them out in immense quantities. Who knows but that this region is soon destined to be the centre of a great oil, gas and coal belt not second to any in the famous regions of Pennsylvania, or Allegany county, N. Y.—Hammondsport Herald.

A Hornellsville Shoplifter.

Hornellsville has a shoplifter in the person of Miss Lillie Graham, a young lady who has heretofore stood high in social circles. Several merchants of that place, among whom were Tuttle & Rockwell Bros. and J. Harris & Sons, have at various times missed articles from their stores, and suspicions were fastened upon Miss Graham, who was arrested last week. A search of her home revealed several hundred dollars' worth of goods which were identified by the merchants. The young lady has been released on bail to await the action of the grand jury. Her mother says her mind has been unbalanced since she had the grip. It is thought for some reason that the case will never come to trial.

Dr. Talmage's New Tabernacle.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage's new tabernacle at the corner of Green and Clinton avenues, Brooklyn, was opened to his congregation and the public for the first time Sunday morning. There were three imposing dedicatory services held during the day and thousands of people crowded the big edifice at each one. The tabernacle's dimensions are 200 feet long and 118 wide. The church will seat 5,500 persons. Up to date the total cost of the church is $410,000, and it will require $40,000 more to complete it. At the morning sevice Dr. Talmage welcomed the congregation and spoke of their new home which, he said, was substantially built. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin of Washington delivered the dedicatory sermon, after which Dr. Talmage made another short address, speaking of the disasters through which they had passed during the past 20 years. He said that during that time $800,000 had been expended and $305,000 subscribed for charitable purposes. The congregation had been called upon to build three churches.

Dr. Talmage's evening address upon the subject "The New Tabernacle," is printed in full on another page of this paper. We print his sermons every week.
