STATE OF NEW YORK
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Albany, October 1, 1951

Pursuant to the provisions of section seventy-two of the Election Law, the following Proposed Amendments to the Constitution numbers One to Eight, inclusive, will be submitted to the voters of the State for approval at the General Election on November sixth, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

THOMAS J. CURRAN,
Secretary of State.

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number One

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to permit electors in the actual military service of the state or of the United States in the army, navy, air force or any branch thereof or in the coast guard, to vote, despite absence from their election districts, in time of peace as well as war, and to give the same right to a spouse, parent or child of such electors accompanying them if a qualified voter and a resident of the same election district. The present provision applies only to those in actual military service of the state, or of the United States in the army or navy and is limited to time of war.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number One

Shall the proposed amendment of article two, section one, of the constitution, in relation to absentee voting privileges of electors in military service and certain members of their immediate families, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Two

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to exempt from the requirement of personal registration voters in the actual military service of the state, or of the United States, in the army, navy, air force or any branch thereof or in the coast guard, inmates of a veterans' bureau hospital located outside the state of New York, and a spouse, parent or child of such voters accompanying them, if a qualified voter and a resident of the same election district.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Two

Shall the proposed amendment to article two, section five, of the constitution, in relation to exempting from the requirement of personal registration voters in military service, inmates of certain veterans' bureau hospitals, and certain members of their immediate families, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Three

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to empower the legislature to provide for payment of increased pensions to members of a retirement system of the state or of a subdivision of the state.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Three

Shall the proposed amendment of article seven, section eight, of the constitution, in relation to the power to increase pensions of members of a retirement system of the state or a subdivision thereof be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Four

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to empower the legislature, without submission to the people, to subject the state to liability for the payment of the bonded indebtedness of a public corporation created to construct state thruways, in a principal amount not to exceed $500,000,000, and to authorize the use of any state canal land and properties by such public corporation.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Four

Shall the proposed amendment of article ten of the constitution be amended by adding thereto proposed new section six, in relation to empowering the Legislature by law (a) to make the State liable for the payment of bonds and notes of a public corporation created to construct State thruways, and (b) to authorize the use of State canal lands and properties by such public corporation, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Five

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to provide for an appeal to the court of appeals from a non-final order of the appellate division in a proceeding by or against one or more public officers, a officers, or a court or tribunal, when the court of appeals allows the same, without regard to the availability of appeal by stipulation for final order upon affirmance.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Five

Shall the proposed amendment of Article six, section seven, of the constitution, in relation to appeals to the court of appeals, in proceedings by or against public officers be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Six

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to base municipal debt limitations upon a five year average of full valuation of taxable real estate rather than upon average assessed valuation as at present; to lower the percentage prescribed in the debt limitation for counties, other than Nassau, and for towns and villages from 7 to 5 per cent; to continue the debt limitation for the City of New York and for the County of Nassau at 10 per cent, and for other cities of 125,000 or more inhabitants at 9 per cent; to establish a debt limitation of 7 per cent for city purposes, excluding education purposes, for cities having less than 125,000 inhabitants; to establish a separate 5 per cent debt limit for school districts wholly or partly within or coterminous with cities of less than 125,000 inhabitants, subject to increase for specified objects or purposes upon approval of a proposition by school district voters and consent of the Regents and State Comptroller; and to include within the school district debt limit city debt contracted for education purposes prior to 1952; to advance the date of partial exclusion of indebtedness for potentially self-sustaining improvements or services to the date the debt is contracted; to authorize the City of New York to exclude from its 10 per cent debt limit (1) indebtedness contracted after January 1, 1952, for the construction and equipment of new rapid transit railroads and for the reconstruction and equipment of existing rapid transit railroads not exceeding $500,000,000, which exclusion may be used only once as such debt is contracted from time to time until it aggregates the permissible maximum regardless of repayments (i.e., it is non-revolving), and (2) bonded debt for school purposes to the extent to which State aid for common schools, not exceeding $2,500,000, shall be applied by such city in any fiscal year to meet the annual debt service thereon; to limit to the City of New York the provisions of Section 11 under which the amount of taxes for capital improvements or for payment of short-term debt for such improvements may be excluded from the constitutional tax limit upon condition that such amount be deemed indebtedness for the purpose of computing the constitutional debt contracting power in the same manner as though a debt had been incurred payable over the period of probable usefulness of the improvement, and to provide that any amount deemed to be indebtedness of a county, city other than New York, village or school district under that provision shall not be so considered on and after January 1, 1952, and to authorize such other cities, counties, villages and school districts wholly or partly within cities of less than 125,000 inhabitants, to exclude taxes required for direct budgetary appropriation to finance objects or purposes having a period of probable usefulness from their tax limitations unless the Legislature otherwise provides.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Six

Shall the proposed amendment of article eight, sections four, five, seven and eleven, of the constitution, in relation to restrictions on the powers of counties, cities, towns, villages, and certain school districts to contract indebtedness and to impose taxes upon real estate, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Seven

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to increase the monetary jurisdiction of the city court of the city of New York from $8,000 to $6,000. It also revises Section 15 to eliminate obsolete provisions.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Seven

Shall the proposed amendment of article six, section fifteen, of the constitution, in relation to increasing the monetary jurisdiction of the city court of the city of New York, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Eight

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to permit judges of the court of appeals and the justices of the supreme court to serve in any capacity in the armed forces of the United States of America and of the state of New York and to authorize the legislature to provide for temporary judges or justices to serve during their absence in such service. Presently such judges and justices are prohibited from holding any other public office or trust, except that they may serve as members of a constitutional convention.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Eight

Shall the proposed amendment of Article six, section sixteen of the Constitution, in relation to permitting judges of the court of appeals and justices of the supreme court to serve in any capacity in the armed forces of the United States of America and of the State of New York, be approved?

Fall District F.H.A. Meeting Held in Bolivar

The fall district meeting of the Future Homemakers of America in Allegany County was held in the Bolivar Central School cafeteria and gym on Wednesday, October 17 from 4:00-7:00 p. m.

Upon arrival registration was held and greetings were cheerily shouted to one another. Proceeding to the choral room the 160 girls were welcomed by Vesta Mitchell, the Bolivar F.H.A. president. She introduced Mrs. Owens, an art teacher from Allentown who talked on "Modern Design For You." Mrs. Owens also presented to the group several of the paintings on modern design which she and her husband did during the past summer while attending classes in California.

At five o'clock we went to the cafeteria to eat our boxed lunches along with large glasses of milk and cheerios.

The business meeting led by Charity Howland, state F. H. A. membership chairman began at 6:30 p.m. A report on the first week of camp at Camp Oswegatchie was given by Marilyn Matylas of Cuba supplemented by Nancy Potter of Bolivar who added the activites of the second week. Dorothy McCrae, a delegate to the state F. H. A. meeting from Alfred-Almond related the major happenings at Marrisville on June 1-3. The important points of the national meeting held in East Lansing, Michigan at Michigan State College were discussed by Charity Howland. The spring F. H. A. district meeting at which a state officer will be elected, will be held at Alfred-Almond the last of April or early May.

The meeting was adjourned by Roberta Snyder of Alfred-Almond after the creed was spoken. Lyla Cole of Bolivar led several songs, "Too Young," "Thinking of You," "Because of You," F. H. A. song to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne,, and the F. H. A. closing song to the tune of "Now Is The Hour."

Nancy Potter of Bolivar led the group to the gym for games.

Seventeen girls accompanied by Mrs. Dougherty went from Andover.

They were: Sandy Bostwick, Pat Baker, Lucille Smith, Shirly Ordiway, Kay Mickle, Alura Grossman, Ann Harvey, Mildred Miles, Sandra Skuse, Carol Harris Thelma Mickle, Rosetta Davis, Barbara Clark and Charity Howland.

Fillmore, Richburg, Belfast Cuba, Alfred-Almond, Ang , Allentown, Friendship, Scio, Bolivar and Wellsville all sent four or more delegates. Twelve advisors were present from the different schools.
