We would call the attention of our readers to the large stock of Military Dry Goods and Groceries at H. C. Drown's, which he is selling at greatly reduced prices.

Cow Died.—On Monday Morning last, a cow belonging to Mr. O'Donnell, while being driven to pasture commenced coughing, and in less than ten minutes dropped dead.

The editor of the Steuben Advertiser is selling his autographs for $1.50, and throws in the Advertiser for one year, gratis. Great inducements to build up a subscription upon.

STEAMER BURNED.—The steamer A. R. Trew, was burned to the water's edge on the evening of the 12th inst., at her landing in Jamestown. She was insured for $3,500.—Cloud Farmer.

Subscribe for the Andover Advertiser.

NEW BUILDING.—Cross & Linn have erected a new block in Friendship, which is three stories high, containing two stores on the lower floor, the third story, we are told, is to be fitted up for a public hall. The building is of wood structure, but the architect is good and is an ornament to the place.

RENAWAY.—A team belonging to a man in Troopshburgh, became frightened at the Depot yesterday and ran up 2d street until they came to ——— at, when they turned and ran up to the residence of A. A. Robinson, Mr. Robinson stopping them. No damage done of any account.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of the Canebrake Advertiser. It is a 16 column journal, published once a month, at Canebrake, Allegany Co. It looks as neat as wax, and we wish it success.

All deaths and marriages are items that are of interest to every body, and we would be pleased to publish them, if the community will be to the trouble of handing them in; and when anything occurs in your neighborhood, send it along; give the particulars and we will fit for the press.

An American Eagle passed through Hornellville, says the Valley Times, a few days since, by Express, and consigned to Horace Greeley. On the box containing his eagleship was written the injunction; "Messenger, if you love your country, feed this bird."

SOMETHING WORTHY OF NOTE.—The American Hotel at Friendship, kept by Mr. Fairbank, is just the place for everybody to stop that is tired, hungry, or sleepy, and we warrant you "Eph" will make it comfortable for you in every respect. His house is well furnished, and his table is always loaded with everything good. If you go to Friendship don't fail to call at the American.

They had a railway celebration at Owego last Saturday says the Steuben Advertiser, to jubilate over the driving of the first spike, (made of Silver), in what is called the Southern Central Railroad, running from Little Sodus Bay, on Lake Ontario, by way of Auburn, Dryden and Owego, to the coal mines of Pennsylvania.

Capt. S. M. Harmon, late Provost Marshal of this District during the war, went to New York some weeks ago to engage in recruiting for the patriot Cubans, and has been arrested and put in prison for an alleged violation of the neutrality laws. His friends are called upon to go down and bail him out. As yet, no one has offered to bail.—Bath Advertiser.

ANDOVER I. O. OF G. T.—The members of the Lodge of Good Templars, in this village, are to have a Public Session on Friday Even, July 23, commencing at 8 o'clock, when the doors of the Lodge room are to be open to all. An "Item Box" to be read by Miss Sarah Van Sickle and Miss Eliza Kenely. An Address by the Chaplain.

EXPLANATION.—We last week published an article under the head of "Highway Robbery" as it was made by the party claiming to have been robbed. But when they got the gentlemen at Angelica for the purpose of finding out their stories about the affair, which amounted in the end to nothing. The two charged with the affair, now stand fully acquitted. But the $16 arrangement has not, as yet, been accounted for.

The Steuben Advertiser says the people of Penn Yan, are discussing the question whether the use of the Grape from its earliest history to the present time, has been productive of more evil than good to the human race. The decision is waited for by grape growers with great interest.

STRUCK.—The creek banks on the Erie R. R. between Olean and Hornellville, on Monday struck for higher water. The company struck their wages to $100 per day, and we understand that the men of them have gone back to work, with some promise to have all that they struck for—that is, they will only work ten hours. What it will result in remains to be seen.

THE TOTAL ECLIPSE.—On the 7th of August a total eclipse of the sun will occur. This will undoubtedly be the most interesting eclipse that has ever witnessed in this country for years, and we are told that it will not happen again until the last of the century.—The shadows of the earth will commence crossing the sun's disc about four o'clock in the afternoon and will not entirely pass from it until nearly half-past six.

A FALL.—Mr. James Ramsey, of Belfast, while working on the frame of a barn, one day last week, fell from the rafters to the ground—a distance of about twenty-eight feet. Fortunately he managed to come down right end up, and received no other injury than a slight laming. It was also fortunate and almost miraculous that he struck on the ground instead of some of the timbers that were lying around loose.—Allegany Advertiser.

WAVERY.—We last week took a trip to Waverly, which we must confess is one of the prettiest places we have visited in a long time. The streets were clean, Good sidewalks and a plenty of shade trees. The residences all look fine and the yards generally are tastefully arranged, and everything in "apple pie order." Yes, and we met the editor of the Waverly Enterprise, Frank T. Scudder, who by the way is publishing one of the spiciest little sheets in the State. Frank we consider ourselves under many obligations for your kindness in showing us around while there. If you ever chance to come this way we should be pleased to return the kindness.

COWS KILLED.—Two cows belonging to Joseph Cusack, which have been pastured near the pond above this village, swam across on to the railroad last night, and when the Clerks' Express (No. 8), passing east at 12 1/2 a. m. passed, it struck them, breaking the neck of one and twisting her head two or three times around. Both horns and one hoof were torn off. The other had a leg and one horn broken, with some other bruises. She not being dead this morning, they knocked her in the head. This makes four cows he has lost within the last two year, three being killed on the railroad track.

Bennell of the Danville Advertiser, has turned poet, and arranged the following on that "ere" umbrella that Fisk lost. Here it is:

"Lines on an umbrella which was discovered on a pile of dirt in Main street last Saturday morning:

There lies Fisk's yellow, faded umbrella, That hit the Hornellsville Tribune feller On the smeller And made him beller!

It's work is done, It's glory won, And now it's gone To kingdom come!"

WHAT MANUFACTURING WILL DO FOR A TOWN.—Canton, Ohio, is where a large number of patent Reapers and Mowers are made. When the inventor went there a few years ago, it was the dullest and least progressive town in that State, and was retrograding in wealth and population. He asked the citizens for $10,000 for a start, and received that sum as a loan. Results of the investment—a large Reaping and Mowing Machine, and two large Agricultural Implements and Plow Manufacturing, one of Stoves and Mower Knives, and one of Saddlery Hardware, two of Horse Rakes, one of Wrought Iron Drives, one of Soap and Candles, and others more or less extensive.—The town has tripled in population and quadrupled in wealth, and this helps farming interest in the neighborhood.

THE QUINTESSENCE OF THIS DAY.—Under the statute laws of our country, a criminal was always considered a high crime and misdemeanor, and even during our service in the army, we looked with disgust upon a male thief; but stating religious papers we consider the quintessence of all manners. Oh, Cal! how your early religious training must have been neglected!

ALLEGANY DEMOCRAT.—To HIRAM YORK, Esq.—There is a copy of an orthodox religious paper addressed to Hiram York, now in this office. Knowing how much he will miss the careful perusal of its columns, this method of informing him of its whereabouts is adopted, and he is respectfully called upon to come and take it away.—Free Press.

RATHER COOL, Col., whom detected in sending a religious paper, to ask the parties to come and take it out of your way.

ST. PATRICK'S BENEVOLENT SOCIETY OF DANVILLE.—This society, says the Advertiser, which was organized in May last, is in a prosperous condition and numbers between 60 and 70 members. The following are its officers:

President—John Murphy, Vice President—Thos. J. Burby, Secretary—Wm. Bradley, Treasurer—Thos. B. Gallagher.

The object of this society as set forth by its organizers, "is to promote harmony, peace and good will to mutually and benevolently aid one another in case of sickness or death, to unite men residing here, or in this vicinity, in brotherly love and affection, and for no other purpose, political or religious, has this Society been organized." To this end appropriate constitution and by-laws have been adopted.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.—Captain Asaph Allen, formerly of Allegany county, but for several years past a resident of Kansas and Colorado, strangely disappeared about the last of March, and no trace of him has since been found. He had been in Washington on business and telegraphed to his father at Lawrence, Kansas, on the 28th of March that he should start for home that day. Nothing has been heard of him since. An examination has shown that one ticket was sold at Washington on that day for Lawrence. The coupons of that ticket have been traced as far as St. Louis. Mr. Allen's friends think he traveled on that ticket as far as St. Louis, but what has been his fate since, it is impossible to learn.—Carristoe Valley Times.

At the Regulators you will always find a large assortment of groceries for wholesaling and retailing. 500 barrels Akron flour and other popular western brands, constantly on hand. We have now in store 80 chests very choice tea, which we are prepared to furnish to the trade as low as the same can be purchased in New York.

100 lbs sugar from 11-1/2 to 10cets. Corn meal, pork, hams and shoulders. Fish of all kinds. Smoked meats, etc.

Canned fruits of every description. Oranges and lemons, and in fact everything that can be found in a first-class wholesale grocery store.

Call and look through our stock and get posted before purchasing elsewhere. C. H. SIMMONS, Wellsville.

TRAGEDY AT OWEGO.—For some months past Owego and vicinity has been infested with a desperate gang of outlaws, whose frequent and bold acts have startled the entire community.—Burglaries, daring robberies and incendiarism have run riot in that section, and it was known to be the work of a well organized and desperate gang.—On Friday night policeman Isaac Wiltse discovered an attempt at burglary, and in his effort to arrest the leader, one George Bowers, the latter struck him a heavy blow with a slung shot. Wiltse immediately fired upon the burglar, wounding him fatally, and in return received a bullet, either from Bowers or one of his accomplices, killing almost instantly. The wounded burglar was found dead next morning in an adjoining garden. Some of his associates have been arrested, and quantities of stolen goods were found and identified. Thus a desperate gang of robbers and plunderers has been broken up, and it is hoped full punishment may be meted out to the remainder.—Steuben Courier

Number 30 of Health and Home is a specially fine one, even for the best of family papers. It contains the beginning of the very interesting story, "The Romance of a Rich Young Girl," by Octave Feuillet, author of "The Romance of a Poor Young Man," which was everywhere so deservedly popular, by reason of the singular interest of its plot and the healthy tone of its morality. "The Romance of a Rich Young Girl" is said to possess these qualities in an equally marked degree. Pentegill, Bates & Co., 37 Park Row, New York city.

IMPENSE REDUCTION IN PIANOS.—The Chickering Pianos, which took the "Grand Gold Medal" at the Paris Exhibition, and the still higher recognition, "The Cross of the Legion of Honor," are now selling at greatly reduced prices, the discount system having been abolished. L. B. Powell, 116 Penn avenue, Scranton, Pa., is their wholesale agent for a large portion of the States of Pennsylvania and New York. Send to his address for the new circular and price lists, containing full explanations, which will be furnished free upon application. Mr. Powell is also wholesale agent for the celebrated Mason and Hamlin Organs, and dealer in all kinds of Musical Merchandise.
