The Reports

In this issue is printed the 1906-07 Water Report. It shows a balance on hand of $654.48, and also a loan to the village funds of $317.33, or in other words the water fund has nearly a thousand dollars to its credit after paying all expenses and the interest on the water bonds outstanding besides retiring Bond No 8 for $400. This is a good showing. In justice to the outgoing Board of Trustees and Water Commissioners, it should be known, however, that the $317.33 borrowed by the village fund from the water fund was not an official act of the present Board. It is a matter of fact that each Board for the past to-wit three years have [illegible] accounts [illegible] the Water Fund to [illegible] is all proper, as [illegible] the [illegible] monies for [illegible] fund, [illegible] over [illegible] present [illegible] is the [illegible] fact.

Commissioners and boards are now aided by men not only familiar with the highway law, but men of practical experience in the construction of better roads. These men visit the counties and the towns, consult with the officers and aid in the laying out of a stronger and better class of highway work for the purpose of carring out the policy that the state of New York has adopted, and that is, that having in the past provided cheap transportation by canals, railroads and trolleys for the cities of the state, she now proposes to provide cheap transportation on roads having hard surfaces at all seasons or the year over which the state produce can be hauled to her own markets.

No One Man Controls Railroad Systems

....By....
EDWARD H. HARRIMAN,
Multimillionaire Railroad Magnate

I PERHAPS as much as anybody represent what the public is believed to be antagonistic to at this time—corporate interests, or at least RAILROAD corporations. I have been introduced on several occasions as being the controller of so many thousands of miles of railroad, but I do not control ONE MILE of railroad.

I DO NOT BELIEVE IN ANY ONE MAN OR ANY COMBINATION OF MEN CONTROLLING THE IMPORTANT TRANSPORTATION LINES OF THIS COUNTRY OR ANY GREAT PORTION OF THEM.

The organizations of which I am part are made up of fourteen or fifteen thousand persons who control and own these properties. There is no individual, NO COMBINATION OF INDIVIDUALS, that could possibly own or control them or does control them.

The stockholders and the boards of directors manage those organizations. While I stand as their representative and appear to be the dictator, I am not such. I simply CARRY OUT what has been carefully considered and turned over by many minds.

I do not defend the railroads or the officers of the railroads, because I believe that the mismanagement of railroads has been largely due to the ANTAGONISTIC FEELING that has prevailed against them. But we hope to correct them and to get some co-operation among the intelligent minds of the STABLE CITIZENS of this country.

The Sanctity of Home Ties

By Rev. Dr. MORGAN DIX, Pastor of Trinity Church, New York City

FEW persons know and VERY FEW REFLECT to what an extent the radicals of the day are pushing their schemes of social [illegible]. [illegible] It is hard to say what is the worst, [illegible] ABOLISH MARRIAGE and [illegible] [illegible] BUT TO THE [illegible] OBVIOUS SCHEME [illegible] THAT [illegible] HOME. It is [illegible] of the FIRST of duties.

MONSTROUS IS THE UNWILLINGNESS TO BRING THEM INTO BEING LEST THEY SHOULD PROVE A TROUBLE OR INTERFERE WITH THE SELFISH END OF LIFE.

The Rise of the Demagogue

By REV. L. W. HANSHEIMER, President of Tufts College

[illegible] CLASS DISTINCTIONS. Unknown as they may be, but [illegible] are in the older nations of Europe. There [illegible] the large influx of immigrants—people [illegible] speaking a different [illegible] in the lowest and MOST IMPORTANT [illegible] AGENCY.

[illegible] are creeping to develop, a HORIZONTAL [illegible] of the poor man is being aroused. He is being told that men with brains and education are exploiting him for their own good.

The aim of these demagogues is to make a new alignment of party, to make every man who works with his hands TURN AGAINST THE MAN who works with his brain. On one side will be the discontented, the man who has been PERSUADED that he is discontented, and on the other will be, for their own protection, the men of brains.

THIS NEW ALIGNMENT WILL INDEED BE A CALAMITY.

The Evil of Individual Abuse of Opportunity

By President NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER of Columbia University

WHY do you suppose that the word corporation has become A STENCH IN THE NOSTRILS of so many people? It is simply because of individual ABUSE OF OPPORTUNITY. Those who want to build up are seeking to find out and punish those recreant to their trusts.

If we could get back to the point of LEGAL CO-OPERATION and the ethical standards, then we could build up and cut away those things which are distressing us. It is INDIVIDUAL responsibility for what we call society and the state and for these constructive reforms which will give us what our government intended—EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW.

The Village of Wellsville elects an entire new board of Village Trustees this year. This is due to the resignation of Trustees Tullar and Jones who cannot spare the time from their own work to give to the affairs of the Village.

Elmer Walters' side splitting comedy drama "A Thoroughbred Tramp" is booked to serve the theatre-goers at the Andover Opera House, March 11. The play is full of heart interest and hilarious comedy and it is said the company handles the situations in a clever and painstaking manner. The scenery carried by the company is said to add much to the success of the play.

Love Revealed

THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE

Who e'er has felt a little heart beating against his breast,
Bound in the flesh and blood which names him father,
Or once has looked into the birdling's nest,
Waiting for mother love to come and hover;

Who e'er has looked into a mother's eyes,
When with the look of mother love they gleam,
Forming the blue expanse of heaven skies,
Which o'er his little land of trouble lean;

That one has felt within his inner heart,
And seen in nature's book the truth revealed,
A tender thought as small, sweet earth's most
Of life's verity love—love the thing greatest in all other.

HIRAM D. BACON

Death of Mrs. Nancy Kaple

Mrs. Nancy J. Kaple died at her home two miles south-east of Andover village Monday, of pneumonia, aged 61 years.

Nancy Loughlen was born in the county of Clare, Ireland, in 1844. She came to this country in childhood and made her home for a time with her sister, Mrs. J. O'Donagh, coming to Andover with them in 1861. On the 21th of December in that year she was married to Wm. Kaple who with two sons, Fred and Plimpton survive, Mrs. A. O'Donnell of this place and Mrs. McMahon of Rushville and two brothers, Michael Loughlen of Rossburg and Peter Loughlen of Hempstead, survive to mourn her taking away.

Several years ago she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and although deprived of its privileges for some years, continued her trust in Him who was made perfect thru suffering.

Funeral services were held at the late home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment in Hillside cemetery.

Mary S. Cheesman

[illegible] Mrs. Mary S. Cheesman died at her home on Friday afternoon of Pneumonia resulting from an attack of Latrippe, a week before.

She was born in Greenwood, New York, about 42 years ago, the daughter of Asa and Charlotte Pease Stephens. She came to this village with her family to reside about eleven years ago and gained many friends. Be cause of her sterling character and quiet disposition. She was a faithful member of the First Baptist church and very much devoted to the interests of her home and family.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, J. D. Cheesman, a daughter Grace, and a son Glenn, also three sisters and one brother, Mrs. M. J. Todd, Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. G. M. Woodward, Mrs. F. D. Watkins and R. P. Stephens of Greenwood and a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held at the late residence Sunday afternoon, Rev. Chas. H. Harrington, her pastor, officiating and the choir of the church assisting. The large number of floral pieces sent attested the appreciation of her worth. The interment was in Hillside Cemetery. Her husband and children have the sympathy of all the people of our village in the hour of their bereavement.

FELL FROM 2ND. STORY

Cass Wildman Has Narrow Escape of Losing His Life

Cass Wildman fell from the second story of the new Cutlery plant upon which he was working, Saturday, failing to the ground badly spraining his left ankle and cutting a large gash in his forehead.

It was six o'clock and Mr. Wildman was starting down to go home. He threw one foot over the edge of the building and swung himself out expecting to land on the scaffolding but the toe of the other foot caught between the timbers and the sheeting throwing him to the ground some seventeen feet below.

Although badly bruised no serious complications are expected. He was taken to his home on South Main St., and a physician summoned. Mr. Wildman is recovering as rapidly as he can expect.
