Mr. Darwin's... We publish this week the diary of H. A. Darwin, as kept by him on his journey over the Pacific R. R. to California. Also a description of Salt Lake City.

The Directors of the Cuba Valley Joint Agricultural and Mechanical Society, have decided to hold their Second Annual Fair on Smith's Driving Park in Cuba, on the 28th, 29th and 30th of September.

Mr. Joseph Shattuck will please accept our thanks for a nice mess of new potatoes and string beans. The potatoes were splendid and the beans were extra splendid. We certainly after partaking of them, felt as a splendid.

New Arrivals.—Shand & Poirer have just received a new lot of stores of different patterns, as follows: "The Rising Star," Western Oils, and the Hot Blast, for steam or hot water, with a great variety on hand previous to this arrival. We know that they are well prepared to accommodate the public as any other establishment in Western New York. And as for price, they will not be undersold. Don't fail to call at the Hardware Store on Center Street, Andover.

Don't for the world forget to read Russell & Watson's new advertisement. We think we can safely say that Messrs. Russell and Watson are manufacturing some of the best harness we ever saw in this country; and we know they are selling good double harness from three to five collars less than any other establishment in this section of the country. We would advise all wishing either double or single harness, to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere.

A married man named A. E. Rockwell has recently been arrested for enticing two young girls from their homes at Loudon, on Seneca Lake, for the purpose of prostitution, which he accomplished. One of the girls was the daughter of the landlord at Loudon named Sarah Corbett, and was 17 years old. The other was Miss Ada Russ, a boarder at the hotel. Rockwell was a traveling agent for a firm in Syracuse. He was found at a hotel in Syracuse with these girls, and was promptly arrested. His crime is not a light one, and he is better than that of the victims. They were warned of the man, and went with him deliberately. The girls' families are responsible as to that of the girls who induced them, and they ought to be severely punished. Sheldon Courier.
