

PERSONAL.—R. M. Watts, of the El-mira Saturday Evening Review, paid us a flying visit of Saturday last, we are very sorry that business prevented us from mak-ing the visit more pleasant; but we will do

Local Intelligence.

-:0:--Church Directory.

Post Office Directory.

OVER STATION.

County Directory

will be found the Post Office address of the officials of Allegany County; y Judge and Surrogate - Wolcore Hazon offector, U. S. Int. Rev. - B. C. Robe silsville, School ommissioner - R. L. Annus, Bollvar, L. B. Tresman, Centervill

County Courts For 1869. County Courts. For 1869; Wolent Hatch, Presiding Judge, Monday in January, Belmont, Petil Jury, Monday in May, agelica, Lew Term, no

Third Mouday in Aug., Belmont, Grand and Pet

Court Calendar.

WANTED.-A good practical printer to take charge. Such a hand can find good situation by applying at this offic immediately.

Read our Kansas correspondent.

We call attention to the adverti om five to seven cents per quart.

The Co

ral society.

ave for the west next week,

Dr. J. W. Fench, has sold his house of to Mrs. Jason Hunt. Mr. French

Berries, in this vicinity, are more plenty

Five new dweling houses are now being erected in this village, and two others are making preparations to build.

better next time.

New Atlas.—We have received notice from Mestra Beers & Co.., publishers of the new Atlas of this county, for which surreys made last year. Suting that the Atlas is nearly completed, and will be delivered to their sabscribers from the middle to the last of Angest.

Wonderful Roo.—Mr. W. Orris, of the town of Hartwille, found an egg the other day, larger than common. S. presing it to be a double yolked, his wife carefully removed the shell, when, to her supprise, she found another egg inside with a regular shell, as hard and as perfect as the one upon the outside. We a regular shell, as hard and as perfect as the one upon the outside. We have heard of a wheel in a wheele, but this is the first in-stance of an egg in an egg. The above is stance of an egg in an egg. ' however well authenticated.

PICNIC AT ANDOVER -The Baptist and Presbyterian Sabbath Schools of this place have united for the purpose of celebrating a Sabbath School Picof celebrating a nic next Thursday. An invitation has been extended to the schools of Wells-ville, Elm Valley and Green's Corners, Let all turn out and enjoy this day school bells, car bells and even the tarnery whistle, in fact anything that tells when it is time to start. Our friend Jesse Green has put upon his dray horse a new bell that sounds like tile call to a marriage feast, even the old horse seems proud of his new acquisition and prances along with a rayal tread. Success to you Jesse.

WHOA, OLD GRAY.-Last Monday

A large building catches our eye, and we walk up and are shown through the

WELCOME.-John Lever, Esq., arrived in town last Tuesday, among other attractions that he brought from Court Calendar.

Frent Courts, and Courts of your and Terminer, and Several Terms of the Supreme Court LeAlingson, and Several Terms of the Supreme Court LeAlingson, for 18th, Supreme Court Healingson, for Fisher Monday of Edynamy, at Belmon, by Supreme Manyella, by Judicia Manyell the Gotham was a fine watermelon and the Gotham was a fine watermeets that a hasket of peachers. John always holds the printers is kindly remembrance. "We have eaten and are sat isfied." Thank you, John. Long may you wave. May your vituals never go back on you. May you in least your wave the printers of th may you wave. May your vituals never go back on you. May your vituals never go back on you. May you' increase and multiply. Do so some more John.

humediately.

Mr. Richardson has placed a new Whistle on the steam Tanery.

Who can best it? Mrs. Mary Bahcock, of this place, has a quilt with 3.652 pieces. The State fair will be held at Elmira, on the 14th, 15th, 15th and 17th of September. Hon. M. B. Champhain, is to deliver the samual address before the Allegany country Agricultural Society.

The great National Horse Fair will be held this year at Williamsport, Soptember that 15th inclusive.

We publish this week on the eight page. We rushed over and found it only too true. There in George's show case were eight sticks of various lengths, and styles. George wasn't hurt much. But eight empty glasses stood on the counter. George was dumbfounded. He could cut a coat, pants or vest, could attend post office, wait five miles before breakfast, steal, run horses, in fact do anything but cut cord wood. How are you cigars.

A Scar Vast wight instabout us that he sold last week five hundred therese, which becars an envisible reputation in market. We wish then well, such 'things help to bring money into our town, we wish there were more like it. As we stroll back, we glance our eye over the new street running from Bliss Clarke's to the Union Schoolhouse. It has been levelled down 'and makes a very fine street. We publish this week on the eight page, correspondence on the Black Valley, R. R. wether column, of the sale of the Andover Weelen Factory, on Thursday, the 26th inst

A Scars.-Lust night, just about dark, a horse belonging to some dro-vers was hitched down here on the corner, became frightened at the cars;
Mr. Bundy endeavoring to hold him at the time, Mr. Calvin Ellicott came along with some crockery ware on his arm.
The horses made a lunge for the side walk, which scared Calvin and over he t Band of Angelica, is being under the leadership of Mr. D. D. T. Moore, editor of the Rural New Yorker, is to deliver the address at the coming fair of the Steuben County Agriculcut one of his hands a little. Accepents .- Mrs Edmun Brown

Why are the clouds like a wagon wheel? Because they go over and Saturday last, by falling down stairs. It was set by Dr. Deming. over (Andever).

A young mat, residing in West Union,
A young mat, residing in West Union,
Senseze Valley Seminary.—Fall
Edwin Everett's place is anways open from $4.50 to $8.50. For particulars from $4.50 to $8.50 to $8.50. For particulars from $4.50 to $8.50 t

ANDOVER -- A LOOK AT ITS IM-Business Men.

The other evening, feeling like taking a walk, we started out, hardly knowing where to go first; so seeing a crowd over at T. & F. J. Baker's, we drop in and find it is only their regular rush of customers for drugs, that cure all

Physicians and have a good ride.
George A. Green is our next victim.
He is our gentlemanly Post Mister,
and at the same time he has his shelves piled fall of cloths, that he cuts up into perfect fits." Our readers will always find George a pleasant, liberal man to deal with, and unlike most of his craft or tells lies.

never tells lies.

Stillnam Devis, who has just taken possession of the American Hotel, is just ringing his bell for supper, but as we are in a hurry, we just look in and wish him well as we pass. Our readers Hall, we decamp will find his card in this issue of the

ADVERTISER.

J. C. Dyer is standing behind a pile morning we heard that ominous cry on the street, and stretched our neck out of the window to see the runawy; ing between his costomers. He has always lo Old Gray stood in the road. of the window to see the runaway when, lo, Old Gray stood in the road, bis balter hanging to the ground. He reminds us of the Dutchman's horse that wan't balky, but he was afraid to start for fear he would not hear his driver when he said whoa.

BitLis.—We like to hear belis, out dinner bell especially always has a welcome sound for us; oburch bells, school bells, car bells and even the tartery whistle, in fact anything that tells when it is time to start. Our friend Line Caccon has unkt upon his dray.

J.J. Raymond has some fine boof on we enter the first floor storer-rom.—

Here are are about four hundred fine, plump, even cheeses, and we are wondering waere they all go to, when we step up stairs and are shown nealy as many more, a little older and a little better. The building is one hundred and eighty-four feet long by twentyeight feet wide. On the ground floor we find au ice house well stored with ioe. The whole building is a perfect hicture of neatness. Mr. Brown tells us that he sold last week five hundred cheeses. They always get the highest very fine street.

The Methodist Church, on our way home, we notice needs a new coat o paint. The nower gattern, on the are sonage lot just fills our eye, and we are sorely tempted to use the "freedom of the press," but as it won't do to steal from'a Minister, we turn reluctantla way and glance across at the Preaby-terian Church. This is the most imwatk, wmen scarcu convint and out the went, crockery and all, furnishing him self with several more pieces than he had previous to the fall. Mr. Dilicott had previous to the fall.

country.

Joseph Shaut, who keeps just south of the Methodist Church, can make you a suit of clothes in the latest style

nd warrant a fit. Edwin Everett's place is always open says he finds plenty of trade for these hot days.

We are very tired, so we stroll across the street to Jacob Elwell's and sent ourselves in one of his easiest arm chairs for a comfortable rest, while we take a view of our surroundings. Her we find furniture piled everywhere, and are about to leave, when he invites us into the back room, not to take a drink but to see his machinery for doing all classes of fine work. He has a neat classes of fine work. He has a neat little engine that runs his saws, augurs, chisels, etc. He takes a rough board, and while we are talking, turns cut. handsome window sash. He is munufacturing largely and by the aid of the facturing largery and by the act of more machinery he has just put in, he hopes to be able to keep up with his trade. We see no coffins and are alarmed! but he quiete our fears by taking us up stairs, where he invites us to leave our measure; we are not anxious

We step in to see Walker, he is weighing out a lot of sugar, as usual, and we enquire for a chair, "Don't keep 'em," he replies, "ao room for enhirs." Come to look around we see he has every nook and corner piled with goods, dry goods, crockery, glass-ware, groceries, provisions, etc. We wander into Crandali & Brain-

o after taking a peep into the Masonic and the the most timid batchelor bold.

Peter Swink is so widely known wells, the word of the bolds out a tempting piece to us, we make our most profound bow, and walk and walk and walk and are subjected to the bolds out a tempting piece to us, we make our most profound bow, and walk and are shown through the first thing that meets our eye; and walk up and are shown through the first thing that meets our eye is three large vats for holding the milk; in the bottom of each of these is several jarge pieces of ice. Piloted by Mvs. Browwe enter the first face—

The walk up and are shown through the bottom of each of these is several jarge pieces of ice. Piloted by Mvs. Browwe enter the first face—

The walk is so widely known we walk up and are shown through the bottom of each of these is several jarge pieces of ice. Piloted by Mvs. Browwe enter the first face—

The walk is so widely known we walk up and are shown through the total will be an honor to a parfor table. Here too we find an endless variety of groceries, erockery, stone-ware, glass-ware, etc.

We want to know the time, so we the pint Allen's and all sorts of dials stare us in the face all pointing to several walk and the walk up and are shown through the stone walk up and are shown through the stone walk up and are shown through the stone walk up and the walk up and are shown through the stone walk up and the walk ard's, and at first think he has a large mirror, set up; no, it is our own photograph. He explains, it is a picture of the veritable Chinaman from whom they purchase their choice teas. We the man's tastes that cannot be suite here.

A. O. Very & Co's Head Loom manufactury is in the third story of Benton's block. They are giving good satisfaction where they are used, and they are busy in king more to fill their VanSickle & Burrows have almo Vanishele & Introve later a more an eadless variety of dry goods, give ceries, boots and shoes, crockery, &c. Although they are crowded with customers, they keep plenty of help and you are never kept waiting. They are period gentlemen and fair in their dealperfoct gentlemen and fair in their ocastings.

The air is very chilly. We step in at Shaut & Porter's and find an array of stoves that will bid defiance to the coldest wind that blows. They have big array of shelf hardware and outlery that is arranged to please the eye.

Jim we find in the tin shop, he is an old friend of ours and wolke him very f muchly. He is a first-class wokman and so good business man. We wish him can be supplyed to the control of the supplyed to the control of the supplyed to the control of the control and a good business man. We wish his

The Banking office of Dr. J. J. Ha The Banking once of Dr. 3.5 Hair man takes our eye. We siways did like banks; they are handy to go to.— Beside his banking business, the Dr. has a big stock of dry goods, of all grades, from the highest to the lowest. grades, from the migross to an ean sup-ply you with all the provisions you need. Should your lady we with you, Mrs. Dr. McClary will show her around. They think it no trouble to show goods. They can also out you a suit of clothes and make a gentleman out of the hardest kind of timber.

Dr. W. W. Crandall has a stock of drugs and medicines that would be an honor to a much larger town. His place is open at all hours, and if you place is open at all hours, and it you are in a burry, the Dr. will go along with you and make a new man of you. Just under our sanctum we find Woolcott being got afterigated harnes. He tells us that trade was new er better with him. He has pleaty of work for another hand, but can't get hi work for another hand, out can get me customers to wait long enough for him to look up one. His work is as goo as can be had in the State; and beside his other business he selle goods at auction, for any who have property to sell on short notice.

After our rambles, we sit down in our sanctim and look over our minutes, we find that our business is divided as ĺ

follows: Dry Goods Stores Grocery Stores Milliner Shops Drug Stores Dentistry Shops Banking Office Hardware Stores Wagen Shops Manufacturing Establishm Iron Foundry Meat Markets

ŀ	with a competent corps of teachers.
ľ	Local on eight page.
Į	ANDOVE R MARKET REPORT.
I	ANDOVE K MARKET REPORT.
١	"Adventiser" Overtor Thursday Monning, Aug 12 1869.
ı	THURSDAY MURRIAM, 2008 15 ACC.
1	Flour, Wheat, XXX.
ч	Flour, Red Wheat
٠ {	Flour, Spring Wheat.
٠l
3	Crackets, 21 th
1
"
1
a	Eggs. 18 doz. Sait, Dalry, sack 240 lbs.
f	Sait, Dury, sack 210 toe 3
1
d
d	Smoked Hallbut, & 10
ir
,,,
st	Kero-cue Oll, & gai

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New New, July 21, 1899.

MONEY—American Gold Closed at 183,

WOOL—Firm; at the following prices, Domestic

(SM). Pulled 40@47.

٠. ١		-
y n	CHICAGO MARKET.	í 1900.
n	Groen Apples	75@5
	Wheat, white	1460
d	Butter	220

TO CONSUMPTIVES

seconing the freestiption is to benefit the affilted, and speed information which he conceives to be invisuable; and he hopes every sufferer will: typ the renedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blossing.

Partles withing the prescription, will please addises.

Williamsburgh, Euro County, New York.