—WSS—

In connection with the May Festival and School Field Day at Andover, on Monday, May 20th, there will be a stock judging demonstration conducted by W. A. Thornton, Professor of Animal Husbandry at Alfred. This demonstration will be of especial value in preparing boys and girls for the judging contest at the Great Hornell Fair at 10 a. m., August 29th. At that time nine pure-bred calves will be given as prizes. In Class I, three registered Holstein-Friesian calves have been donated by R. W. Dennis, Jasper; Crandall Farms, Andover; and N. B. Coston, Greenwood. In Class II, three registered Ayrshire calves are offered by T. D. Karr, Almond; S. DeWitt Stewart, Kanona; and L. G. Tucker, Scio. In Class III, two registered Guernsey calves are offered by Martin A. Tuttle, Hornell; Leslie D. Whiting, Jasper; and Cole Sisson, Almond.

Following the demonstration an opportunity will be given those present to ask questions and fill out entry blanks for the Hornell contest should any so desire. All the rural teachers and pupils have been advised of this contest, and are busy preparing for it. Allegany County will have to hustle to keep abreast of Steuben.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There are Other Andover People Similarly Situated

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Andover residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

A. Howland, highway commissioner, Barney St., Andover, says: "I do a great deal of heavy lifting and I think this strained my back and affected my kidneys. Often when in a stooped position, I could hardly straighten because of a sharp pain which caught me in the small of my back. The kidney secretions were unnatural, too. As another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, I used a box which I got at the Brundage Drug Co., and they relieved me in every way."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Howland had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"For the long years, I was afflicted with Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble, which developed into serious Bladder Trouble. During that time, I am safe in saying I tried over 50 different remedies without relief.

I saw a testimonial of, I think, a Montreal man about 'Fruit-a-tives' and concluded to make one more trial. By the time the sample box was finished I found quite an improvement; and when I had finished a 50c. box, there was a grand improvement far beyond my expectations.

To make a long story short, I believe "Fruit-a-tives" or Fruit Liver Tablets the best Stomach, Liver and Bladder Medicine the world has ever produced".

SUPPLEMENTAL CITATION FOR JUDICIAL SETTLEMENT — EXECUTOR

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

By the Grace of God Free and Independent.

To Edward B. Dean and to all persons interested in the estate of Mary Shields late of the County of Allegany, deceased, as creditors legatees, devisees, next of kin or otherwise, send GREETING:

You and each of you are hereby cited to show cause before our Surrogate of the County of Allegany, at the Surrogate's Court of said County, held at the Surrogate's Office in the Village of Belmont, N. Y., on the 31st day of May 1918, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the account of Nellie Horan and John E. Cannon, as executors of the last Will and Testament of said deceased, should not be judicially settled and allowed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF we have caused the Seal of the Surrogate's Court of the said County of Allegany to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, HON. ELBA REYNOLDS, Surrogate of said County, at Belmont, N. Y., this 24th day of April in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen.

LEON A. ACKERMAN
Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

NOTE—This citation is served to give you Legal Notice of the proceeding; but you are not obliged to appear unless you desire to do so. 21

ONE WAY THE RED CROSS HAS TAKEN TO DEFEAT THE KAISER'S GAME

1,000 Ragged, Sick and Homeless People Are Daily Dumped at Evian.

At the first onslaught of the Huns, before the French were able to withstand their invasion, the Kaiser secured a goodly section of France. With the captured cities and villages he acquired many thousands of Frenchmen.

True to all the rules of Teutonic efficiency, the noble German worked and starved these French close to the point of death, then saw to it that an impressive number of them "caught" tuberculosis and finally sent these poor wrecks back to burden France.

It has taken the Kaiser from two to three years to suck the healthy blood from the veins of these sturdy rural French, but now he is sending them back at the rate of about 1,000 a day. The Kaiser never announces these shipments. He simply dumps them in Evian, on the French-Swiss border.

If it were not for the American Red Cross the task of caring for these starved, ragged, sick, homeless, terrorized men, women and children would be more than the French government could handle. But our American Red Cross is making heroic efforts to defeat the Kaiser's aim to fill France with consumptives. Trained Red Cross workers are at the receiving station at Evian. They first separate those showing signs of tuberculosis from those who are only starving or have some other disease.

It is just like the tender care of our Red Cross to give particular attention to the babies and children to whom the kindly Kaiser has fed consumptive germs. We have a hospital of 30 beds for children in Evian. These are reserved for the children who are too ill to take farther. Then our Red Cross has a convalescent hospital outside the town and yet another in a nearby village. It also keeps six ambulances busy transporting sick women and children. Yet even then the strain upon our workers is so great that for eight long months one American nurse has had to look after 120 beds.

We, through our American Red Cross, are doing great things toward defeating the Kaiser in his efforts to turn France into a graveyard, but we have just started, and our duty demands that we work fast and without ceasing.

ROMANCE GONE

Efficiency Kills Sentiment as Machine Makes Socks in 25 Minutes.

By RUTH DUNBAR.

"How snowy white your fingers look against the scarlet wool!" was the favorite speech of grandfather when he was paying suit to grandmother, who, if history is correct, never allowed little things like love and courtship to distract her mind one minute from her knitting.

The modern young man is robbed of any opportunity to make these pretty speeches, for the wool is no longer scarlet but khaki. Worse yet, the maiden sits before a cold, steel machine and grinds off socks in as many minutes as it takes hours to knit them.

This is what efficiency does to romance.

In the various Red Cross workrooms of the New York County Chapter there are nearly seventy-five sock machines. Eight of these are in the model workroom at 20 East Thirty-eighth street and others that have been ordered are held up by traffic conditions. Here instructors teach the use of the machine to Red Cross workers.

A complete pair of socks can be made on the machine in 25 minutes. The machine looks like a cross between fishing tackle and a pile driver. The worker threads it through the arm and carrier on to the threader. The body of the machine is a circle of needles bent at the ends like crochet hooks.

Sweaters also are made on the sock machine, the strips sewed together and the ribbing at top and bottom knitted on by hand.

Besides the machines in the Red Cross workrooms there are many owned by private individuals or groups who work at home and donate the results to the Red Cross. In a family hotel, for instance, four or five women can club together and buy a machine.

"WHAT HOME SERVICE HAS DONE FOR ME"

My husband enlisted over a year ago. Shortly after he went away our twelve-year-old boy had the measles. After his recovery his school teacher complained about his conduct. At home he was nervous and irritable. When I called at the Red Cross to find out how I could secure an increase in allowance because of our newly born babe I told them of my trouble with Harry. On their advice I took him to an oculist, who said glasses were needed immediately because of the weakened condition of the eyes following measles. He no longer causes trouble at home or at school.

T. R. TO GET SHELL THAT HIT HIS SON

Captain Roosevelt, Who Was in Hospital, Lauds Red Cross.

Capt. Archibald Roosevelt, who recently was injured and nursed back to health in a Red Cross hospital, in speaking of the Red Cross work, is reported as saying said:

"The Red Cross is doing everything possible for us. I cannot say too much in appreciation of their efforts, which make us feel as if we were back home. It is a great comfort to us fellows in hospitals, and if our folks could see the way we are being taken care of they would stop worrying."

The Red Cross chaplain in this particular hospital happens to be Doctor Billings of Groton, Mass., who taught Captain Roosevelt at the Groton school. The Red Cross shopping service in the hospital has been commissioned by Captain Roosevelt to obtain a new uniform for him to replace the one which was torn to pieces when he was wounded by fragments of a German shell.

The piece of shrapnel which wounded Captain Roosevelt will be presented to Captain Roosevelt's father, Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

NURSES PRETTY

Red Cross Hospital Uniform Most Becoming in History of World.

In a recent news letter from the front the war correspondent of the Philadelphia North American helps to explain the song, "I'm in Love With a Beautiful Nurse."

"There are 62 Red Cross nurses at this place," says the dispatch. "They are cheerful, obedient, brave and competent. And those who weren't pretty to begin with became so the moment they donned the uniform that is the most becoming in all the long history of costumes devised for the mystification and beguiling of men.

"In the officers' ward was a colonel with bronchitis. 'I've seen them in the Philippines, and I've seen them in China,' he told me. 'I suppose I've seen about all the existing types, but I never yet saw one that wasn't pretty inside of 24 hours.'

"He reminded me of an Irish Tommy, who, so his major told me, woke up in a hospital in 1916 and, seeing the nurses in the ward, exclaimed, 'May the howly Virgin bless us, but the angels have come down to the Somme!'"

Hundreds of Red Cross nurses, however, are doing work abroad in which their looks are less eagerly considered. Finding and caring for war orphaned babies, fighting tuberculosis, re-establishing homes in shell wrecked villages—these are some of the big tasks of mercy which, thanks to American contributions, the Red Cross sets for its nurses.

There are 13 divisions of the Red Cross in the United States. There is a complete organization at each division, with a great warehouse for the collection and shipment of all kinds of Red Cross supplies.
