BAD EXPOSION AT PUMP STATION

FOUR MEN BADLY BURNED WEDNESDAY MORNING. LEAK IN GAS LINE NEAR SWITCHBOARD THE CAUSE.

A serious gas explosion occurred at the Empire Gas and Fuel Company's pump station, one-half mile southeast of this village, Wednesday morning, at about 11 o'clock, in which Elton Harder, Roy Harder, Fred Stebbins and Mr. Clark of the firm of Clark & Norton of Wellsville, were badly burned. Elton Harder's injuries being very serious.

There was a leak in one of the gas lines and as Elton Harder was about to shut off the power he stepped to the switchboard and pulled the switch which gave off a spark that ignited the escaping gas. Instantly the whole interior of the building was a seething mass of flames, and one whole side of the building was blown out.

Drs. Brainard and O'Donnell were immediately summoned to care for the injured men, and it is hoped that the burns are not serious enough to cause alarm, although Elton Harder is in a critical condition, fears being entertained that he has inhaled some of the burning gas.

Dental Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Allegany County Dental Association, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Burdick, of Bolivar. Vice Pres., Dr. Will Bush, of Rushford. Secretary, Dr. Coon of Alfred. Treasurer, Dr. Sherrar, of Wellsville.

CANNON BROTHERS

TWO STORES BURGLARIZED

THE STORES OF H. H. WILLIAMS & COMPANY, GROCERS, AND F. C. VARS, JEWELER, BURGLARIZED.

The grocery store of H. H. Williams & Co. was broken into Saturday night and about $150.00 worth of mostly cigars, taken. Sunday night the jewelry store of F. C. Vars met a similar fate, but for some reason the burglar did not get away with the goods, leaving them all packed in boxes in the rear of the store. He was evidently frightened away by some thin.

Tuesday a search warrant was issued to officer Brundage and he made a search for the cigars, and found them at the Cottage Hotel. No arrests have been made as yet.

This is evidently the work of "home talent" and is the third in a series of three burglaries within a year.

Entrance was made to both stores by the breaking out of windows.

Andover Grange Notes

Conducted by C. A. Robinson.

At the regular meeting of Andover Grange, Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, all the newly elected officers were in their places.

After the regular order of business one candidate was initiated in the third degree.

One new application for membership was received.

A literary program was given, consisting of recitation, readings speeches, conundrums, etc., followed by remarks by Brother Harold Burdick of Alfred Grange.

Resolutions.

The undersigned committee appointed at the last session of the Andover Grange, NO. 1098, would submit the following.

Whereas, God, the great Master of the universe, in his infinite wisdom has deemed it best to remove from this "earthly field of labor to those "broad and pleasant fields of Paradise," our beloved sister and co-laborer, Mrs. Della Rollins, and whereas, in the death of our esteemed sister, who was the first one of our number called to answer the "last summons", we as a grange, have lost a valuable member and the family a devoted wife and mother.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this time of affliction, and commend them to Him, who has promised to comfort in time of trouble.

Resolved that these resolutions be printed in the Andover News, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and also be placed upon our records, and that our charter be draped in mourning for 30 days.

Matie L. Robinnson,
Mary Warfield, Com.

SATURDAY AT THE AUDITORM

W. F. Mann's Production af the Dramatization of "Tempest and Sunshine."

"Tempest and Sunshine" from Mary J. Holmes' popular novel of the same name is sure to appeal to even the sophistacated playgoers. A picture of the romatic life of the South before the war. The principle characters, Julia and Fanny Middleton, (Tempest and Sunshine) afford the chief interest in the play. The former a capricious, self-willed daughter, the latter winsome, loving and magnetic. The trials and triumphs of these two girls are carried all through the play, but at the end of all, love survives and all are "happy ever afterwards." To be at the Auditorium, Andover, Saturday evening, Jan. 30th. Seats 25, 35 and 50 cents, now on sal at Calhoun's.

Get up-to-date commercial work at the "News" office.

T. C. Kreiner.

T. C. Kreiner passed away at his home in Bolivar, Monday morning, January 25th, aged forty-one years.

Mr. Kreiner had been in the employ of the Tide Water Pipe Line Co. as agent and operator at the Bolivar station for years and was one of their most trusted employees.

Funeral service was held at the home Wednesday afternoon. The large attendance and beautiful flowers were evidence of the high esteem and regard in which he was held by his many friends.

Citizens Hose Company of Bolivar, The Pipe Line Employees, and Macedonia Lodge, F. & A. M. accompanied the body to the cemetry where the service was conducted by the Masonic order.

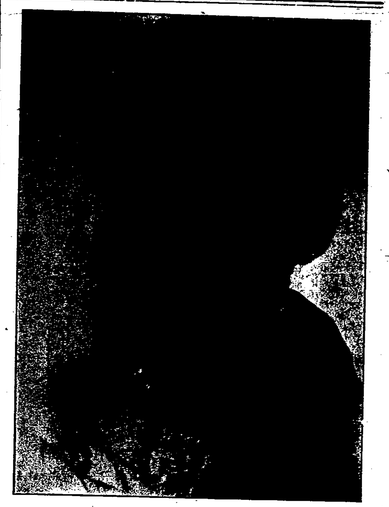
Carnation Day.

Friday, Jan. 29th, is the 66th anniversary of the birth of the late president Wm. McKinley, and therefore of loyal American citizens are to be wearing the carnation as a tribute to his memory.

Oakhill Farm.

"Oakhill Farm" drew a large audience, Saturday night at the Auditorium and pleased them all. It was a good presentation of that comedy drama.

Roy Engle, an Andover boy who is with this company, was a success in his home town, in the character of Hezekiah Judkins. The large audience was in a roar of laughter from the start to the finish and all speak words of praise not only for the show itself, but for Mr. Engel in his work.



Susanne Ames as "Sunshine" in "Tempest and Sunshine", at the Auditorium, Saturday, Jan. 30.

Fair Notes.

The general admission to the fair will be ten cents, on which there will be two door prizes, one for a lady and one for a gentlemen, each evening.

See the doll in the window of H. D. Long. Four little girls are working on this prize. Give them a lift.

Remember the dates, February 2,3, 4 and 5.

Look at the beautiful goods donated for the fair by the merchants of Andover, Wellsville and Hornell, in the show window of Porter && Richardson.

Don't fail to see the "Corner Store" a comedy drama in four acts by some of Andover's best talent. At the Auditorium, Feb. 4.

See the "Corner Store."

The Odd Fellow's Grand Ball, Friday evening, Feb. 5th.

Attend the fair every night and try for the nice door prizes offered.
