DE RUYTER CORRESPONDENCE.

WEST EDMESTON, Aug. 15.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—In the pleasant valley of the Unadilla, a river that separates Madison and Chenango counties from the Otsego, I write to let you know how things move in this region:

Haying is nearly finished. The crop has been very good and has been secured in good order, considering the unusual amount of rain.

Oats are very heavy and many are ready for the sickle.

Corn is light, if anything it is better than it is in Allegany.

This region is noted for its dairying products. The Cheese Factory at West Edmeston village has three branch Factories where the cheese is made and then brought here to be cured. It receives the milk of nine hundred cows at all of its places for receiving it. A sale was made yesterday to Charles Brown & Co., of New York, for sixteen cents per pound. Some of the most enterprising farmers are introducing the Ashyre breed of cows with very flattering prospects, as they are proving themselves excellent milkers.

Apples are scarce all through this section, and I hear they are through the eastern part of the State, while the western part has an abundance.

My ramblings over these hills and through these vallies will soon be over as we will vacation August 24th.

I hear that the prospect of De Ruyter Institute for the fall term is quite favorable, and when you next hear from me it will be from within the time-ried walls of that Institution.

H. C. COON.

NOTICE.—Rev. C. D. Rowly of Addison, has been appointed agent of the National Orphans' Homestead at Gettysburg, Pa., and is authorized to solicit and receive money for the above institution. The Homestead is located on the historic site of the battlefield of Gettysburg, adjoining the Union National Cemetery, a spot made sacred by having been baptized with the blood of thousands of heroes from New York and other States. The building now in use, temporarily affords shelter and comfort for nearly a hundred orphan children gathered from different States, who are being daily trained and instructed in the various branches of industry, such as their ages and circumstances may demand. The agent will visit the various Churches and sabbath schools in this and adjoining counties, and solicit their cooperation, inviting all to become interested in this charitable and patriotic enterprise, thus leading the young to feel that it is their especial privilege to help sustain and educate the orphans of those who sacrificed their lives upon the altar of their country, now so gloriously free, intensifying the patriotism they inherit, and teaching them that republics should not be ungrateful.

C. D. ROWLEY.

ILLUSTRATED Annual of Phrenology and Physiognomy for 1870, now ready—containing fifty engravings of leading editors—Bryant, Greely, Bennett, Brooks, Marble, Dana, Raymond, with portraits. The Male and Female Form; Why children resemble their parents; Gen. Grant and his Cabinet, with portraits; Physiognomy in politics, or "Faces and Places;" Science of conjugal selection, happy marriages, temperament in wedlock; American Artists; The Sleep Walker; Brain Waves; Phychological; Sir Edward Landseer; and much more in this rich and racy Annual, which sells for twenty-five cents. S. R. Wells, publisher, New York.

Summons.

SUPREME COURT—County of Allegany—Henry Roberts vs Harriet E. Roberts To Harriet Roberts defendant, you are hereby summoned to answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff, which was filed in the Allegany county Clerks office, at Belmont, in said County, on the 4th day of August 1869, and to serve a copy of your answer on the subscriber, at the village of Belmont in said county, within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.
