COUNTY COMMITTEE REORGANIZE

THE MEN WHO WILL HAVE CHARGE OF PARTY INTERESTS DURING 1909.—FROM THE BELMONT DISPATCH.

The Republican county committee for 1909, which was selected by each town delegation at the Republican county convention of last year, met recently at Cuba and elected officers. The old office had served the party so well and performed their duties so acceptably that they were re-elected without opposition. There was no thought on any committeeman's part of doing anything approaching again for chairman, A Miner Wellman of Friendship, and for secretary-treasurer, Arthur B. Burrows, of Andover. These gentlemen are loyal and able Republicans and representatives of what is best in the Republican party of Allegany county. In the unanimous re-election, and the personnel of the committee itself and the admirably-selected executive committee, give force in this county to the contention of those most interested in the Republican party and who have its interests most at heart that party organizations, under the present convention scheme in Allegany county, where for ten years rigorous rules against snap caucuses have prevailed in perfect practice, is a good system. It has conducted itself so as to please painstaking officials and administered affairs in the best interests of the people. The organization here has been the people's servant and has felt itself answerable to the party voters. It has conducted itself as to please every way. Maybe it is an ideal organization and better than those throughout the state, but if this is so, Assemblyman Phillips' primary bill, which extends to the whole state the same-day caucus system, with definite notice thereof, which has prevailed in this county for ten years, will tend to make other county organizations as popular as that of Allegany. Mr. Phillip's bill has other admirable reforms also which will be received with pleasure in this county.

Supplementing our local organization and leading it in the wisest and most far-seeing way is the State Committeeship held by Frank R. Utter of the first National Bank of Friendship. Mr. Utter represents this Congressional district on the Republican state committee, and in that important party body looks after the Republican welfare of Allegany, Cattaraugus, and Chautauqua counties. If the question of his selection for this honorable and responsible party place were now put to vote and every Republican in Allegany County went to the primary it is probably certain that he would be the unanimous choice of his party for re-electioon. He is popular because he is a man of the people and for the people, and he would be their choice because they believe in representative government in the party as well as in the nation.

In Allegany County there is no question whatever but that the county committee fully represents the party both loyally and satisfactorily.

PHILLIPS ON DIRECT PRIMARIES

HIS WORK ON DIRECT PRIMARIES QUESTION SUSTAINED BY HEAVY VOTE IN THE ASSEMBLY.

Assemblyman Jesse S. Phillips won three signal victories at Albany in reference to the so-called Primary bill. As Mr. Phillips is the head of the Judiciary Committee in the Assembly, and this bill was before this committee, it was a decided victory for him when the Committee by a vote of ten to twelve decided to report the bill adversey; for from the beginning of the agitation on direct primaries Mr. Phillips has been opposed to the plan.

Again when the report of the committee was handed to the Assembly Mr. Green, the introducer of the bill in the Assembly moved to put the vote over for one week; this motion was lost by a vote of 110 to 28, then the vote occurred on the proposition to sustain the report of the Committee; this was discussed for hours by members of the legislature; Mr. Phillips made an eloquent speech against the bill and in favor of the delegate and convention system; it was one of the most aggressive and oratorical efforts which has been heard in the Assembly this year; the final result was 112 to28. Owing to Mr. Phillips opposition to the bill from the first and his position as Chairman of the Judiciary Commmittee he has had to take the brunt of this fight and the result is pleasing to his friends.

HIGH WATER

Niagara River Higher Than It Has Been Before in Years

The water in the Niagara river between Niagara city and Lewiston was risen forty feet above normal last week, with the result that the gorge railroad is out of commission and the upper steel arch bridge at Lewiston are threatened. The maid of the Mist's landing has been destroyed and many plants are seriously inconvenienced, among them, the Ontario Power Company's Plant across the river which has been filled with water and ice, and the plant of the Hydraulic Power Company.

The present generation has never seen anything like the jam of today. Old rivermen remember to have heard that in 1844 conditions were something like this.

The damage done already by the ice in the river between Lewiston and the Falls is estimated at 75,000, mostly to the Gorge Road.

At the Devil's Hole, it is possible to make a crossing with a plank, a feat which Indian Pete, the Central flagman below Niagara University, claims to have performed with his father in 1863.

KING EDWARD EDITS

England's Chief Magistrate Piles the Pen At Home.

"King Edward is an indefatigable journalist. His copy may be read in the society columns of the London papers."

All court news is gathered and written by a functionary of the royal household on a salary of $2,000 a year. This functionary is called the court newsman. He submits his manuscript every evening to the king.

Then the king, with a gold pen in lieu of the plebeian blue pencil, goes at the manuscript hammer and tongs, editing it with even crueler vigor than a young deskman displays before the work of a cub reporter. The king is particularly meticulous about the descriptions of his wonderful Ascot and Goodwood clothes—those pearl-colored top hats, pale gray frock suits, white spats and mauve orchids that have set a fashion in racing wear.

Magazines Go Up

Two magazines, one owned by the Eldred Powder Co., and containing 300 quarts of nitro-glycerine and the other belonging to the Dupont Powder Co. of Bradford, in which was stored 400 quarts of glycerine powder, blew up April 7th, with terrific force. The magazines were located on what is known as the magazine lot in Root Hollow, 2 1-2 miles east of Bolivar village. The buildings, one of tile, the other of wood, were located only 150 feet apart. Both were blown to bits and all that remains where they stood is a large whole in the ground. The total loss is about $1,700.

The report of the explosion was heard for miles around. Window lights in several houses at Kossuth were broken; doors torn from their hinges, and houses badly shaken. Trees located near the scene of the explosion were uprooted.

It is believed the Eldred Powder Co.'s magazine caught fire from a gas heater, causing the explosion.—Breeze

Gas Explosion At Bradford

Thirty school children were injured and four men badly burned by an explosion of gas from an oil well that was shot at Bradford April 2nd. The well was located on a lot between Pearl and Center Streets near the Third ward school. The well had been shot and the flow taken place when there was a terrific explosion accompanied by a sheet of flame which shot out into the crowd burning many and causing a stampede in which many children were badly bruised.

Noted Actress Dead

Mme. Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish tragedienne and one of the most noted actresses of the American stage, died April 8th at her island home in Bay City, California, aged sixty-five, after an illness of two months. For several days she had been unconscious and her death almost hourly was expected.

The body will be taken to Cracow, Poland, for burial. That city was the early home of Modjeska.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT HAMMONDSPORT

PROPERTY LOSS OVER $3500—STARTED DURING EARLY MASS IN CATHOLIC CHURCH, IN THAT VILLAGE.

Fire that broke out in St. Gabriel's church Monday during the celebration of early mass destroyed the church, ruined a number of stores and threatened for a time to wipe out the entire business section of the village. The fire raged for about four hours defying the efforts of the village firemen to combat with any degrees of success. It was the biggest fire that has swept that village in many years.

The fire started about 7 o'clock in St. Gabriel's church when an over-turned taper during mass set fire to the wood work. In a few minutes the church was blazing and by the time the village firemen had arrived the whole structure was in flames. They fought desperately to save the big church but without avail.

While the fire in the church was at its height it was discovered that the big furniture store of F. S. Fawcett, several rods from the church was on fire. The wind was blowing strong and embers from the burning church had communicated with the store building. The firemen divided their forces and attacked the second fire. It was of little avail. A few minutes later the Rockwell Department store was found blazing, the fire having spread to that building. Pratt's bank also took fire about the same time, as well as Mott's boarding house.

Then a minute later it was noticed that the tall steeple of the Presbyterian church had taken fire also.

The greatest excitement then prevailed in the village. Many believed that the whole town was doomed to destruction by the fire that was then blazing all down the Main street. The firemen stood to their task heroically and by 10:30 o'clock it was seen that the fire was under control. Bath had been appealed to for help and the fire department of that village was in readiness had their services been required.

At noon the fire was out and the danger passed. St. Gabriels church was a mass of blackened embers, the big building with all of its contents having been burned to the ground. The church had just recently had a handsome new pipe organ from one of the parishioners and this was destroyed. The total loss on the church will amount to more than $15,000. There is said to be some insurance.

ONE HALF MILLION LOSS BY FIRE

$500,000 estimated loss in property and several hundred families homeless is the result of the terrible fire which burned beyond control, through the central portion of the city of Rochester, this week. The fierce winds which prevailed Monday and Tuesday carried the sparks about the city, making it impossible for the fire to be controled for some hours, although heroic work was done by the fire department.

Easter Serice At the M. E. Church

At the Methodist church the Easter service was of unusual interest this year. The pipe organ, which has been placed in the church by the Young Ladie's Club, was used for the first time, Sunday morning and under the skilful handling of Miss Deona Place, of Alfred, the voluntarys were beautiful. The organ, while small has a capacity strong enough for a church and of extremely rich, mellow tone.

Miss Alice Leighton, Elmira sang two solo's in a clear, soprano voice, which showed careful training and perfect control. A vocal quartet by Harold Brainard, Reginald Starr, Lou Bloss, and George Robinson, was impressive. These in addition to the regular choir furnished excellent music.

The chancel was daintily trimmed with white banked with a profusion of cut and potted flowers. Rev. J. W. Wright, the pastor, preached an able discourse upon the theme of Easter.
