Sabbath School Concert.

Messrs. Editors—I attended the Baptist S. S. Concert last Sunday at 8 p. m., and was very much interested in the exercises. Through the kindness of Rev. F. Sherer, I am permitted to give a condensed programme of the exercises, which may be interesting to many of your readers who could not attend.

QUESTION.—I wonder where light originated.

ANSWER.—By Hatty Cole. "I know" "God said let there be light, and there was light."

A Clerical Nuisance.

A man by the name of Reddy, who takes upon himself the title of Rev. and who has had, we believe, two terms in our county jail, is now traveling around the country selling a book.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Penitence Decey, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the remedy he himself used, and which he has found to be the best.

PALESTINE CLASS.

May Krusen gave a description of the Creation. The sin of Adam and his banishment, by Alice Hallett; The murder of Abel, Ella Lamphear; The Deluge, Josephine Potter; Poetical description of Palestine by Horace Cobb, which was a masterly effort, and we were glad to know that he did not fail it beneath his dignity to assist in making the Concert interesting and profitable.

Q.—Will Christ coming as a light?

ben fit those who do not receive Him. A.—By Jenny Cole. No, "This is their condemnation, they love darkness rather than light." Q.—Is Christ the light of another world. A.—By Emma Bennett. And the city had no need of the sun, neither the moon to shine in it.
