Friendship Boy Scores Appointment.

Word has just been received here from Congressman Vreeland that the young man who will go to the U. S. Military Academy for the next four years from this district, is a Friendship boy, Donald Murphy.

Each congressman and senator is permitted by the government to appoint one person from his district to the Point every four years or whenever a vacancy occurs in his district. Upon his entrance to the Academy the cadet so appointed becomes a charge of Uncle Sam and receives not only a most excellent four years of higher education but the most rigid military discipline as well. While at the Academy each cadet receives his entire maintenance from the government and after the four years military training there he enters the U. S. Army as Second Lieutenant. He is obliged to remain in the army for four years unless he has good reason for doing otherwise ,making his enforced term of military life eight years. During this time he cannot for any reason don civilian clothes. He receives a furlough every two years.

It has been Congressman Vreeland's custom when there are several under consideration for the appointment to hold a competitive examination at Salamanca. Mr. Murphy tried this examination last week, and by passing the highest of any of the applicants received the appointment.—Register.

A Free Scholarship.

Any young man or woman who is a bona fide patron of this paper may secure free instruction in Music or Elocution.

The Ithaca Conservatory of Music, with the desire to stimulate the study of these arts, offer two scholarships to applicants from each Congressional District in New York State, valued at $100 each, and good for the term of twenty weeks beginning with the opening of the school year, Sept'r. 9, 1909, in any of the following departments: Voice, Violin, Piano and Elocution. Three scholarships are awarded upon competition which is open to anyone desiring a musical or literary education.

Anyone wishing to enter the competition or desiring information should write to George C. Williams, General Manager of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y., before September 1, 1909.

WANTS SOME OF ATKINS MONEY

MRS. MARY HOVEY CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN MARRIED TO JESSE ATKINS AND WANTS WIDOW'S DOWER.

(From Canisteo Times)

Mrs. Mary Helen Hovey (Atkins) who says she is the widow of the late Jesse T. Atkins jr., of Greenwood, better and widely known as "Shing," has brought suit for a dower right in the estate. Her attorneys are Sebring & Cheney of Corning. The heirs are represented by Wm. G. Kellogg of Greenwood.

The defendants are Mrs. Harriet Atkins, mother of the deceased, Mrs. Rheda Donaldson, wife of Homer Donaldson, of Greenwood, a sister, and Wm. Atkins of Hartsville, the brother of the deceased. Mrs. Donaldson is the administratrix of the estate.

A Times reporter interviewed the heirs of Atkins yesterday who stated that no papers in the alleged action have been served on them as yet, but that such suit is expected, is indicated by the fact that they have been looking up the case pretty thoroughly and will fight the matter to a finish, they say.

Estate of $75,000.

"Shing" Atkins was a wealthy man. He inherited a snug fortune from his father, Jesse T. Atkins sr., and steadily maintained a strong impulse to acquire money and a robust passion to keep what he had acquired. It was not surprising, therefore that when a stroke of apoplexy took him off suddenly and without warning in a hotel at Andover February 20, 1909, his estate was found to be worth upwards of $75,000. It consisted of about $30,000 in cash, a large amount of other personal property including over 500 good dairy cows and farms in Greenwood, West Union and Troupsburg.

Mrs. Mary Helen Hovey claims that she married Atkins in Buffalo five years ago. She claims moreover that Atkins recognized her as his wife, introduced her to his friends as his wife, addressed her in letters as his wife and that they lived together as man and wife. That they lived together is a matter of common knowledge. They finally seperated and Mrs. Helen Hovey brought action for support through her attorneys, Baldwin & Allison of Elmira. It was in his answer to this suit that Atkins swore he had never been married to Mary Helen Hovey. As a rule the people of Greenwood seem to support this side of the case, not one in ten believing that they ever were married.

Atkins supported her, however, both before and after this suit.

Indications are that a lively and protracted legal fight will ensue.

Andover Grange Notes

Conducted by C. A. Robinson.

The last meeting of the Andover Grange was very interesting and profitable. The attendance was very good for this busy time of the year, nearly half of the entire enrollment being present.

The response to roll call with a short story was very pleasing and instructive and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Robert Mingus gave a very complete report of Pomona Grange held at Caneadea, June 24 and 25.

Miss Myra and Lynn Langworthy sang a duet and responded to an encore.

Miss Mary Dodge gave a recitation.

In view of the coming event Miss Blanche Chaffee and Bryon Clair were presented with a fine rocking chair (guaranteed to carry double) as a token of remembrance from the Grange.

D. L. Langworthy was appointed a committee to meet with other committees at the home of Alva Randolph in Alfred to make some arrangements for the annual Grange picnic.

Pomona Master John B. White, invited the Andover Grange to exemplify the fifth degree at the September meeting to held in Alfred. It was voted to accept the invitation, and after Grange was closed the fifth degree team practiced the work for a while.

Mrs. Isaac Smith

Mrs. Isaac Smith died at her home on the Greenwood road two miles above this village, Wednesday night.

Funeral service was held Thursday afternoon and interment made in Hillside cemetery.

DOCTOR PARKHILL DIES IN CARRAGE

SUDDEN DEATH OF LEADING PHYSICIAN, WHILE RETURNING FROM A PROFESSIONAL CALL.

Dr. Clair S. Parkill for more than thirty years one of the leading physicians of this section and a man prominent in state and national medical circles, died very suddenly shortly before eleven o'clock, Tuesday morning, at Hornell. Death came without a moment's warning. Attacked with heart trouble while attending a patient, he finished his administrations, walked to his carriage and entered with a word to the driver to hurry home. Before he reached home Dr. Parkhill had died in the carriage.

The news of Dr. Parkhill's death came as a terrible blow. Probably no man was more highly esteemed or respected than he. Not even his most intimate friends knew that he was not enjoying the best of health and the suddenness of his death made it all the more terrible.

Dr. Parkhill had been attending a patient on Bennett street Hornell and came hurrying out of the house. He told the driver to hurry home as he felt bad. He lived but a few minutes after that and died before reaching home. Acute heart disease was the cause of his death.

Clair S. Parkhill was born in Howard, Steuben county, on November 15 1842 the youngest son of David Parkhill. His boyhood was spent there but at the age of fourteen he entered the Haverling Academy at Bath. At the age of eighteen he entered Michigan University where he studied for two years, returning to New York State and entering the Albany Medical College, from which he was graduated in December 1866. He began the practice of medicine with his brother, Reuben F. Parkhill at Howard and the partnership which was very successful was continued for seven years. In September 1873 he came to Hornell, then Hornellsville. Since that time he has been one of the most highly esteemed citizens. He has been repeatedly honored by his fellow citizens and in the ranks of his professions few stood higher. His practice was not confined to that city alone but he was considered one of the best surgeons in the state. No man commanded a higher place in the esteem of the general public than did Dr. Parkhill.

He was a member of the Hornell Medical and Surgical Society, of the County Medical Society, the Lake Keuka Physicians and Surgeons Association, the New York State Medical Association, the National Medical Society, the Erie Railway Surgeons Association and many other leading medical organizations. He had served as president of the Erie Surgeon's Association and as president or some executive officer of most of the other organizations to which he belonged. He was a staff surgeon of St. James' Mercy Hospital and an advisory member of the Board of Trutsees of that institution.

He was married in March 1867 to Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rice of Howard and to them four children were born, one of whom Mrs. Blake B. Babcock, survives.

Married

Sunday evening July 18, occurred a very pretty wedding, when Miss Blanche W. Chaffee and Bryon A. Clair, Jr., were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Amelia Cottrell, in Independence, by the Rev. Crofoot, of Independence S. D. B. Church.

At 8 o'clock the bridal party took their places beneath an arch of ferns and daises attended by Miss Ethel Button as bridesmaid and Mr. Chaffee, a brother of the bride, was best man. The impressive ring ceremony was used. A friend of the bride, Miss Anna Laura Crandall, played the wedding march.

The bride was dressed in white and wore lilies in her hair. The bridesmaid also wore white. Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate supper was served.

Many useful and beautiful presents were recieved.

They will make their future home in East Valley. A guest.

BASE BALL NEWS

Stamping Companys Team Win Game Saturday. Score 6 to 5.

Have you seen the Stamping Company's new uniforms? They arrived Saturday, just in time for the game.

Another eleven inning game, but this time a victory for the Stamping Company's team.

The Q. S. team of Hornell made their second appearance here last Saturday afternoon. This team, it will be remembered played here July 5th and put up that excellent exhibition of base ball that day. The game last Saturday did not lack any excitement, particularly after the first half of the ninth inning, when the local players succeeded in tieing the score.

Direct credit must be given Pitcher Fay Bloss for winning this game. It was his own good pitching and playing that won the game. In the eleventh inning the visiting team sent one man around the bases but our boys went them one better by sending two around, and all after two outs had been made.

CONGRESSMAN VREELAND INJURED.

Broke Collar Bone and Dislocated Shoulder in Ball Game

A dispatch from Washington, D. C., July 15, repotred an unfortunate accident to Congressman E. B. Vreeland, of this district, during a practice game of ball, when he fell breaking his collar bone and dislocating his shoulder.

A game had been arranged between the Democrat and Republican members of the house. Some one threw a nice high, easy-looking fly toward Mr. Vreeland. He started after it but misjudged it. He jumped for the ball, his left hand high in the air and slipped. The ground in the ellipse is almost as hard as stone and Mr. Vreeland struck it with full force.

In spite of the fact that he was injured, he climbed to his feet, put his coat over his shoulders and walked to an automobile, in which he was taken to his apartments.

ROBBED OF SAVINGS OF LIFETIME

T. K. KIRKENDALL LOSES $4,000 WHICH HE HAD HIDDEN IN TRUNK. HIRED MAN SUSPECTED.

T. K. Kirkendall, a farmer residing about ten miles west of Corning, near Campbell reported to the police late Monday afternoon that he had been robbed of $4,000.

Kirkendall has no confidence in banks—at least he didn't have. The savings of a life time were hoarded in a small trunk, which he guarded carefully concealed beneath his bed. As he expressed himself at Police Headquarters when he was asked why he didn't put his money in the bank: "They ain't safe. Look at that Pratt Bank at Hammondsport."

For years he has felt secure with his fortune in the small trunk under his bed. He carefully guarded that room from the eyes of strangers and no person had access to it except himself. The $4,000 represented the savings of a life of industry and frugality on a small farm.

In the trunk were $2,000 in gold coins and gold certificates and 2,000 in greenbacks. Friday he made the discovery that the money was gone. Sharing a parallel opinion about the efficiency of the police, he failed to report his loss until Monday when he found that his excited investigation availed nothing.

He came to Police Headquarters Elmira and told his story. The police directed him to Sheriff Jerome Billington. The Sheriff sent out cards and wired the larger cities hereabouts the description of a suspected man.

Alpheus Snyder, a farm hand who had been employed by Kirkendall, has been missing since Friday. Snyder had worked for Kirkendall just five days. It is known that he formerly lived in Seattle. The descriptions sent out say he is 40 years of age, about five feet tall and slim. He had blue eyes and a spare face. When last seen he wore a pair of dark trousers, black coat and light hat. A white spot over the eye marks Snyder and he looks like a consumptive.

Fresh Air Children

Several of our neighboring villages are arranging to entertain fresh air children this season. Some years ago there were large numbers of the little one's from New York entertained in this vicinity. There is no question but what the work is a good one and the change that two weeks of good old Allegany air and wholesome food will bring to the little blue pinched faces is sufficient reward for the trouble and trifling expense occured. In our opinion the only homes who should hesitate to extend this hospitality are those who have within them young children of their own who in some instances might not be benefited by the companionship for two weeks of some of the boys and girls sent out from the city.
