THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

ASSEMBLYMAN JESSE S. PHILLIPS UNAMINOUSLY RE-NOMINATED FOR THE TENTH TIME.—HANCOCK FOR SHERIFF.

The Republican County Convention at Cuba Thursday was a regular love feast, everyone was in the best of spirits; there was only one contest, that for the sheriff nomination, and that too, a particularly good natured one. The cohorts commenced to gather Wednesday night at the Hotel Kinney, with the arrival of the evening trains, and that popular hostelry was a busy place all the evening and late into the night. There was the usual visiting, figuring on results and planning for the next day's work. Every Republican Worker in the county seemed to be present and the Hotel Kinney was overtaxed to sleep the visitors.

Prominent among the leaders present were County Chairman, A. Miner Wellman, County Secretary A. B. Burrows, State Committeeman Frank R. Utter, Senator George H. Witter, Assemblyman Phillips, Hon. Frank B. Lyons, and so on infinitum.

Thursday morning the visitors, many of them, journeyed to Lake Cuba, to the mammoth Simpson Stock barn, and enjoyed the automobile rides about town.

The convention was called to order at 2 o'clock and a short hour sufficed to complete its work. County Chairman A. Miner Wellman was the temporary chairman and directed that the roll be called by County Secretary A. B. Burrows. There were few substitutions and 101 delegates answered to their names. On motion of Cassius Congdon, of Clarkville, the roll as called was adopted as the official roll for the convention. The executive committee had selected Mr. Lewis H. Thornton, of Wellsville, as the permanent chairman, and Mr. Wellman asked Hon. Frank S. Smith and Mr. Cassius Congdon to escort Mr. Thornton to the platform. In accepting the honor of presiding, Mr. Thornton said:

Gentlemen of the convention and Fellow Republicans:—I thank you heartily for this honor—and it is an honor worth while to preside over any assemblage of Republicans, and particularly so in Grand Old Allegany. I have always held that it is the duty of a chairman to facilitate the business of a convention rather than to make a long speech of acceptance. But meeting as we are today upon the historic eve of the enactment of the Payne tariff bill I want to make one statement about it. When the business of the country becomes adjusted to the newly revised schedules, the Payne bill, a wise compromise of the Republican congress and administration, will become one of the most popular tariff measures ever enacted. Provision has been made for taxing the corporations one per cent and thus keeping under the control of the federal government the big trusts and corporations by opening their books to the inspection of government experts, and at the same time taxing directly the moneyed interests which can best pay taxes. The submission also by congressional enactment of the constitutional amendment permitting a national income tax is one of the wisest and most popular things ever done by a Republican congress. The question will be brought up in each state. Thinking of congressional news, today's newspapers advise us, and Hon. Frank B. Lyons, just returned to us from Washington, verifies the happy news, that our Congressman, Hon. Edward B. Vreeland, born and reared in Old Allegany, will be elevated to the chairmanship of what will from now on be the most important and prominent committee in Congress, that on Banking and Currency. Thanking you again for your choice of me for chairman, I await your further pleasure.

On motion of H. A. Corbin, of Friendship, A. B. Burrows was made the permanent secretary, and on motion of Senator Witter the Republican newspaper men present were named as his assistants.

Dr. Bacon, of Canaseraga, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted with hearty applause:

Resolutions by Dr. A. T. Bacon

We, the Republicans of the County of Allegany, in convention assembled, rejoicing over the sweeping victory in state and nation at the last election, view with extreme satisfaction the auspicious opening of the new national administration under the wise and statesmanlike leadership of President Taft, and also heartily endorse the progressive policies of the state administration under Governor Hughes, as already enacted into law.

We also take great pride in the distinguished services of the Honorable Edward B. Vreeland, as representative in congress, and extend to him our cordial congratulations upon his well-merited prospective promotion to the chairmanship of the important house-committee on Banking and Cur-

ANOTHER FIRE

The Garvin Brothers Barn Burns on Depot St.

Sunday afternoon fire broke out in the barn belonging to Garvin Brothers, on Depot street. The building was badly damaged. Most of the contents, excepting the hay, was saved.

Just as most people were preparing for a quiet Snuday afternoon the alarm of fire was sounded. The intense heat coming in contact with the south side of the Garvin Brothers barn set fire to material inside. P. Barrett, whose residence is just opposite, saw something burning and endeavored to extinguish it, but the building was all in flames in an instant. An alarm of fire brought out the hose company, who made short work of extinguishing the flames and protecting adjoining property.

One of the trying features of the fire was the fact that a valuable horse owned by Henry Garvin was in the building and become overcome with the smoke and heat so that he was unable to stand, when the firemen arrived, but by diligent work the boys managed to cut out the side of the barn and saved the animal but not until he had been badly affected. It is hoped at this writing that he will recover unharmed.

No paid fire department could have done better work than the Citizens Hose Company did, not only in promptly putting out the fire but by saving property.

The loss is estimated at about $600 with $200 insurance.

Edna Dougherty

Andover people were pained to learn of the death Thursday evening of last week of Edna, the little three year old daughter of James Dougherty of this village. The little one was an attractive child and a great pet of all in the neighborhood. She was taken ill two days prior to her death with pneumonia and peritonitis. The body was taken to Bradford, Friday, for burial, beside her mother. Mr. Dougherty had moved his family from Bradford to this village only a few months ago and much sympathy is expressed for him in this grief.
