SENATOR Wood Gets the Nomination.

Special Dispatch to the Advertiser.

PORTAGEVILLE, Oct. 14.—General James Wood of Livingston, was unanimously nominated for Senator in the 30th Senatorial district to-day.

E. S. BARNARD.

27th Senatorial District Nomination.

At the Senatorial Convention for the 27th District held at Corning last week, Theodore L. Minor of Schuyler County was nominated on the 26th ballot.

THE Republicans of the VIIIth, Judicial District (Erie, Chautauque, Cattaraugus, Orleans, Niagara, Genesee, Allegany, and Wyoming Cognates), have nominated George Daniels for reelection to the Supreme Court for the long term, and have also nominated John L. Talcott, the very eminent lawyer of Buffalo, for the short term.

ANOTHER INDIAN DISTURBANCE.—According to dispatches received (says the Tribune) at the Indian Bureau it appears that Indian hostilities have broken out in earnest in the Territory of Idaho. It is the old story repeated. Certain white traders are accused of giving the Indians whisky, upon which they got drunk, and while in this condition it is alleged the whites cheated them in trade. The result is a threatened war, in which the Sioux and Ogallallah Indians propose to combine against the whites. The Secretary of the Interior, in view of all the facts, has requested the Secretary of War to send troops into Idaho to protect the settlers and punish the savages.

Flopped Over.

We see that the Horshelville Tribune has "flopped over" to the Democratic side of the question, what the motives may have been which led to this move, we are unable to say at present. We can but admire the pluck of Beecher, who cannot be turned, save by some great moral reform. Beecher leaves the Tribune with the Republican flag, as the following lines from his ray pen indicate:

GOON-BYE.—At the Tribune next week is to haul down the Republican flag and run thenceforth under Democratic colors, the Associate takes this occasion, to bid the readers of this paper a final farewell.

The October Elections!

PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO AND IOWA, ALL RIGHT.

PENNSYLVANIA, 5,000, IOWA, 30,000, OHIO, 5,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Des Moines, says that the Republican majority will be between 25,000 and 30,000.

The Legislature will be entirely Republican.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—A special dispatch to the Evening Bulletin dated Harrisburgh, Oct. 13th says: The leading State officials here claim the election of Geary by at least 5,000 majority.

The Democratic State central organ, the Patriot and Union, concedes that Packer is defeated.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Hon. John Covode, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, has received dispatches from all but 3 counties, and with an estimate on a good basis, he says that Geary's majority will not be far from 4,000 either way.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—The returns and the officers of both parties indicate that Hayes is elected by about 3,000. The House is Democratic and the Senate Republican. The Democrats claim that the vote is so close that it will require the official count to determine who is elected Governor.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 13.—Sixty-eight counties have been heard from. Hayes' loss on last October is 3,500. Hayes' majority will be about 5,000. The Legislature is very close.

LATER.—A dispatch from R. D. Harrison, Chairman of the Ohio State Central Committee, says: "Hayes is elected by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority. The Legislature is close, but I think Republican good."

General Sigel's Acceptance.

It seems although our dispatches failed to inform us of the fact, that General Sigel, on being notified of his nomination to the office of Secretary of State by the Republican State Central Committee, appeared before the Committee and formally accepted the nomination in a few excellent remarks. It was well known, he said, that he had not sought the nomination; but it had been tendered to him out of deference to the German Republican vote of the State, which was entitled to consideration.

A sub-committee from the German Central Republican Committee had met in conference with this State Central Committee, and that sub-committee had reported to the German Central Committee that in case the nomination should be tendered him it would become his duty to accept it. Under these circumstances he was willing to stand as a candidate. As an opportunity would hereafter be afforded him to express his views with regard to the pending issues, he would say no more, except to thank the Committee for the honor which had been, without any solicitation on his part, put upon him.

We also learn from our New York exchanges that the declination of General Robinson was based on the ground that he is disqualified by law from holding the position of State Engineer and Surveyor, because he is not following the profession of engineering. The law provides that the incumbent of this office must be a practical engineer; and although General Robinson is amply competent to perform all the duties that the position would involve upon him, (having been educated at West Point), his conscientious interpretation of the statute will not allow him to stand as a nominee. These objections he stated in a letter to Hon. Jous A. Griswold, and upon them the action of the Committee is based.—Buffalo Express.

Erie Railway Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—At a meeting to-day of the retired Board of Directors of the Erie Railroad Company, a resolution was passed that the property of the Directors classifying themselves so as to hold offices for various terms, as authorized by the Legislature, be submitted to the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Company. At a meeting of the Stockholders held subsequently, it was Resolved, That this Corporation hereby accepts the amendment to its charter, made by an act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "an act to amend Chapter 279 of the laws of 1865, entitled an act in relation to the Erie, New York Central, Hudson River and Harlem Railway Companies, passed May 20, 1869," being Chapter 916 of the Session Laws of 1869, whereby the Directors of this Corporation are authorized to classify themselves so that nearly, say, one-fifth of their number shall go out of office at each annual election.

Resolved, That the Board of Directors this day elected be and are hereby required and directed to classify themselves in accordance with the act aforesaid.

At the meeting of the Stockholders about thirty-five millions of stock was represented.

Resolutions were passed approving the policy of the late Board in developing and improving the road, and in extending and projecting its connections. The following Directors were elected for the year 1869 and 1870:

Jay Gould, Wm. M. Tweed, Alex. S. Diven, John Ganson, Horace N. Otis, Abram Gould, Henry Thompson, Henry N. Smith, Jas. Fisk Jr., Fred'k. A. Lane, Justin D. White, Olo W. Chapman, Chas. C. Session, Homer Ramsdell, Jno. Hilton, M. R. Simon and Geo. C. Hall. At a subsequent meeting of the new Board, Mr. Jay Gould was unanimously re-elected President.

Important to Voters.

Inspectors of Election throughout the States convened as a Board of Registry yesterday, October 12th, and in election district containing more than 400 voters, may sit two days thereat. This is known as the first meeting.

In election districts of which no part is within an incorporated village, the second meeting is to be held on Tuesday, October 20th, from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

In all cities the Boards meet on Friday and Saturday, October 23rd and 30th, and remain in session from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

In all incorporated villages, and in election districts made up in part of an incorporated village, the Board meet on Friday, October 23rd, and remain in session from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

There is no third meeting anywhere. In districts entirely outside of cities or incorporated villages, electors not registered can vote on affidavit, assigning excuse for not being registered.

In no districts (city or country) can any name be added to the registry at the second meeting, without application in person.

The President's Proclamation of a National Thanksgiving.

By the President of the United States. A PROCLAMATION. The year which is drawing to a close has been free from pestilence. Health has prevailed throughout the land. Abundant crops toward the labors of the husbandman. Commerce and manufacturers have successfully prosecuted their peaceful paths. The mines and forests have yielded liberally. The nation has increased in wealth and in strength. Peace has prevailed, and its blessings have advanced every interest of the people in every part of the Union.—Harmony and fraternal intercourse restored, are obliterating the marks of the past conflict and estrangement. Burdens have been lightened; means increased; civil and religious liberty are secured to every inhabitant of the land, whose soil is trod by none but freemen. It becomes a people thus favored to make acknowledgment to the Supreme Authority from whom such blessings flow, of their gratitude and their dependence; to render praise and thanksgiving for the same, and devoutly to implore a continuance of God's mercies.

Therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend that Thursday, the 18th day of November next, be observed as a day of thanksgiving and of praise and of prayer to Almighty God, the Creator and the Ruler of the Universe. And.

Second.—I do further recommend to all the people of the United States to assemble on that day in their accustomed places of public worship, and to unite in the homage and praise due to the bountiful Father of all mercy, and in fervent prayer for the continuance of the merciful blessings He has vouchsafed to us as a people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed this 5th day of [] October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth.

By the Presidents: U. S. GRANT. HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.
