A little snow last night.
Crandall & Brainard want fresh pork.

See change in time of holding Church services.
Don't fail to attend the Festival next week.

Look out for Vansickle & Burrows' advertisement next week.
Mrs. Swink will please accept our thanks for a supply of catchup.

Attend the public exercises at the Union School, to-morrow afternoon.
The Senatorial Convention for this District meets to-day at Portageville.

The Baptist Sunday School have a new map of Palestine, costing fifteen dollars.
Gather your potatoes, they will not rot so half so bad in the cellar as in the ground.

Will some of our subscribers bring us some lead in exchange for the Advertiser?
Some one left a head of cabbage and two beets on our steps the other day.—Do so some more.

Crandall & Brainard sold quite a bill of goods at wholesale this week. How are you Wellsville?
W. R. Brewster gathered from less than ten inches on one limb, nine good apples, weighing 3 pounds and 14 ounces.

The Festival at the Cheese Factory is to be enlivened by Music, Tableaux, Declamations, &c. Admittance to the building, ten cents.
REV. A. G. BOWLES, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church at Hornellville, died at his residence in that village on Monday last, aged fifty.

Do to Travel.—James Livermore was in our office yesterday and gave us "Dandy Pat" to perfection. James, as a singer you are a success.
H. P. BERRY keeps a grocery over in "Canada," where he sells good goods just as cheap as anybody. Herb is a clever man to deal with.

We made an error last week in speaking of the Hardware Establishment of Sheldon Brothers, their store is over two hundred feet long, instead of one as stated last week.
We understand there was a good time at the Presbyterian social at Mr. Baker's, last Tuesday evening. If the ladies of the different churches would send us a notice of these socials we would call attention to them.

RETURNED.—Vansickle has returned from New York, where he has purchased a large stock of goods for the Fall and Winter trade. The goods have not all arrived as yet, but they have enough to satisfy almost any taste and all at reduced prices.
To ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—I think of going to Canada next week, and will be absent ten days, don't be alarmed this time don't appoint a Collector before I get back, I understand there has been an applicant already.

Great minds run in the same channel. Our friend D. S. Bradley thought a young couple starting in life ought to have a sack of the best flour; so did we. Bradley thought we had no money to buy one with; we were very sure of that. So Bradley gave us a sack of XXX, with a little good advice to pay for the next we got. Bradley it is much easier to give good advice than to take it.

FESTIVAL.—The Good Templars of this place are to have a Festival at the Cheese Factory on Thursday evening, Oct. 21st, to which all are cordially invited. Oysters, Icecream, Grapes, &c., will form the bill of fare. The object of the Festival is to raise money to properly furnish the Lodge Room. The Good Templars are doing a good work in our midst, and they deserve a full house. Let all lovers of the temperance cause make it a point to go.

We looked in at Vansickle & Burrows' Saturday night, and found Billy busily at work, making all sorts of nice things on a new Sewing Machine, the Weed, for which he is agent. If we had caught a girl so busy at that kind of work we should have had our suspicions aroused, but as Billy is a married man, we could not accuse him of anything of that sort, it may be all in the family, however. He gave us a specimen of his work, but it looks to us as though it was made for a shorter sleeved shirt than ours.

The Oyster trade grows livelier as the weather grows colder, and Swink at one end of Main street and Pat Cannon at the other are advertising them with sidewalk and chalk guide boards. As both buy of Rewalt there is little danger of a quarrel as to quality. Pat Swink, cold packages in our hand with the Compliments of Rewalt. Rewalt remembers our weakness for Oysters as well as Confectionery, and he takes occasion to send us a pleasant reminder every now and then.

Literary.—We have received No. 2, Vol. 1, of the American Grocer, a semi-monthly, twenty page journal, devoted to the interests of the grocery trade in all its branches. We have had but little time to glance through it, but judge it is of equal value to the farmer as to the grocer. It is published at 161 Williams street, New York, at $2 per annum by John Dabney & Co.

Vansickle and Burrows, are buying Oats
THE BLACK LIST.—Feeling that few were aware of the great number and variety of "Old Bachelors" in our little town, we have taken the pains to hunt up a few of them and learn their peculiarities. We fervently commend them to the consideration and mercy of designing sisters.

Frank Seaman.—Has a great fondness for work, steady, church-going, sedate young man, has a great horror of patent rights.
James Costock.—Very lively, a fine singer and essay of acquaintance, reported to be immensely rich.

Augustus Burrows.—Sober but wild, has a great fondness for dancing; conceded about to leave the list.
Bramara.—Noted for his conversational qualifications, is a fine musician, and great on the "blow," a merchant of high standing and fair character.

Lant Porter.—Drives a sulkey and a fast horse, a gentleman of leisure, well along in years.
Bub Baker.—Drives a fine pair of "Mexican Ponies," very fastidious in his dress.
Charles Doming.—One of the leading physicians of the place, very talkative, keeps late hours.

Dr. John Stearns.—A member of the "Andover Musical Association," a gay youth and known some distance out of town.
Charles Krusen.—A young man of fine polish, drives a gay nag, spends most of his time in haunting and other rural sports.
Jerry Dricall.—Horse trader, patent dealer, etc., reported about to leave the list.

George Clark.—A fine horseman, lives on his income.
James Livermore.—An unusual character, curly hair, a professional "whistle," writes poetry.
Jessie Snyder.—One of them good boys.

Charles Preston.—Stock grower, a man of fortune, fine education, rather plain looking but honest to a cent.
Gene Warfield.—An extensive traveler, tall and good looking.
Wright.—An impartur of knowledge, very tall, has a fine beard, a very fair musician, boards a velocipede.

We may see fit to give a few additions to the list at some future time, we shall be happy, however, to chronicle all descriptions from the ranks.
Not Much.—Our friend Peter Swink was astonished to hear two very strange stories this morning. The first of which, was that he had deserted his former colors and gone over to the Republicans; and the second that he used his influence in the recent liquor prosecution. Peter's indignation was aroused, and he sent in the following communication: "There has been two lies circulated about me this week. O'Larry says I am a Republican, that is lie No 1. Joe Krusen says that I met Clark at the Depot, and gave him the names to complain of for selling liquor, also the names of witnesses; that is lie No 2. Peter Swink.

EN. ADVERTISER.—Your correspondent in noticing the concert held at the M. E. Church, neglected to mention, what I termed the best part of the programme, that of the solo-songs by Mrs. Livermore. Pieces entitled "If Papa were only ready," and "Only one crossing over," were sung with that exact time and harmony of tone of voice, with organ, that would give credit to any of our best concert-singers.

Mrs. Livermore sang by special invitation, and I here say that she is the most experienced Music Teacher in our place, and is worthy the confidence of all that may be placed under her instruction.
A Methodist clergyman named T. S. Pierce is charged with the seduction of a girl of seventeen years, one of his flock, in Conklinville, Saratoga county. It is said that he has a wife in Connecticut. He has been expelled from the Church.

The following items we clip from the Canisota Valley Times:
"During a Whisky Row in front of the Tribune Office last Saturday, we noticed the smiling countenance of Charles Horton beaming upon the crowd from the window of the editorial office of that paper. We infer therefore, that the dignity and ability of the 'leaders' in the Tribune this week, will be due to his pen. We trust he will be retained as permanent editor. If he lacks a single qualification for a Democratic editor, Nasby himself could not tell what it is.

If the mail service on the Erie Railway was supervised with the intelligence of an angle worm or the enterprise and activity of a snail, there would have occurred no such interruption as the public have suffered during the past week. We don't comprehend the necessity, for instance, of being without any mails from Elmira and other places day after day, when trains are running over this part of the road constantly.—There has been gross and inexcusable negligence or inactivity somewhere.

The barns and sheds belonging to John White of North Almond Valley, were burned with all their contents last Friday night. The barn was filled with hay and grain, and the utensils of the farm. We hear his loss estimated at $1,200. The fire was undoubtedly set by an incendiary.

A desperate gang has infested that part of the town of Almond for some time. It is a great pity that the penalties of the law cannot be visited upon the guilty parties.

HEARTH AND HOME is offered at reduced rates to small clubs. To all who subscribe before next January, for one year at the reduced rates, will receive the paper from the date of their subscription to the end of this year free, so that all such yearly subscriptions will end January 1st 1877, therefore, those who subscribe first will get the most for nothing. Our only terms hereafter are the below reduced rates for 1877: Single copies, $4. Five copies, all at one time, $9. Five copies, all at one time $12. All over five at the same rate.

Messrs. Pettengill, Bates, & Co., are making Hearth and Home one of the most complete periodicals published, and at their reduced rates it is the cheapest reading matter published. Their address is 37 Park Row, N. Y.

The Monthly Report of the Department of Agriculture, for August and September, is upon our table.
I little girl named Christy endeavored to drag her sister off a railroad track in Brazil, Ind., when she was hit by the approaching train and instantly killed.

Hornellville District Ministerial Association.
This Association met at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Hornellville, Oct. 12th. 1889. It was opened by appropriate religious services by the President, Rev. Andrew Sutherland Presiding Elder.

There were present T. Stacy, A. T. West, A. N. Fillmore, W. C. Mattison, J. C. Hitchcock, C. G. Lowell, M. D. Jackson, L. T. Hawkins, W. B. Holt, S. M. Dayton, R. R. Rork, F. M. Smith, D. D. Van Allen, A. T. Allis, L. S. Christensen, and Henry Goodwin.

Rev. A. N. Fillmore was appointed Vice President, and Rev. W. C. Mattison of Angelica, Secretary. A committee of three was appointed to prepare a programme for the next meeting, when it was resolved to hold four meetings of the association this Conference Year and that the next meeting be held in Wellsville, on the 2nd, Tuesday of December next. Rev. W. B. Holt of Addison, preached in the evening from the text, "So then every one of us shall give an account of himself to God." The sacrament of the Lord's supper was then administered, and this was followed by the relation of religious experiences with great and stirring interest.

half-past eight the next morning they met, and listened to an interesting metaphysical dissertation on the errors of modern infidelity by Rev. W. C. Mattison, and to an able and learned article on the wine question, by Rev. J. C. Hitchcock. Several sketches of sermons were presented by Revs. Jackson, Fillmore, Dayton, Lowell, and Stacey. They closed this interesting session, about 4 o'clock p. m.

ALFRED CORRESPONDENCE
ALFRED, Oct. 7th 1889.
Messrs. Editors.—On Fair's: I resolve myself into the committee of the whole not to take any more stock to a Fair where, he committee are made up of men owning stallions as they did in Hornellville. I expect Mr. H. Hamilton will be a proving the country over, blowing out all of the prochers in Steuben County, telling the people that he has the best Stock Horse in the two Counties, as one of his colts took the first premium.

The Agent at Alfred informs me that W. C. Bardick shipped in the month of September 102,600 Cheeses, over 1,400 boxes consigned to over 80 different Firms, no one concern receiving over 50 boxes.

I am also informed that J. C. Potter sold on a Caucus day, at Hornellville a short time since, 1800 boxes of Barlow's Indego Biscuits.
P. S.—Since the last time I wrote I have been informed that Amos Skeeler died last night at about 10 o'clock, aged 19 months.—Froze to death.
