DEATH RESULT OF HORSE KICK

FELTON S. ROBINSON PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND, WEDNESDAY MORNING FROM INJURIES RECEIVED THURSDAY

Felton S. Robinson died at his home, one mile east of this village, Wednesday, from the effects of a kick from a horse, received last week Thursday.

On arriving home, Mr. Robinson took the head-stall from his horse and the animal went into the stall where the other team was standing. While trying to get the animals straightened out, Mr. Robinson was kicked on the hip and small of the back, from which death resulted as above.

Mr. Robinson was one of Andover's most esteemed and respected citizens and we hope to have a fitting obituary notice next week.

THE PASSING OF WILLIAM BUCK

WELL KNOWN WELLSVILLE MAN AND PROMINENT MASON DIED AT HORNELL SANITARIUM LAST FRIDAY.

The death of William Buck occurred at the Hornell Sanitarium Friday afternoon at 2:30 and was due to a complication of diseases. Deceased had been in poor health for nearly a year, and though everything possible was done in the way of consultations with eminent medical authorities, nothing could stay the hand of the dread destroyer. He is survived by a faithful wife and two sons, William and Frederick, a brother, Eugene Buck, of West Salamanca, and three sisters. Miss Ella Buck and Mrs. Lovissa Burr, of East Randolph, and Mrs. Etta Gager, of Oberlin, Ohio. A stepfather, Fred Larkin, of East Randolph, also survives.

William Buck was born at East Randolph on June 25, 1858, the son of Silas and Abigail Buck. He came to Wellsville about twenty-five years ago and has been an honored and respected citizen. He was married Sept. 29, 1894 to Emma Beever, daughter of William Beever, to whom two sons were born, and the family relations have always been of the happiest. The bereaved widow and sons will have the kindest sympathy of all.

He was an active Mason from the time of joining the Wellsville lodge in 1896, and was probably one of the best known Masons in the state of New York, having reached the 32nd degree in 1909, and always taking a very active interest in Masonic affairs at home and in the district.

The Masonic Standard of New York in an interesting account of the Allegany county lodges published in 190: had the following concerning Mr. Buck's masonic career:

"Wm. Buck was raised in Wellsville Lodge No. 230, at Wellsville Jan. 7, 1869, and at once evinced an active interest in the affairs of the Lodge, serving as Senior Master of Ceremonies in 1896 and '97, Senior Deacon in 1898 and '99, Junior Warden in 1900 and Master in 1901 and 1902 was appointed District Deputy Grand Master by M. W. Elbert Crandall.

"Bro. Buck was exalted in Wellsville chapter No. 143, at Wellsville, March 31, 1896. Here, too he has been kept busy with official duties. He was Master of the Third Vail in 1897, Royal Arch Captain in 1898 and '99, and Principal Sojourner in 1900, '01 and '02.

"He was knighted in De Molay Commandery No. 22 at Hornellsville, Oct. 15, 1896, and received the different grades of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite including the 32 in the bodies of Corning, in June 1900. He is also a member of Ismailia Temple, at Buffalo, Nobles of the Shrine."

Mr. Buck has always been a Democrat in politics and has served as president of Wellsville village. For some years he has not been in business in town, but has been the traveling representative for the Brunswick Balke Billiard Table Co.

The Masonic funeral in charge of DeMolay Commandery of Hornell, was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home on East Pearl street, and at 3 o'clock at the Congregational church Dr. W. T. Sutherland officiated. Wellsville Lodge No. 220, acted as escort and the Wellsville Eagles and the Modern Woodmen also attended. Interment at Woodlawn.

The Republican electors of the town of Andover are hereby required to meet in caucus at the Village Hall, in the village of Andover, N. Y., on Monday, October 4th at 8 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for town offices to be filled at the ensuing general election, also for the purpose of choosing a town committee for the year 1910, and for such other business as may properly come before the caucus."

CATHOLICS DOWN ON WHISKEY

THE GROWTH OF THE TEMPERANCE WAVE RECEIVES ANOTHER IMPETUS FROM A GREAT CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

The temperance movement which has already set half of the United States down as "dry" has received a new strong impetus at the recent annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America which has decided to establish national headquarters at Chicago to put the saloon out of business. The Catholic church is not only one of the greatest organizations in the world, but it is known never to stop when it has once taken up an issue until it achieves its aim. The influence of that church will induce the thousand of its members who are now engaged in the liquor traffic, to drop it.

Hand in hand with all churches which have banded together to fight the liquor traffic are all the influential magazines and their influence is great.

Here is what a current magazine of national circulation says:

"Prohibition does not prohibit," says the disinterested orator who goes up and dowp the land arguing for personal liberty. According to this teacher of morals the sots of the nation congregate in prohibition states and the real orgies take place—not in our maligned saloons, but in private homes of dry towns. If you wish to save men from drink you must let whiskey run like water."

It seems that the liquor trade has not yet seen its worst days. That the investors in stocks and bonds of the breweries and distilleries are looking to the future with the greatest misgivings is not surprising. The opponents of the liquor industry have the powerful press, the churches and the women's organizations on their side and the outcome of their war on the saloon seems hardly to be in doubt.—Financial World.
