Gov. Hoffman has fixed on the 18th day of November, as the day for Thanksgiving and prayer.

See Western Correspondence on First page. It is well worth a perusal.

H. P. Bundy has some of the best Japan Tea in town, also a lot of fresh Confectionary.

Jesse GREEN presented us with an apple yesterday, from the orchard of N. W. Boyd that weighed one pound, and sixty-nine of them filled a bushel basket. Who can beat that?

New Bridge.—The new bridge one mile east of this place, on Black Creek, is completed and to all appearances is a good bridge, being well built and patented.

Belmont has no tax on personal property to pay this year. Last year their assessors only found $4,800 worth of personal property liable to tax in that town, and this year, nothing.

Fisk, of the Free Press, devotes a large portion of his paper this week to discussing Iron Bridge.—M. B. Champlin—Dry Ditch—Asking "Stub."

THANKS.—During our absence on Monday last, Mr. J. H. Barker of this place left at our office two heads of cabbage, weighing in the aggregate twenty-two pounds. They were what we would call big cabbage heads.

ACCIDENT.—A son of John Mullin of Greenwood, while driving a horse team, slipped from the whiffrees, and striking his leg across a stone, broke the largest bone about four inches above the ankle.

PERSONAL.—We are informed that Prof. Ira Saylor is about to leave the Rushford Union School, and emigrate to Virginia, where he will live the honest life of a farmer. May success crown all his efforts.

A NEW BREED OF HEWS.—While at John Bassett's, the other day, John showed us some hews that fed on hale stones, we would advise our Allegany farmers to go for that breed, for you will then have chicken feed the year round. John don't feed on hale stones himself, for we had a splendid dinner there.

The farmers of Busti are doing a good thing in the raising of fine cattle.

For samples we cite a pair of grade Durham steers, five years old, whose weight 3,602 lbs., the property of H. S.

Wemple. Also, a pair of six years old oxen that weigh 4,520 lbs., belonging to Mr. Edwin Douglas.—Jamestown Democrat.

BAKED GREENBACKS.—A man living in Ellery, by the name of Brown, was lucky enough to get $57 ahead in Greenbacks, and for fear that somebody would get into his house and rob him, put the greenbacks in his oven, and in the morning built up a hot fire, and before thinking what he had done with them, they were baked to a cinder.

TWIN CALVES.—L. F. Harrison's Durham cow, says the Dunkirk Advertiser & Union, last week presented its owner with two spotted calves, so exactly alike in size, and shape and the distribution of colors—white and red—as absolutely to be indistinguishable from each other, as the hundreds who have been to look at them will testify. 'Le-will raise them for oxen, and as a matched Durham pair, we do not see how they can be excelled.

JUST THE PLACE.—We say just the place because Mrs. Dyer has just returned from New York with a full assortment of Millinery and Fancy goods, and Mr. Dyer has layed in the largest and best stock of Dry Goods and Groceries ever brought into this place, and he is bound not to be undersold by any establishment in the county. Give them a call, you will find them always ready and willing to show their goods.

PERSONAL.—Elijah Hunt of Cuba paid us a short visit on Tuesday last.

Mr. H. shows signs of good feed, as usual, and says that business is brisk in Cuba.

QUICK TIME.—At the late fire at Hornellsville, which occurred on the 9th instant, when the Brees Honso and Clansy's Hotel were destroyed, involving quite a loss. The parties were insured with Crane & Manderville, of Hornellsville, and on the 13th instant, just three days after the fire, Mr. Manderville had the losses all adjusted to the perfect satisfaction of all parties.— This we call quick time.

We took the first time visited our friend Chandler Green, at Green's Corners. Chandler keeps a regular Country Store—a little of everything, and more too—and he says he can and will sell goods just as cheap as any man that don't sell any cheaper than he does. We will say one thing for him, that he keeps the best cigars that we have smoked in a long time.

We went up the other day to Ed Everett's to see his improvements and take a look at the new Millinery goods.

We found Mrs. Everett in the shop, but she took us for a regular bona fide cash customer, and displayed such an endless variety new styles that we had not room enough to put it all down. As we came out we saw Everett perched Zachues-like on top of his new photograph gallery, which promises to be a fine thing.

I saw the other day in Livonia, N.
Y., in a single carriage and drawn by one horse. One Half Grand Mother; three Mothers; one Step Mother; three Aunts; two Half Aunts; four Sisters; four Half Sisters; four Daughters; two Step Daughters; two Half Grand Daughters; four Nieces; two Half Nieces.— The first person that gives to the editor of this paper the exact number and their relationship to each other, will tuitous. W. R. B.

SINGULAR DEATH.—Mr. Ferdinand Coffee, a man sixty-seven years of age, residing in Ashland, near Wellburgh, came to his death on Wednesday last, by being smothered in a tub of cider on his own premises. Coroner Flood, of this city, summoned a jury to inquire into the circumstances attending his decease, and they rendered a verdict that he came to his death by falling into a tub of cider, either by accident or having a fit.—Elmira Advertiser.

DAD BOY.—Mr. H. S. BARNES, of West Denning Yates county, says the Steuben Courier was in this village on Wednesday last in search of his wayward son Wellington, whom he alleges robbed him of $900 the previous day.

The "old gen" went on to Rochester, and at last accounts was still looking after the fast young man. Wellington is a bad boy of twenty-five summers, and ought to be ashamed of himself if he is guilty of such parental disregard.

On Tuesday evening of last week the store of A. Gaylord, at Monterey, Inchy-ler county, was robbed of goods and money to a considerable amount. The burglars poisoned the watch dog, forced open the safe, and wound up their operations by setting fire to the store.

Fortunately the fire was discovered and put out before much damage was done.

$100 in money and some valuable jewelry, belonging to a daughter-in-law, were taken from the safe. Mr. G. offers a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the burglars.—Steuben Courier.

The following items from the Cataraugus Republican—

At the Supreme Court in Buffalo recently a verdict of $100 was given

Seth P. Bliss, a passenger on the G. W.
R. R., whose ticket was refused because it was not used until after the time marked upon it had expired.— Similar decisions had been made in such cases before.

A sale of cheese was made at the Cattiz Factory of cheese manufactured from the 11th to the 30th of Sept at 16cts per pound, on Monday Oct 11th.

RASCALLY.—The house of Martin Copp, in Ellery, Chautauqua county, was entered last Saturday forenoon by a stranger, who inquired of the servant girl if the family were at home. She informed him they were not, when he proceeded to search the house for valuables. He took a watch and some $16 in money, when the girl seized the watch and threw it among the grass where he could not find it. He then took her and fastened her to a tree, and left her. The watch was recovered.— Consort.

WHITESVILLE OIL WELL.—We visited this renowned place on Monday of this week, and found some considerable excitement on oil. We visited the old well, which has been deserted, and skum some oil off from the water that arose where the shaft was sunk. The new well is about forty-five rods north east of the old well. This well Mr. W.

W. Taddor is sinking on his own responsibility. He was down one hundred and forty feet on Monday. They average about a foot an hour, and run it day and night at a cost of about twenty dollars for every twenty-four hours, Mr. Taddor working one tour himself. Mr. T. feels quite confident that the well will prove successful, and on his account and that of Whitesville we hope it may. We shall give weekly the progress made. Mr. Tad-der is an old experienced oil man, and is now sinking wells in Pennsylvania.

A LEAP OFF PORTAGE BRIDGE.— A man name Potter jumped off the wagon road bridge at Portageville on Tuesday of last week, and escaped with very slight injuries. He had been somewhat deranged, and had previously been confined to the house being a brother-in-law of Mr. Ingham, of the Genesee Falls Hotel. On the day in question he was allowed his liberty and went out to the river bridge, took off his coat and handed it to a boy, and jumped off. If he had leaped from the Railroad bridge at the depot, he would certainly have taken his last leap.— Nunda News.

WHITESVILLE ITEMS.

M. Harragan is building a new house in the west part of town.

Chase & Crandall have just received their new goods. They have one of the largest establishments in town, and are doing a good business. Their stock consists of dry goods, groceries, crockery, drugs, &c.

Geo. W. Rose has a full assortment of harness, of his own manufacture, and after a close examination we pronounced them good. George is doing a lively business as he deserves to. He is clever and always has a good joke ready for you.

A. G. Horton keeps a drug and grocery store with a liberal sprinkling of confectionary. His store is full as usual, and he welcomes you with his hand extended and a "well, how are you?"

W. H. Tallman has a large stock of tin ware on hand, and is still manufacturing. He has two wagons on the road peddling, and altogether appears to have a snug little business. In the same building P. W. Tallman keeps a full stock of groceries. Call and see them.

The Erie Railway is noted for quick dispatch. The following cannot be excelled by any other line in the country:

Sunday night last, the stock express train broke into near Cameron Station and Mr. Zann Terran, a brakeman, fell between the cars, and they ran over one of his legs, mangling it in a terrible manner. Superintendent Pratt was telegraphed to and immediately ordered an engine despatched here for Dr. R. P.

Brown, who, together with his son, Rush P. Brown, went to Cameron, and amputated the limb, which was completed in one hour and five minutes.

from the time Superintendent Pratt was telegraphed to.—Advertiser. Advertiser.

VanSickle & Burrows have just opened one of the finest stocks of Fall and Winter Goods ever brought to Andover, comprising Dry Goods and Domestic, Wadded Shawls, Brown and White Bed Blankets, Kankée Notions of every description, Hosiery and Gloves, also the best assortment of Hats and Caps ever produced in town.

To all wanting furs for the coming winter, they invite them to call and look over their stock of Mink, Fitch Martin, Siberian Squirrel, Imitation Mink, and French Coyon, which are warranted in every aspect just what they are represented to be, and can be bought from $5 to $50 a set. Their line of Ladies and Children's Shoes cannot be beaten. Also their Sugar and Teas defy competition. To call and see their stock is all they ask, as great pleasure is taken in showing you around.

Prints one shilling, Sugars twelve to fifteen cents for yellow, they are bargains, Tea from one dollar to one dollar fifty, and everything else at bottom prices.—The entire stock was bought on a declining market and bargains await your attention.

A SAD BEYONDER.—During the funeral of the late Mr. Dunham, his brother, George H. Dunham, Esq., was handed a note in a telegraph envelope, saying: "Your wife's body is on the train.

Meet it at Warsaw." His grief and consternation can scarcely be imagined, as he had left his wife in perfect health at Jamestown on the previous Friday, attend the dying hours of his brother.

The hearse in attendance was sent to the depot to receive the corpse of his wife. On the arrival of the train what was the joyful surprise of all to see Mrs. Dunham and her little son step off the train alive and well! It seems that Mrs. D. had sent word by a freight conductor that she and her boy would be at the Warsaw depot to attend the funeral, and wished her husband to meet her there. The conductor wrote the message and delivered it to Mr. Monroe, ticket agent at that station, but through careless writing the word "boy" looked like "body," hence the terrible mistake.

—Warsaw Democrat.

DIED.

O'CONNELL.—In this town, on Friday, Oct. 15th, Mrs. O'Connell, aged 88 years. She leaves a family of seven children.
