REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

Accepted By a Majority of Voters In Pennsylvania.

MUNSON'S REMARKABLE RU

Democratic Nominee For Supreme Court Judge Swept County After County of Republican Territory, but Was Smothered by Big Republican Majorities in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties—No. 7 of Constitutional Amendment Probably Beaten

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Senator Penrose's Republican state ticket, like others that have gone before it, was accepted by a majority of the Pennsylvania voters. Jeremiah A. Stober of Lancaster will be the next state treasurer, Arthur E. Sisson of Erie the next auditor general, and Judge Robert Von Moschzisker of Philadelphia the next justice of the supreme court.

A feature of the election was the remarkable run made by C. Larue Munson of Lycoming county, the Democratic nominee for supreme court justice. Munson swept county after county of Republican territory in the interior of the state.

While returns on the supreme court judgeship may not be known with any degree of accuracy for a day or two, it can be taken as a fact that the heavy straight Republican vote in the big machine counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny has smothered Munson's county majorities.

When Berry, Democrat, won the state treasurership four years ago by 88,000 plurality he had a plurality of 34,000 in Philadelphia. The Republican nominee for the supreme court has a much larger Philadelphia majority than that, while Munson's county majorities do not seem to run as high as Berry's.

Stober for state treasurer and Sisson for auditor general are elected by good margins, though they received nowhere near the normal Republican vote.

Returns through the state on the ten proposed constitutional amendments are not complete, but it is regarded as pretty certain that they have carried with the possible exception of No. 7, which carries a provision allowing the appointment of police officers in cities. No. 7 was cut heavily everywhere.

ROTAN DEFEATS GIBBONEY

Regular Democratic Organization Joins With Republicans Against Independents.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3. —Samuel P. Rotan, candidate of the Republican organization for district attorney, is elected by a majority of 30,000 to 40,000 over his opponent, D. Clarence Gibboney. David Martin wins over Edwin O. Lewis for register of wills and Dobbins has defeated John J. Murphy, the workingman's candidate for city treasurer. Gibboney, Murphy, and Lewis were the nominees of the William Penn party, the name assumed by the Independent movement. The regular Democratic organization united with the Republican in the fight against the Independents. All of the strong organization wards gave heavily increased Republican majorities, while in the independent wards the strength of the William Penn candidates did not come up to ante-election estimates.

Whitlock's Third Term For Mayor.

Toledo, O., Nov. 3. — Brand Whitlock, the independent candidate, is leading Dave Davies, Republican, by at least 3,000 majority, assuring Whitlock the third term for mayor. The independents have carried the entire city ticket, with the possible exception of city solicitor, clerk of police court and the judge of the city court.

Union Labor Candidate Probably Wins

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—An unusually heavy vote was cast. It shows that all the parties got out their full strength. McCarthy, the Union Labor candidate for mayor, claims a victory. He drew both from the Democratic and Republican ranks.

Johnson Defeated in Cleveland.

Cleveland, Nov. 3.—Herman C. Baehr, Republican, claims his election for mayor over Tom L. Johnson by 5,000 and the Democrats concede Johnson's defeat by 2,500. It was in Democratic wards where the vote was very light that Baehr made his gains.

Pittsburg Bond Issue Carried.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—Everything Republican in Allegheny county. C. Larue Monson, Democratic nominee for supreme court justice, ran away ahead of regular ticket. Bond issue for $6,775,000 for city improvements was carried by a small majority.

Senator Smith's Partner Won.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 3. — P. J. Schoeff, Rep., is elected John T. Morse, Dem., for the state senate from Worcester county. Morse is the business partner of United States Senator Smith.

BANKER FOUND GUILTY

Jury Would Also Convict on Two Counts Withdrawn by Government.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—After being out less than half hour a United States court jury returned a verdict of guilty against David J. Richardson, former cashier of the Cosmopolitan National bank of Pittsburg, which failed 15 months ago for $1,600,000.

Richardson had been tried on 26 counts of falsifying the bankbooks, making false returns to the comptroller of the currency, etc. The government withdrew two of the charges and the jury not only convicted Richardson on the entire 24, but sent a communication to the court asking if it were not within their power to return a verdict of guilty on the two counts which the court had ordered withdrawn. The court replied "No."

The aggregate sentence of Richardson can be 240 years in prison with a fine aggregating $24,000.

AUDIENCE WITH THE POPE

Apostolic Delegate Tells of Developments in the Philippines.

Rome, Nov. 3.—Mgr. Ambrose Agius, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines, was received in audience by the holy father. Mgr. Agius made his report on the condition of the church in the Islands and told the pope that considerable of the decent development of the archipelago was due to the efforts of the episcopate to cooperate with the civil authorities.

Mgr. Agius also recounted to his holiness the story of his (Agius') hearty sendoff when he left Manila and spoke in the warmest terms of the kindness, courtesy and respect that was shown by all classes towards the representative of the pope. It is thought likely that the holy father will agree to the suggestion of Mgr. Agius that the number of bishops in the Philippines be increased.

It is not known whether Mgr. Agius will return to the Philippines at the expiration of his four months leave of absence or go on another mission.

Death of William Powell Frith, R. A.

London, Nov. 3. — William Powell Frith, R. A., the nonogenarian painter, is dead. He was born in 1819. He painted the pictures of Othello and Desdemona and Malvolio before the Countess Olivia as far back as 1840. The next year he painted The Parting Interview between Leicester and Amy Robsart. Among his numerous other pictures were: The Marriage of the Prince and Princess of Wales, in 1865; Before Dinner at Boswell's Lodgings, The Road to Ruin, in 1878, and The Private View of the Royal Academy, in 1881.

Investigation of Sleeping Sickness.

Berlin, Nov. 3. — Dr. Kleine, the well known investigator of the sleeping sickness, which is so deadly in West Africa, claims to have established the fact that the tsetse fly does not convey the disease, as is generally supposed.

Greek Rebel Leader Reported Killed.

Berlin, Nov. 3. — A dispatch from Athens to the Tageblatt says it is rumored that Lieutenant Typaldos, the leader of the abortive revolt of the Greek navy, has been killed in a running fight with the gendarmerie.

NEW YORK REPUBLICAN

Mr. Bryan Comes From Minnesota to Lincoln to Vote.

Lincoln, Nov. 3.—A light vote was cast in Nebraska. Republican managers regard a light vote in counties as a menace to their ticket, but the returns received indicate no great defection from that cause. Comparisons are made with two years ago, when the Republicans elected their candidates for judge by 24,000. A great deal of scratching was done, and so far as indicated now the Republicans carried the state by a comfortable margin.

Mr. Bryan arrived in town from Minnesota yesterday afternoon in time to vote. He will remain home for several weeks. His interest in the returns was confined to those from New York and Cleveland.

Republican Mayor In Columbus.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—It is estimated that Marshall, the Republican candidate for mayor, was elected by 255.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TOWN TICKET

Republican Ticket Elected Mayor by 75,000.

BANNARD'S GOOD FIGHT

Tammany Loses the Board of Estimate.

FUSIONISTS GET THE SHERIFF

Hagan Beaten by Schneider For County Clerk.

New York, Nov. 3.—William J. Gaynor has been elected mayor of Greater New York by a plurality approximating 75,000.

The indications are that he will be alone in his own particular kind of political glory in the board of estimate and apportionment, which spends the city's money.

In the next four years New York city will spend approximately a billion dollars. That money will be spent under the direction and by the votes of a board made up of a Tammany mayor, a Republican and president of the board of aldermen, a

JUDGE WILLIAM J. GAYNOR.

Republican and Fusion comptroller, possibly a Republican and Fusion president of the borough of Manhattan, Republican and Fusion presidents of the boroughs of Brooklyn, the Bronx and Queens and possibly a Republican and Fusion president of the borough of Richmond.

Tammany Loses County Offices.

But there is more to follow. It were a bitter pill for Tammany to swallow so long the board of estimate and apportionment. But with that gone, there were visions of the fees in the sheriff's office had Christie Sullivan gotten votes enough. But Christie appears to have fallen outside the breastworks and another man of the Republican and Fusion stripe, named Shea, will administer the office of sheriff and apportion the fees.

Aside from taking care of the Sullivans by electing Christie, Tammany hoped to annex the district attorney's office when it put up a high-class man and an able lawyer in George Gordon Battle to run against former Judge Charles S. Whitman. But even the protection of the district attorney's office seems to have been denied the Tammany aggregation. The returns seem to indicate that Whitman has won.

And then there is the sad story of Jimmy Hagan, a Tammany man running for county clerk. Last Sunday night at Big Tim Sullivan's meeting in Miner's Bowery theater the Hon. James J. Hagan, in an impassioned piece of oratory, declared that all of the Tammany candidates were ordained of God. It appears that the Lord has forgotten his own, for the returns indicate that Hagan has been beaten by Schneider.

County Register Probably Fusion.

Even the county register, of whom it has been said that he could appoint more clerks than the secretary of the United States treasury, appears to have been lost to Tammany.

And way down at the tail end of ticket Roesch, with a record that rings back to the disclosures of the Lexow investigating committee, whose friends

[illegible] Democrat, Republican and Independence candidate and still crowded [illegible] Fusion ticket, was elected second to the furthest candidate of the Democratic, Republican and Independence ticket. Tammany, by [illegible] the appearance of the returns does not look good to them.

It is not improbable that Tammany will be blamed for what which it does not like and who does not like it, and a board of estimate and apportionment which will spend the city's money without consulting the moguls of Fourteenth street.

DEMOCRATIC MAYOR

Buffalo and Erie County Otherwise Republican Except One Assessor and Chief Judge City Court.

Buffalo, Nov. 3.—An exciting political canvass in Buffalo and Erie county resulted in the election of Louis P. Fuhrmann, Dem., for mayor of Buffalo, over Jacob J. Siegrist, Rep., by a plurality of 1,242.

The rest of the city and county ticket went Republican with the exception of one of the two assessors, Betz, Dem., beating Walter L. Sheppard by a plurality of 1,003, and Brennan defeating Daniels for chief judge of the city court. The pluralities of the winning Republicans ranged from 4,182 for County Clerk Price, re-elected, to 410 for Clark L. Hammond for corporation counsel.

The Republicans elected all four councilmen and the board will stand next year 8 Republicans and one Democrat. The board of aldermen will have 13 Republicans and 12 Democrats. There was no change in composition of the board of supervisors and in the eight assembly districts of Erie county.

DIRECT PRIMARIES LOST

Fusion Candidate For Assembly Beaten Worse Than He Was a Year Ago.

Norwich, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Walter A. Shepardson, Rep., candidate for member of assembly, is elected in Chenango county by about 1,000 majority over Nelson P. Bouney, Democratic-Prohibitionist candidate. Fred L. Ames, Rep., elected county clerk; Harmon A. Walworth, Rep., sheriff, and the result on superintendent of poor is in doubt.

The fight made on member of assembly was a warm one, the Democrats and Prohibitionists fusing on a direct primary platform, the State Direct Primary league giving vigorous assistance. Bouney, the fusion candidate, was defeated a year ago by about 300.

ALBANY MAYOR REPUBLICAN

Democrats Had as Their Candidate George C. Hisgen, Brother of a Presidential Candidate.

Albany, Nov. 3.—Ex-Senator James B. McKewan, Rep., was elected mayor of Albany by 5,000. The other Republicans elected were: Comptroller, Howard N. Fuller; city treasurer, Otto Jantz; president of common council, Joseph W. Stevens; assessors, Alva L. Austin and Edward J. Flood; judge of the city court, Robert W. Scott. Lansing J. Platt was elected sheriff by 8,000 and Morse A. Granger, coroner.

The Democrats elected but three aldermen in Albany city and but five supervisors in the county. Supreme Court Justice Alden Chester is reelected.

The Democrats in Albany city had as their candidate for mayor George C. Hisgen, who was Hearst's candidate for president. He did not run as well as a straight-out Democrat would have.

Utica Elects Democratic Mayor.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The Democrats made practically a clean sweep in the election in this city. Mayor Thomas Wheeler, the Republican candidate, was defeated for reelection by Frederick Gillmore, at present the Democratic sheriff.

Others who were elected include Frederick G. Ronsswig, Rep., comptroller; James Devereux, Dem., city treasurer; Frank J. Baker, Rep., president of the common council, and Dwight Colegrove, Dem., special city judge. The Republicans elected their candidates on the county ticket.

Republican Mayor Defeated.

Oneida, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The Democrats carried practically everything in the election. Dr. Otto Pfaff, the Democratic mayoralty candidate, defeated Mayor Clark Frost, Republican, for re election by 400 majority. The Republicans saved a few of the lesser city offices.

Local Option Beaten in White Plains.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Westchester county goes Republican by a good majority. It elected Henry Scherp sheriff and Dr. Amos O. Squire coroner. All four Republican assemblymen are elected. The Republicans will also control the board of supervisors. Mt. Vernon and New Rochelle elect Republican mayors and the Republicans also claim Yonkers. Local option was defeated in White Plains.

Mayor Elected Over Democrat.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Mayor Bradley, elected second to Assemblyman Fuller, Rep., by a majority of 333. This is the first Republican that has been elected mayor of this city in eight years, although the council has been Republican. Henry Putnam, Rep., has been elected recorder over R. E. Lee Reynolds, who is editor and publisher of the Morning Sentinel, has served six years as recorder. Charles Wright, Dem., has been elected city treasurer by 50 majority. The Democrats have elected a justice of the peace in addition to the city treasurer by 50 majority. Six out of eight supervisors elected are Republicans.

The common council will be Republican as well as the board of supervisors of Montgomery county.

Pledged to Direct Primaries.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Holden, Rep., elected assemblyman in Tompkins county. Pledged support to general direct primary proposition.

Watertown's Mayor Re-Elected.

Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Mayor Francis M. Hugo is re-elected, his plurality being 102; two years ago the city gave him 1,007.

Democratic Mayor Elected.

Kingston, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Roscoe Irwin, Dem., was elected mayor of this city, defeating Walter P. Crane, Rep., for re-election by 50 majority. Majority of aldermen elected are Democrats, also supervisors. Joseph H. Powers, Rep., and Edwin Young, Rep., elected to assembly.

Democratic Mayor In Elmira.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 3. — Seymour Lowman re-elected assemblyman for Chemung. Daniel Sheehan, Dem., elected mayor and William G. Gill, Rep., elected recorder.

Chanler Elected to the Assembly.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 3—Dutchess county elects Myron Smith, Rep., to the assembly in the First district and Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, Dem., to the assembly in the Second district.

Mayor Edgerton Re-Elected.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 3. — Mayor Hiram H. Edgerton and the entire Republican city, county and legislative ticket elected by increased pluralities.

Democratic Mayor In Binghamton.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Joan J Irving, Dem., is elected mayor, defeating Mayor Clarence M. Slauson, Rep., by 500. The balance of the Republican city ticket was elected. Harry C. Perkins, Republican, is re-elected to the assembly from Broome county by a slightly reduced majority, due to a light vote in the county districts.

Wadsworth Re-Elected.

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 3.—James W. Wadsworth, Jr., was re-elected to assembly by 280. Direct primaries not an issue to any extent, factional fights reducing his usual plurality.

Majority For Canal Proposition.

Watkins, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Schuyler county elects L. W. Argestsinger, Rep., to the assembly by 21 plurality on a very light vote. The canal proposition has a majority in the county.

T. O. Coon, Dem., is elected sheriff by 200.

Four-Cornered Fight in Syracuse.

Syracuse, Nov. 3.—Former Assemblyman Edward Schenck was elected mayor in a four-cornered fight, receiving a plurality of 1,069. The vote was Schenck; Rep., 12,547; Driscoll, Dem., 11,478; Gore, Direct Primaries, 2,257; Griffin, Square Dealer, 2,224.

Justice George F. Lyon Re-Elected.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 3. — Supreme Court Justice George F. Lyon nominated for the second time on both Republican and Democratic tickets, was re-elected in this judicial district. The only opposing candidate was Erwin J. Baldwin of Elmira, Prohibitionist.

EARLIEST ELECTION RETURNS

Sweeping Victory For Nationalists and Independents in Manila.

Manila, Nov. 3. — Manila has the distinction of announcing the first result of elections in American territory because of the 13 hours difference in time. The election here resulted in a sweeping victory for the Nationalists and the Independence party, who shut out the Conservatives and Progressistas.

There was little popular interest in the contest as the offices to be filled were minor ones and the machinery was in the hands of a few leaders. Ocampo, former delegate to congress, and Dr. Domidor Gomez, the labor agitator and anti-American, were elected members of the Filipino assembly from this district. The other elected officers were insignificant clerks in a municipal board.

The results of the election in the provinces will probably not be known

BENEFIT.

ANDOVER PEOPLE GREATLY INTERESTED IN THE GEN-EROUS OFFER OF J. D. CHEESMAN.

The people have already demonstrated that they would rather trust a man who is naturally honest than one who is honest only because he had to be.

J. D. Cheesman has a firmly established reputation for square dealing and sterling honesty. When he told the people that Rexall Remedies are the purest and most dependable medicines that it is possible for modern science to produce, and that they would tell the public what each one of these 300 or more remedies contained, and that they sold Rexall Remedies on their personal guarantee that they would give entire satisfaction or they would not cost the user a single cent they were believed.

Ever since this announcement J. D. Cheesman store has been largely patronized by people buying Rexall Remedies, all of which proves that this store has the confidence of the people and that honesty is the best policy.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies. There are different and separate medicines, each one devised for a certain human ailment or a class of ailments closely allied. For instance Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulency and dyspepsia. They are rich in Bismuth-Subnitrate, Pepsin and Carminatives. They are prepared by special processes which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well-known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy.

Remember, J. D. Cheesman store is the only store in Andover where remedels may be obtained, and every one in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

Three Billion Fishes.

During the last fiscal year more fish and fish eggs were distributed by the bureau of fisheries of the Department of Commerce and Labor in Washington than ever before in its history. For the first time the total of fish and eggs distributed passed the three billion mark. The exact number was 3,117,301,525.

Kills Her Foe Of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, Its unequaled. Only 50c. at

HORRIBLE

A YOUNG MAN WAS BRO-KEN AROUND A SHAFTING—DIE-LY EVERY BONE WAS BROKEN.

Hornell, Nov. 1—Burns D. White, a young man employed in the furniture factory of J. M. Deutsch & Co., at Main and Pardee streets, met a terrible death while at work about eleven o'clock this forenoon. Whirled round and round a big shaft until nearly every bone in his body was broken, his right arm pulled entirely off and battered against the ceiling until the last breath of life was extinct, was the fearful fate of the young man.

White was 24 years of age and resided with his father, John White, at No. 29 Taylor street. He had been employed in the Deutsch factory for about three years, and was running a sander. He was counted as a very safe and careful employe. He formerly worked in the McConnell mill, where his father is now employed.

About eleven o'clock this morning something went wrong with the pulley just over the machine operated by White. He did not explain the nature of the trouble to the other employes but went and got a ladder and started to fix it himself. He was standing on top of the ladder when the accident occurred.

His clothing caught in the pulley and in a flash the man was jerked from the ladder. The next thing the other employes saw the body was being whirled around and around the big shaft. An arm was twisted off and came flying through the air and struck the floor. The body as it flew around the big shaft at lightning speed battered a hole in the ceiling. The body suddenly dropped to the floor.

Although nearly every bone in the body had been broken, White was still alive. An ambulance was hurriedly summoned and call sent out for doctors. White lived for nearly five minutes, however, dying just before medical aid reached him.

The right arm was twisted off just at the shoulder. The right leg was broken in a dozen places between the knee and ankle, and the chest was crushed in. The body had been caught in such a manner that the head was not badly crushed.

City In Dilemma

Lockport is facing a crisis. When Giuseppe & Co., builders of the water supply line, threw down the gauntlet Saturday night by refusing to further repair the numerous leaks occurring in the big main between Niagara river and that city, a serious proposition was put up to Lockport. The expense of repair now falls on the city and is sufficient to bankrupt the town in a short time.
