The Christian Gentleman.
A modern writer thus describes the... christian gentleman: "He is above a... mean thing. He cannot stoop to a... mean fraud. He invades no secret in... the keeping of another. He betrays no... secret confided to his own keeping. He... never takes selfish advantage of our... mistakes. He uses no ignoble weapons... in controversy. He never stabs in the... dark. He is ashamed of invectives... He is not one thing to a man's face and... another behind his back. If by acci... dent he comes in possession of his neigh... bor's counsels he passes upon them as... of instant oblivion. He sends sealed... packages without tampering with the... wax. Papers not meant for his eye... whether they flutter at his window... or lie open before him in unguarded... exposure are sacred to him. He invades... no privacy of others, however deep the... money sleep. He has not been seen... and keys, hedges, and pickets, bonds... securities, notes to transgressors, are... none of them for him. He may be... of his neighbor's ought of right... He would rather see...

...right than win them through dis... honor. He will eat honest bread. He... triumphs on no sensitive feeling. He... knows no man. If he have rebuke for... another he is straightforward, open... mainly. He cannot descend to scurril... ity. In short whatever he judges hon... orable he practices towards every man."

Manners.
There is nothing which adds so much... to a young man's success in life—next... to honesty of purpose—as the practice... of good breeding wherever he goes—on... the sidewalk and in the buggy, as well... as in your parlor. If you meet a man... who refuses to give you half the road... or to turn out on the sidewalk; you may... class him as a man with no sense of jus... tice and no regard for the feelings of... polite men we do not wish to be under... stood as referring to the one who bows... low and takes off his hat to ladies and... poor men; but we mean the honest face... —the man who carries a smile on his... countenance and who never turns his... face away from the poor; we mean the... man who has a kind salutation when he... meets you in the morning, and a pleas... ant "good night" in the evening; a man... whose face is always void of offence... —Such a man is bound to succeed—such... a one will find friends. Young men, be... polite.

James T. Brady was very fond of the... ready natural wit of his countrymen... One day, speaking of this to a friend... he said—"I'll just show you a sample... I'll speak to any of these men at work... and you'll see that, I will get my an... swer." Stepping up to the men who... were at work on a cellar near by, he... spoke to them cheerfully, "Good day... good day to you boys. That looks like... hard work for you." "Paix, an' it is,"... was the answer. "or we wouldn't be... havin' the don' of it." Pleased with... this, he asked the man what part of Ire... land he came from. "Ah," said Brady... on hearing the name, "I came from that... region myself." "Yhes," said the... man, with another bow of his pick... "there was many nice people in that... place, but I never heard that any of... them left it."

WELL ANSWERED.—On a certain... occasion, a noted infidel borrowed a sum... of money from the late Dr. Lathrop, of... West Springfield, Mass. When he... came to pay it, he thought to pose the... Doctor by arguing from the Bible.
"You ought not to take interest for... this money, for the Jews are forbidden to... take usury."
"Oh! no," said the Doctor; "you for... get. The Jews were forbidden to take... usury from their own people, but they... were allowed to take usury from the... heathen."

If our Republic be true to herself... the future of the human race is assured... by our example. No sweep of over... whelming armies, no ponderous treatie... on the rights of man, no hymns to lib... erty, though set to martial music and... resounding with the full dispensation of... a million human throats, can exert so... persuasive an influence as does the... spectacle of a great republic, occupying... a quarter of the civilized globe, and gov... erned quietly and sagely by the people... itself.—Motley.

A man on the day he became one... hundred years old went to have a pair... of shoes made, remarking that he wanted... them made substantially, with plenty of... hob-nails. The shoemaker suggested... that he might not live to wear such a... pair of shoes out, when the old gentle... man retorted that he commenced this... one hundred years a great deal stronger... than he did the last one!

Harper's Magazine.
The November number completes the... thirty-ninth volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE... While no change is contemplated in the... general character of the Magazine, the Con... ductors will not fail to avail themselves of... any suggestions which may add to its pre... sent interest or permanent value. Special... and increased attention will be given to the... departments of Popular Science and Indus... trial Arts. Papers on these subjects will be... profusely illustrated. It is proposed that... the various Editorial Departments shall give... a complete resume of the times. Each of... these departments is placed in the charge of... one member of the Editorial Corps, all... however, under the supervision of the Ed... itor in Chief. The Easy Chair will com... ment upon topics relating to social life and... manners. The Book Table will criticize... the important books of the day. The... Monthly Record will note all important... political events. The Drawer will present... the facsimile and anecdotes of the times.
HARPER'S MAGAZINE contains from fifty... to one hundred pages more matter than... any other similar periodical issued in the... English language. Thus the ample space... at the disposal of the Conductors will enable... them to treat fully all the topics embraced... in their plan.
The publishers feel themselves warranted... in asking and anticipating for the future... the continuance of the favor which has been... accorded to their enterprise in the past.

Harper's Weekly.
HARPER'S WEEKLY is an illustrated record... of, and commentary upon the events of the... times. It will treat of every topic, Political... Historical, Literary, and Scientific, which... is of current interest. In November a new... Story will be commenced by Wilkie Collins... the author of Mr. Norman, Armadale, and... Woman in White. Subscribers will be furnished... with the WEEKLY from the commencement... of the story to the close of 1870 for $4 00... of three publications for $11.

Harper's Bazar.
HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the... Home. It is especially devoted to all sub... jects pertaining to Domestic and Social Life... It furnishes the latest Fashionable Dress and... Amusements; contains Stories, Essays, and... Poems—every thing, in brief, calculated to... make an American Home attractive.
