TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.
To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, etc. The object of the Advertiser in publishing this Prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.
Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Local Intelligence.

The people of Hornellville are holding meetings, and discussing matters pertaining to a new county.

The COCKER CIRCLES OF THE RE-PUBLIC.—This is the title of a new work, written by Mrs. Elliott's, and is being published by the Hartford Publishing Company. The book is well entitled to the following notice which we find in an exchange:

"The work treats of social life a Washington, from the early days of the Republic to the present time. Life at the White House; the daily run of dinners, parties, etc., with the numerous incidents of a social nature attended thereto, are sketched in a lively entertaining manner, and a clear insight given into the mysteries of life at the Capitol. Many of the reigning belles of different periods, are sketched, and their portraits given, while all the high officers of the Nation, foreign ambassadors, etc., who took any part in the social pleasures of the Capital, are all remembered. The book abounds in anecdotes, and is, in short, a most readable one."

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column, of a new work, entitled "The Innocents Abroad or, the new Pilgrims Progress."

This work is not one of an ordinary nature, traveling over paths trodden by hundreds of others and treading with greatest care and caution in their very footsteps, seeing only what they saw, praising only what they praised, and condemning only what they condemned, but the author has here given a new and entirely original view of persons, places and things abroad, describing them as they appeared to him. New and quaint ideas of old yet interesting subjects, humorous and witty allusions of men and character, vivid and sparkling descriptions of scenes and incidents, fresh and amusing anecdotes, and a laughable relation of the adventures, experiences, and ludicrous every occurrences and mishaps of this party, will we are confident make this volume one of the most enjoyable to be found.

While running over with wit and humor, and sharp with satire upon many of the customs and follies of the age, it still teems with glowing descriptions, and with elegant and classical allusions.
The scholar will find pleasure in its perusal, as well as others. No one will rise from its reading without having a better and clearer knowledge of the countries it describes than ever before and more ability to judge between truth and fiction in what he may read respecting them in the future. Sold by Agents only.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.— We are in receipt of this marvellously cheap and handsome Magazine for December. Its table of contents is varied and charming, embracing the finest variety of serials; sketches, stories, poems and attractive engravings. The publishers announce in the prospectus for the coming year, a serial story for adults, by the popular Magazine writer, JAMES FRANKLIN FITZ, and a juvenile serial by the young people's favorite HORATIO ALGER, JR. The price of this periodical is a marvel to everybody —a hundred pages of class literature of Magazine for fifteen cents, or $1.50 per year, is indeed wonderfully cheap.
