To You
AN OLD FASHIONED
GREETING

In a far land upon a day,
Where never snow did fall,
Three kings were riding on the way,
Bearing presents all.

Choosing no guide by eve and morn
But Heaven's starry drifts,
They rode to find the newly-born
For whom they carried gifts.

Oh, far away in time they rode
Upon their wanderings,
And still in story goes abroad
The riding of the kings.

From "The Riding of the Kings," by Eleanor Farjeon.
