

THE ANDOVER ADVERTISER.

Local Intelligence.

Church Directory. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—R. RUSSELL, Pastor. Sunday service, at 10:30 a.m. 1st St., Sunday School, at 10:30 a.m. weekly prayer meeting, Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock. Church meeting, Saturday evening, 8 o'clock.

Board of Supervisors and County Officers of Livingston County, partook of an excellent oyster supper last week, under invitation of Mr. W. H. Robbison of the American Hotel at Geneva.

Mr. M. L. Hiemenz formerly in the employ of the Erie Railroad, has resigned his position, and accepted the Secretary and Treasurership of the Brooks Locomotive Works, Dunkirk.

A LIBERAL OFFER—We offer as a premium to all new subscribers to the Advertiser and pay in advance, $1.50, the American Stock Journal. This is a 72 page journal published monthly. It has on its Editorial Corps some of the best writers in the States.

THE HOLIDAYS—The holidays are near at hand, and we notice that our merchants are already supplied with choice and select goods, suitable for Christmas presents, and undoubtedly will be able to dispose of their entire stock.

County Courts—For 1899. The County Court, held at Andover, N. Y., on the 1st day of January, Belmont, Pettit J. J., First Monday in May, Angell, Law, Pettit, no jury.

Union Hotel, ANSELICA, N. Y. Proprietor, R. E. HENNING. This House has been refitted, and the Proprietor is ready to entertain all who may desire to do so.

THE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE. We give our readers the Presidents Message in full this week, and therefore are obliged to leave a large amount of Local and News matter over till next week.

CONFECTIONARY—One of the largest stocks of confectionery ever brought into the place can be found at H. P. Buntam. Call and see the varieties.

THE ERIE RAILWAY. 1899 Miles under $80 Miles without One Cent Increase. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Omaha, and All Points West and North-West.

THE UNIVERSE. A Weekly Journal of Literature, Science, The Spiritual Philosophy, Woman's Independence, etc.

Close Call—On Tuesday a Mr. Parker from Woodhull started to take his daughter and another young lady, to Alfred to school with his team and a lumber sleigh. When near the first crossing (called the blind crossing) and as he had just passed off the railroad, the mailtrain came along.

Salamanca remains as before.—At Dunkirk a small force is also retained for the keeping in order of the engines here running in. Heavy repairs, however, are let by contract to Mr. Brooks, who has already contracted for the making of 24 new locomotives, and one hundred cars to be made within a year's time.

The Journal's statement that Mr. Cooper's family had removed to Hornellsville, is an error. They will remain in Dunkirk for the winter, at least Mr. Cooper is also in Dunkirk weekly.

SUPERVISORS' OYSTER SUPPER.—The Board of Supervisors had their annual oyster supper last Friday evening at the Dow House. The Board voted that day that the junior members, or "yearlings" and two year-olds, should get up the entertainment and pay the cost.

Important Notice.—All those indebted to the subscriber whose notes or accounts are past due are requested to call, settle and pay, for he must have money.—Nov. 26th 1899.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT. One Store on Main St., formerly occupied by T. A. J. Baker, as a Drug Store. Also a Dwelling House near the Woolen Factory. This property will be sold or rented on reasonable terms.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—George W. Smith sold his farm of 100 acres to Jacob Phillips for $1,000.

Amos Hall sold his residence known as the VanCampen-lot, to R. McQueen for $1,400 dollars.

Gilbert Womley has sold his farm of 60 acres, to Wm. Tucker for $1,000.

Caleb White late R. R. Conductor is recovering from his injuries which he received by the cars a short time ago, and is now at home.

William E. Lewis who has been absent all summer in Mich inspecting lumber has returned home.

Frank Wilkes our former townman who has been engaged at Cameron Pt., for the past few years has returned to Sic to make this his future residence.

A. W. Roby has got to grinding in his new grist mill, he grinds at the rate of ten bushels of feed in four minutes forty-five seconds. All who wish a load of feed ground in a hurry, call at the little giant mill and you will find a good mill and a "bully" good fellow running it in the person of Wm. Roby the proprietor.

A move is being made to build a cheese factory on Knight's Creek. The mills of Wm. Meddagh at Millgrove was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Loss $10,000. No insurance, the insurance had expired but a few days before the fire. Wm. Meddagh has the sympathy of our whole community.

Joseph Drake left here a few days ago for his lumbering establishment in Mich to remain during the winter.

Samuel H. Veterinary Surgeon has left town for the time being, and has become a pioneer for a gang of horses in the lumber woods of Pa. No horses have been sick or died since he left except Butlers old mare and she was slain by the clerks hopeful son.

George Way had one of his fingers jammed in Harris mill last Saturday, and it became necessary to amputate it, and the amputation was performed by Doctor J. W. Babin at this place. Who by the way, is a good surgeon and a well read physician.

ANDOVER N. Y. Dec. 9th 1899. Coroner Schiner was called on the 2d of Dec. to number 852 East 62d St. New York City to hold an inquest on the body of John C. Potter, a man of 52 years, who died suddenly the night previous.

Important Notice.—All those indebted to the subscriber whose notes or accounts are past due are requested to call, settle and pay, for he must have money.—Nov. 26th 1899.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT. One Store on Main St., formerly occupied by T. A. J. Baker, as a Drug Store. Also a Dwelling House near the Woolen Factory. This property will be sold or rented on reasonable terms.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—George W. Smith sold his farm of 100 acres to Jacob Phillips for $1,000.

Amos Hall sold his residence known as the VanCampen-lot, to R. McQueen for $1,400 dollars.

Gilbert Womley has sold his farm of 60 acres, to Wm. Tucker for $1,000.

Caleb White late R. R. Conductor is recovering from his injuries which he received by the cars a short time ago, and is now at home.

William E. Lewis who has been absent all summer in Mich inspecting lumber has returned home.

Frank Wilkes our former townman who has been engaged at Cameron Pt., for the past few years has returned to Sic to make this his future residence.

A. W. Roby has got to grinding in his new grist mill, he grinds at the rate of ten bushels of feed in four minutes forty-five seconds. All who wish a load of feed ground in a hurry, call at the little giant mill and you will find a good mill and a "bully" good fellow running it in the person of Wm. Roby the proprietor.

A move is being made to build a cheese factory on Knight's Creek. The mills of Wm. Meddagh at Millgrove was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Loss $10,000. No insurance, the insurance had expired but a few days before the fire. Wm. Meddagh has the sympathy of our whole community.

Joseph Drake left here a few days ago for his lumbering establishment in Mich to remain during the winter.

Samuel H. Veterinary Surgeon has left town for the time being, and has become a pioneer for a gang of horses in the lumber woods of Pa. No horses have been sick or died since he left except Butlers old mare and she was slain by the clerks hopeful son.

George Way had one of his fingers jammed in Harris mill last Saturday, and it became necessary to amputate it, and the amputation was performed by Doctor J. W. Babin at this place. Who by the way, is a good surgeon and a well read physician.

ANDOVER N. Y. Dec. 9th 1899. Coroner Schiner was called on the 2d of Dec. to number 852 East 62d St. New York City to hold an inquest on the body of John C. Potter, a man of 52 years, who died suddenly the night previous.

Important Notice.—All those indebted to the subscriber whose notes or accounts are past due are requested to call, settle and pay, for he must have money.—Nov. 26th 1899.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT. One Store on Main St., formerly occupied by T. A. J. Baker, as a Drug Store. Also a Dwelling House near the Woolen Factory. This property will be sold or rented on reasonable terms.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—George W. Smith sold his farm of 100 acres to Jacob Phillips for $1,000.

Amos Hall sold his residence known as the VanCampen-lot, to R. McQueen for $1,400 dollars.

Gilbert Womley has sold his farm of 60 acres, to Wm. Tucker for $1,000.

Caleb White late R. R. Conductor is recovering from his injuries which he received by the cars a short time ago, and is now at home.

William E. Lewis who has been absent all summer in Mich inspecting lumber has returned home.

A. W. Roby has got to grinding in his new grist mill, he grinds at the rate of ten bushels of feed in four minutes forty-five seconds. All who wish a load of feed ground in a hurry, call at the little giant mill and you will find a good mill and a "bully" good fellow running it in the person of Wm. Roby the proprietor.

A move is being made to build a cheese factory on Knight's Creek. The mills of Wm. Meddagh at Millgrove was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Loss $10,000. No insurance, the insurance had expired but a few days before the fire. Wm. Meddagh has the sympathy of our whole community.

Joseph Drake left here a few days ago for his lumbering establishment in Mich to remain during the winter.

Samuel H. Veterinary Surgeon has left town for the time being, and has become a pioneer for a gang of horses in the lumber woods of Pa. No horses have been sick or died since he left except Butlers old mare and she was slain by the clerks hopeful son.

George Way had one of his fingers jammed in Harris mill last Saturday, and it became necessary to amputate it, and the amputation was performed by Doctor J. W. Babin at this place. Who by the way, is a good surgeon and a well read physician.

ANDOVER N. Y. Dec. 9th 1899. Coroner Schiner was called on the 2d of Dec. to number 852 East 62d St. New York City to hold an inquest on the body of John C. Potter, a man of 52 years, who died suddenly the night previous.

Important Notice.—All those indebted to the subscriber whose notes or accounts are past due are requested to call, settle and pay, for he must have money.—Nov. 26th 1899.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT. One Store on Main St., formerly occupied by T. A. J. Baker, as a Drug Store. Also a Dwelling House near the Woolen Factory. This property will be sold or rented on reasonable terms.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—George W. Smith sold his farm of 100 acres to Jacob Phillips for $1,000.

Amos Hall sold his residence known as the VanCampen-lot, to R. McQueen for $1,400 dollars.

Gilbert Womley has sold his farm of 60 acres, to Wm. Tucker for $1,000.

Caleb White late R. R. Conductor is recovering from his injuries which he received by the cars a short time ago, and is now at home.

William E. Lewis who has been absent all summer in Mich inspecting lumber has returned home.

recommend our readers to receive the magazine for a sample copy, to Deane & Peterson, 219 Walnut-street, Philadelphia. Price $2.50 a year, which also includes a large steel engraving.

THE PUBLISHERS OF THIS FAVORITE LADY'S MAGAZINE HAVE ISSUED A PROSPECTUS FOR 1899 THAT IS FULL OF PROMISED EXCELLENCE AND ATTRACTIVE, AND AS THEY HAVE ALWAYS KEPT THEIR WORD, THEIR READERS MAY CONFIDENTLY EXPECT A RICH DISPENSATION OF GOOD THINGS DURING THE COMING YEAR.

FOR SALE. Dr. W. W. CRANDALL, offers for sale his Office building and lot sufficient for a Block of three stores, on Main-st. For particulars, call or address Dr. W. W. CRANDALL, Andover, N. Y.

Money! Money! The Highest Market Price paid FOR OATS, BUCKWHEAT and Sheep-Pelts, at J. J. Harman's

Crandall & Brainard. Will pay in GREENBACKS the highest Market Price for Oats, Buckwheat and SHEEP-PELTS.

ERIE RAILWAY. 1899 Miles under $80 Miles without One Cent Increase. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Omaha, and All Points West and North-West.

THE UNIVERSE. A Weekly Journal of Literature, Science, The Spiritual Philosophy, Woman's Independence, etc.

Consolidation of the Chicagoan, Chicago Sorosis and Advance Guard.

recommend our readers to receive the magazine for a sample copy, to Deane & Peterson, 219 Walnut-street, Philadelphia. Price $2.50 a year, which also includes a large steel engraving.

THE PUBLISHERS OF THIS FAVORITE LADY'S MAGAZINE HAVE ISSUED A PROSPECTUS FOR 1899 THAT IS FULL OF PROMISED EXCELLENCE AND ATTRACTIVE, AND AS THEY HAVE ALWAYS KEPT THEIR WORD, THEIR READERS MAY CONFIDENTLY EXPECT A RICH DISPENSATION OF GOOD THINGS DURING THE COMING YEAR.

FOR SALE. Dr. W. W. CRANDALL, offers for sale his Office building and lot sufficient for a Block of three stores, on Main-st. For particulars, call or address Dr. W. W. CRANDALL, Andover, N. Y.

Money! Money! The Highest Market Price paid FOR OATS, BUCKWHEAT and Sheep-Pelts, at J. J. Harman's

Crandall & Brainard. Will pay in GREENBACKS the highest Market Price for Oats, Buckwheat and SHEEP-PELTS.

ERIE RAILWAY. 1899 Miles under $80 Miles without One Cent Increase. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Omaha, and All Points West and North-West.

THE UNIVERSE. A Weekly Journal of Literature, Science, The Spiritual Philosophy, Woman's Independence, etc.

Consolidation of the Chicagoan, Chicago Sorosis and Advance Guard.