Up To The Neck

The teacher said to her class: "Words ending in 'ours' means full of; as 'joyous' means full of joy and 'vigorous' means full of vigor. Now give me an example of such a word."

Tommy — "Pious."

Two men were handling dynamite in a quarry. One of them let a stick drop and the whole box went off, taking one of the workmen up in the air with it. The quarry boss came around a few minutes afterward and asked: "Where is John?"

"He's gone," replied the other man.

"When will he be back?"

"Well, if he comes back as fast as he went up, he'll be back yesterday."

Hard To Satisfy

Her car stalled at the corner and the traffic light changed red, yellow, green, etc. The polite policeman stepped up beside her car and said, "What's the matter, lady; ain't we got any colors you like?"

Wise Her Up

"I say pa," said little Tommy, "Didn't you tell me the other day that it was wrong to strike anyone smaller than yourself?"

"Yes, Tommy, that's what I said," confessed the fond parent.

"Well, I wish you'd write my teacher to that effect," said the youngster. "I don't think she knows about it."

Or A Calamity?

Teacher: "Who can tell me the meaning of the world 'collision'?"

Willie: "When two things come together the book says that's a collision."

Teacher: "That is right, Willie, and now you may give the class an example of a collision."

Willie: (studies a minute, then) "Twins."
