Andover and vicinity was struck by a big cyclone Friday night about 10 o'clock. The storm lasted nearly forty-five minutes. Houses were demolished, barns torn down, roofs blown off and fully one-third of the shade trees in the village were laying across lawns and streets. Carl Will of Elm Valley was caught in the debris as the house came crashing down and was dead before he could be rescued. It is impossible to estimate property damage which will run over a million dollars.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Karcanes Wednesday, July 28.

VETERANS' News Letter

American servicemen totally disabled during the current fighting in Korea may be eligible to have their National Service Life Insurance premiums waived if their total disability lasts six consecutive months or longer, Veterans Administration says.

The waiver would go into effect, upon application, after the six-month period was over, and would remain in effect as long afterwards as total disability continued.

V. A. said the waiver provision is not confined to those suffering total disability in action in Korea. Veterans who hold NSLI are eligible for waiver of premiums if they become totally disabled before age 60 and while their policy is in force and remain so for at least six consecutive months.

Total disability as defined is "any impairment of mind or body which continuously renders it impossible for the insured to follow any substantially gainful occupation."

Waivers of premium are not granted automatically, V. A. said. Instead, application to V. A. must be made—if possible, immediately following the six consecutive months of total disability.

A person who applies for waiver should continue to pay his NSLI premiums regularly, as they fall due, until he receives notice from V.A. of "entitlement to waiver."

A Popular Girl

"Give me a license to marry the best girl on earth," ordered the enamored swain.

"Sure," commented the clerk, filling out a blank. "That makes thirteen hundred licenses for that girl this season."
