The Hornell assessors backed down on their valuation of the Erie property in that city. It is not the proper thing to do to try to worm out all they can out from a railroad thinking the owners can not move it and will pay. Erie stock is selling in the stock market for about 16 cents on the dollar and is not over prosperous, but it prospers the towns thru which it passes.

LOST

LOST—Child's Gold Neck-chain with charm. Please notify Mrs. Joseph Caruso.

WHO are your editor and publisher when a sick looking stranger appeared before him?

"Look like a bit familiar, sitherain I'm sure I've seen you for some time."

"I'm a Dollar Bill," the stranger wearily answered.

"Oh—pleased to recognize you, Dollar, but you certainly look as if you needed a good big meal." "You look a bit weak, old friend. What's the matter?"

"I'm not the same Bill I used to be," mournfully said the visitor. "I can only do about half the work I used to do before the war."

"Pretty tough," our editor reflected. "Have you been to see the doctor?"

"I went to see Dr. McAdoo," answered Bill, "and he told me that I'll never get my strength back until after the war. He said I ought to gain at least 25 cents or 30 cents in weight then. In the meantime, he said, I ought to have a rest, and my owner ought to lay me aside against the day when I will be worth more."

"That isn't a bad idea," observed our editor.

"I know," continued Bill, "that some of us Bills must go for food and clothing, no matter how weak we get. But there are lots of us that are going for luxuries and things that our owners don't really need. The fast times are killing us. I thought if I called it to your attention you might say a word for us. Dr. McAdoo said a dose of publicity would help me. Now, of course I don't want people to put me in a sock or behind the clock case until the Huns are defeated. My value will increase by investing me in thrift stamps instead of dollars."

"Now, Mr. Dollar Bill," said our editor, "I'm with you in all these sympathetically.

"If you take four of us and add in cents to us this month, making 64 in all, you can buy a War-Savings Stamp from Uncle Sam that will make me worth exactly $5 cash to you on January 1, 1923, and worth even more when you consider how much more $5 will buy then than now. There is nothing imaginary or theoretical about it either. We dollar Bills are valuable only because we can buy things people want. I am more valuable when I can buy more of those things than when I can buy less of them. And Uncle Sam will gain while you gain. He will have the use of your money when he sorely needs it, and, believe me, he needs it. And I, Mr. Dollar Bill, will have the patriotic feeling that we have worked together for victory."

"Bill, you know what you are talking about!" exclaimed our editor. "Everybody ought to follow your advice."

"I had Stomach Trouble for years, which became so bad that I had Stomach Cramps: two or three times a week.

After years of terrible torture I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit-Liver Tablets, and sent for a trial box and wrote that it was the last remedy I would use—if 'Fruit-a-tives' did not help me, I would die.

After taking the trial box, I felt better, so kept on taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for nearly a year, and am thankful to say 'Fruit-a-tives' saved my life'."

It also saved a friend from operation for Stomach Trouble, and he had given up all hope of getting well".

ANDOVER AND VICINITY

It Proves That There's a Way Out for Many Suffering Andover People

Gus, another report of a case in Andover. Another typical case of kidney ailments relieved in Andover with Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. P. Remington, retired carpenter, First St., says:—"I think the hardships I endured in the war of '61 affected my kidneys. At times I am bothered by attacks of kidney trouble which have been so bad I could hardly get out of bed mornings as a sharp pain would strike me in the small of my back. I have to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions and they contain a brick-dust-like sediment. I use Doan's Kidney Pills at these times, which I get at the Brundage Drug Co., and they cure me of the attack, fixing me up in quick order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Remington had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SILK FILLS THE GAP

Shortage of wool and high cotton places Silk as a basis for a dress material in high position. Formerly a pure luxury, today it assumes the dignity of a necessity. Can you imagine Silk in comparison with wool a less expensive fabric, both in price and in value? Can you imagine its supereeding cotton as utility fabric? This is no imagination, but fact today. Compare relative values and prices and this will become apparent, a fact, fully realized.

This condition cannot long maintain for the abvious reason that as the call for Silk increases for the above reasons, the price naturally will go upward. The yield is not large and the tremendous increase in use will bring this shortly about.

Here's where our part in interesting you comes in. We bought heavily and early in anticipation of this very event. Therefore we are in a special position to serve you. Prices lower because of it, lines larger, and selections the largest we have ever shown.

The Orient is surely helping us to this end both in raw material and in finished products. France and Italy are naturally producing little compared with former times. It's up to Japan, China and the United States to fill the gap.

We feel perfectly justified in asking for the increased use of Silk as a conservation both of Wool and Cotton.

Here are a few of the luminaries of Silk manufacture.

Taffetas—priced right; no advance as yet.

Satines—qualities same; price the same as last season.

Jerseys—used much for sport wear, particularly in white, gray and stripes.

LaJerz—heavy type of Jersey, very durable and wonderfully fine.

Crepe de Chine—large lines; all colors; no change in price.

Georgette—for gowns, waists and combinations; no advance.

Shantungs and Tussahs—Oriental Silks of great value and utility; price less, if anything values better.

Poplins—line still large, but going fast. Durable, stylish and satisfactory.

Tub Silks, Striped, Silk Madras, and

Cotton and Silk lines—lines very large and attractive; prices even lower than last year.

SPECIALS

Plaid Silks are scarce because of very large demand and shortage of quantity for delivery. Don't delay in getting yours whether for skirt or gown.

FANCY CHIFFONS

Much use is being made of these and we are offering very special values in them for waists. Fancy Chiffon waists are in great demand. Our line has some 35 designs.

COMMENCEMENT FABRICS

Time still to make your purchase with wonderful range to choose from—Georgettes, Crepe de Chines, Taffetas, Satins, Voiles, Organdies, Chiffons, etc. Don't put this important matter of selection off longer. Do it now while lines are full.

BUY GOOD CLOTHES

The buying of good clothes is a judicious investment—if they possess these two essentials—

STYLE AND QUALITY

Both must be present. In offering our Spring Suits we feel that you are getting that value.

Save Fuel Wisely

Saving fuel is working hand in hand with the Government these days. And one way to save wisely and well is to use So-CO-NY—the quality gasoline. It means minimum consumption and maximum power.

Inferior, low-grade mixtures mean waste in the form of increased consumption, lost power and excessive carbon deposits.

There's power in every drop of So-CO-NY. It's clean, quick starting; reliable; obtainable everywhere.

Look for the Red, White and Blue SO-CO-NY Sign. It's the wise way to save fuel.
