The clock shelf, the cupboard, the calendar are all right in their place, but are poor substitutes for necessary files and books for keeping records on the farm. Business methods pay in farming.

* * *

With the increased interest in sheep raising, it might be a good plan to send to the State College of Agriculture at Ithaca for a copy of R. C. F. 115 "Keeping Sheep for Profit." A postal card request will bring it.

Rochester laborers threaten a strike. They demand 40 cents an hour, 60 cents for overtime and that contractors shall furnish suitable shovels. Another demand is that suitable shelter be provided in case of storms.

Rural mail carriers of Ontario, Yates, Wayne, Seneca and Cayuga counties will hold an outing at Geneva on July 4, with congressman Gould as speaker. There are 175 rural carriers in these five counties.

So far this month only six marriage licenses have been procured at the office of the Hornell city clerk, as compared with 34 in the same month last year. The war is blamed for the scarcity of eligible young men.

The 52d annual encampment of the G. A. R. of the state of New York will be held in Ithaca this week. Governor Whitman will speak. A special rate of two cents a mile is granted to veterans and those who wish to attend.

Croton Falls, which led the communities without banks in the New York district during the second Liberty loan drive, has been awarded a silver cup by the Manhattan club. Its quota was $7,120 and it subscribed $143,900.

The county commissioner of elections announced that 19,793 Rochester women registered on May 25. They are divided among the parties as follows: Republicans, 13,436; Democrats, 2,862; Prohibitionists, 2,164; Socialist, 768; blank, 563.

If your Business is For Sale make your advertising campaign "fit the case"—make it as important as it is important for you to find the buyer to whom your business would be worth more than to others—and this fact makes some persistent advertising highly advisable.

—WSS—

The merchant must, to succeed, persist in a purpose to make his store necessary to you. What he is doing to that end is always told in his ads.

—WSS—

The most widely read writers in this town are the writers of the store ads. And it speaks well for the stores that this is so.
