"Taboo" Uncertainty

People are naturally skeptical about buying clothes during war-time, and they have a right to be if they are not extremely careful how they buy. Some clothes wear well and others do not, but how can you know? Every Stein-Bloch Smart, Clothcraft Guaranteed or Griffon Ultra Suit or Overcoat is guaranteed for satisfactory wear and service, which takes all the uncertainty out of your clothes buying. Let us show you one of these worthy suits priced from $20 to $50.

Schaul & Roosa Co.
117 Main St. Hornell, N. Y.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

The war is over.

The beast has tied Germany.

Everybody is celebrating the surrender including the enemy.

The terms of the capitulation are drastic.

The kaiser was mad with the last fur power.

"Whom the gods destroy, they first make mad."

Landing 2,300,000 Americans in France in a year showed the enemy of what stuff Americans are made.

The fine weather is helping us out.

The influenza is abating.

Mr Benjamin of Buffalo commences work to-day dismantling the N. Y. & Pa. R. R.

The Pennsylvania people, who agreed to take their share of stock in the purchase of the line failed to make good.

Harland Pease of Hornell was in town Friday to assist in moving the household furniture of his mother to Howard where she will reside.

Fay Taylor of the Gully was in Greenwood Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson were city visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Knox Miller were in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keiffe, of West Union, formerly of Greenwood, were in town Wednesday greeting former neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conrad, of West Greenwood, were in Greenwood Wednesday.

George Burd of Canisteo was in our city Monday.

The Canisteo Tanning Co., is negotiating with Mr. Benjamin for the purchase of the N. Y. & Pa switches in that village to give them access to the Erie R. R.

J. H. Turner, of Jasper, was in Greenwood Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Wilcox, wife of Ralph Wilcox, died Tuesday at their home on Christian Street, of influenza. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and four children, two sons and two daughters.

The funeral will be held at the residence Thursday and burial at Greenwood cemetery. The family have the deep sympathy of all in their bereavement.

John Harden, supervisor of West Union, was in our village Monday.

The war welfare meeting scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday evening was delayed by a breakdown of the speaker's automobile, and many of those who came left, thinking the meeting would not be held, but those who remained until the speakers arrived were very agreeably entertained by addresses by Att'y. Clyde E. Shults and J. Hudson Ballard and by music from the Glee Club.

Alfie Scott, of Rexville, was a city visitor Monday.

Herbert Case, who has been very low with influenza, is convalescent and able to be about again.

Wm. H. Banks, of Jasper, was a Greenwood visitor Saturday.

The kaiser can no longer conjure the German people by linking his name with Deity.

The me and Gott slogan has been overworked by him and the people no longer are moved by his sacrilegious appeals.

He was a devout Chrisitan among the Christians, a fervent Mohammedan when among the Turks, and after his cause was lost he posed as a lover of peace.

He has proved himself an all round hypocrite, an inhuman brute willing to shed a sea of blood that he might extend his power and dominions, a peace founder on justice would require that he expiate his crimes the same as any other felon. Justice require that crime be punished.

We publish in our next issue a letter from Lieut. George Davis Webster, son of Mrs. M. D. Webster of this place. Lieutenant Webster was severely wounded while leading his company at the battle of Fismes, ought near Sergy, France, July 31st. There were five pieces of shell embedded in his flesh. The explosion of the shell that wounded him battle of Fismes, fought near Reim. Mr Webster was confined in the hospital until October and was then promoted to first lieutenant and appointed to an important position in the judge advocate's department. Lieutenant Webster still has two pieces of shell in his side which he will carry thru life as a memento of the great battle in which he was engaged.

The number of places in New York state where intoxicating liquors may be sold legally decreased 6,569 during the fiscal year ending Oct. 30, and there was a consequent loss in revenue to the state of $1,775,274, state commissioner of excise reports. The total excise revenue for the year was $17,222,167.

The New York State Agricultural society will hold its second annual meeting, exhibition and sale of sheep in Albany this week. Charles E. Sheppard, chairman of the local sheep breeders and feeders' association, has been asked to deliver an address at the meeting relative to feeding western lambs.

James B. Stafford of Buffalo, Erie county food administrator, has enlisted 25 price reporters and hopes to increase the number to 75 before long. They are housewives who keep tab on neighborhood grocers and dealers in foodstuffs and will make weekly reports, which after being examined at the Buffalo office will be sent to Washington.

A complete survey of all the coal in the hands of consumers in New York city, and of their requirements for 30 days, as well as a list of all homes which have no coal or which buy in quantities of a ton or less, will be made during the week by the police. This step is being taken at the request of the fuel administration to prevent a repetition of last winter's shortage. All the police reserves will be employed in the undertaking.

Genesee County Food Administrator Dean has received a telegram from Charles E. Tremain, state food administrator, stating that he had been advised by the sugar division of the federal food administration that the retailers will receive supplementary sugar certificates within a week. These certificates will enable them to obtain more sugar from the wholesalers to take care of the additional pound per person per month that has been allowed.

The official dates for closing New York state's barge canal system were announced by the superintendent of public works. The date for closing the Erie, Oswego, Cayuga and Seneca and Black River canals was fixed at midnight, Nov. 25, while the date for the closing of the Champlain canal will be at midnight Nov. 30, unless the waterways are closed sooner by ice. The canals will not be closed on above dates unless made necessary by weather conditions.

Among Our Churches

BAPTIST

Rev. M. N. Longenecker, Minister

Sunday, Nov. 17th. Rev. F. W. Jackson, of Olean, will supply the pulpit.

Morning service at 10:30 o'clock.

Bible School at 11:45 o'clock.

C. E. Society will meet at 6 o'clock Sunday evening.

Preaching service at 7 o'clock.

Regular prayer meeting of the church on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.

For an extension of time, by permission of the congregation Mr. Williams will resume Y. M. C. A work at Camp Humpreys, Va., (Belvoir section.) He will have charge of the religious program at that station.

The congregation will carry on such meetings as may be possible during the minister's absence.

It is urged that the congregation respond to such courtesies as shall be extended by other churches.

We stand at the Gate of the Morning of a new world-era. The opportunity of service is before the people of the churches. The morning is a-blaze with opportunity.

It is great to be alive at such a time as this.

METHODIST

Rev. Chas. Collins, Pastor.

Public worship at 10:30 with sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Consecration."

Evening federated service at 7:30. Sermon theme: "A Case of Real Heart Trouble." Everybody welcome.

Sunday School at 11:45.

Epworth League at 6:30.

Prayer Meeting Thursday at 7:30.

Remember the Philathea and Brotherhood "at home" to-night in the church. The address will be given by Dr. Hutchinson, District Superintendent, and an attractive program and refreshments will make an enjoyable occasion. The entire church is invited.

The W. F. M. S. elected officers for the ensuing year at their meeting Tuesday.

The pastor's study class will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the church.

If a particular store can save you a dollar on some particular purchase you need to make, the ad in the news which tells you where, and why, and when, has a think?

Private medical examinations for men registered for the selective draft are to be permitted, under certain conditions, it is announced in a bulletin by the exemption board for Western New York. If draft boards are unable to secure proper quarters suitably equipped, registrants may be sent to private offices of physicians there to undergo the army physical tests, it is now held. Before making arrangements for private examinations exemption boards must secure permission from the state draft headquarters.

Mayor Harry C. Walker, lieutenant governor-elect, left Binghamton in company with his clerk for Atlantic City, where he will rest up following his strenuous campaign. A demonstration in his honor is to be held on his return. The election of Mr. Walker as lieutenant governor will result in giving Binghamton a Republican mayor. His successor as chief executive of the city will be Leroy E. Barnes, president of the common council. Mr. Walker will be the fourth Binghamtonian to serve as lieutenant governor.

In accordance with the regulations of the priorities division of the war industries board, every purchaser of agricultural lime in this state must apply through his local farm bureau for a permit from the state representative of the board to purchase any amount of lime in excess of one ton. When making application for permits users must make written agreements that they will not use to excess one ton of agricultural lime to the acre. These applications are carefully considered by the farm bureau agents and if approved are forwarded to the state representative, who grants the permit.

Bishop Burt of Buffalo was principal speaker at the annual Corning district conference of the Methodist church on Nov. 12-13.

New York city's board of education has dismissed three men teachers whose loyalty to the government was questioned.

BRIEF BUSINESS BRINGERS

Classified advertisement 1 cent a word. Minimum price 15 cts.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE — Good Jersey Cow. E. F. Stearns. 48

FOR SALE — Child's Enamel Bed, nearly new. Mrs. Jennie Owen.

FOR SALE — Thirty head of Oxford Sheep. Frank Macauley, Andover.

FOR SALE — Wardrobe, Carpets, Desk, Wallpaper Portiers, Clothing, Coal Bin and other Household Articles. Mary R. White.

FOR SALE — Evingham House on Rochambeau Ave. J. L. Williams. 47

For Rent

FOR RENT — House on Baker Street. G o. Hartrum. 39tf

Wanted

WANTED — 100 Cows to freshen in March and April. Must be large and right in teat and mouth. Garvin Brothers. 47

Making classified advertising carry the news of what you have to sell, or of what you want to buy, to all who would be interested—that is to get merely average sort of service from such ads.

For good job printing try The Press advt. in The News.

Thomas Thomas, a native of Wales, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Williams, in Andover, Friday, at an advanced age. He was a member of the Welsh church in Andover and was a veteran of the Civil war, being a member of Company F, 107th Regiment, N. Y. Volunteers. He was a member of the Andover Lodge, F. & A. M., and was buried with Masonic honors, Sunday, Nov. 10, the services being held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Williams, and at the church in Andover, Rev. Mr. Longenecker officiating. The deceased was a member of the Baptist church in Andover and