Henry Sherman, of Mayville, died at his home in that place last week and was brought to this place, his former home, for burial, where the funeral was held at the M. E. Church, Sunday.

Mr. Sherman was 27 years of age and leaves to mourn his loss his widow, his parents, two brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Sherman, his widow, was critically ill with influenza and unable to attend the funeral, but is now reported as convalescent. Mr. Sherman was a victim of influenza and was sick but a short time.

It now appears that everybody in Germany tried to avert the war. The fallen emperor lays it to the generals and did all he could to turn it away. The military leaders say they tried to prevent it but the vanity of the kaiser did the work. The Crown Prince says he was forced into it by the war lords and every one exonerates himself.

Germany raised more spirits than she could down in stirring up the Bolshiveiki in Russia.

David H. Parshall died at his home in this place on Sunday last after a long and painful illness, at the age of 71 years. Mr. Parshall had been a resident of Greenwood for upwards of a half a century and was universally esteemed by all who knew him.

He leaves him surviving his widow and three daughters: Mrs. Anna Scherette, Mrs. Alflea Taylor, of Whitesville, and Miss Blanche Parshall. Mr. Parshall was a member of the M. E. Church of this place and also a member of the Masonic Order.

The funeral services were held at his late residence and were conducted by the Masonic Lodge of this place.

The soldier boys are coming home and are royally welcomed by the country.

Canisteo is likely to lose its largest industry on account of the punking of the N. Y. & Pa., railroad. The big tannery threatens to leave and says it will leave if the road goes. Misfortunes never come singly.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keiffe, of West Union, were visitors in Greenwood Saturday.

The ex-kaiser tried to kill himself. The man who prevented him from so doing ought to be executed.

Jasper proposes to put an end to Sunday hunting in that town. Good for Jasper.

Cutting out the sale of whiskey as a beverage has raised the price of milk. It is now 12 cents per quart.

Yankee troops are now in Germany and the Germans are meek as we could wish.

President Wilson has been invited to visit Berlin. Probably the Germans wish to show him how much nicer it is than Northern France.

F. D. Young, who was quite sick, is on the road to recovery.

AGRIGRAPHS

In spite of the increasing interest in alfalfa, clover, it is safe to say, will always be far more important in this state than all other legumes combined.

The United States Red Cross has given $20,000 to the women lace-makers of Belgium to purchase raw material for their work. This money may be used as capital of a co-operative society and the 40,000 lace-makers will each be the owner of a share of stock.

One of the last contemptible acts of the Germans, upon being driven from Belgium, was to break and destroy the delicate looms upon which the Belgium women wove their beautiful lace patterns.
