OUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION

Here we are fairly started on 1919. The salutation of "Happy New Year" has just ceased ringing in your ears, and your New Year's resolutions are all made and in order.

Perhaps you have made up your mind to be more kindly this year; perhaps you have determined to be more economical—maybe on the contrary you have resolved to be more reckless, possibly, more industrious.

These, whatever they may be, are the outcome of some quality which we think we need more in our lives than any other quality. Which one of us does not need more of the quality of kindness and sympathy in our lives? Who of us does not need more, more, and more, of the quality that tells.

It is a true religion to consider [illegible] word and deed, to [illegible] spirit, with [illegible] of [illegible] Jesus Christ.

Sign Boards on the Up-road

By Hamilton B. Williams

If the old gray year
And Life and I kept house again,
In the Town of Fellowmen;—
If all the folk who passed along
Our street went by once more,
They would see the fire-flame from our open door.

If we together lived again,
We would kinder be, we would cheerier greet
The folk who used to walk along our street.
To folk whose look was cry of famished souls;
To folk shadowed by ghosts of failure and of fall,
We would speak God's "For-ward!" rallying all.

If we could live the past once more,
We give to all folk Friendship's sacrament,
And leave God's gift of laughter where we went.
We would fight more valiantly through calamity's barrage;
Grope, but go forward through the night,
Nor doubt (as oft we did) the light!

There was a day called yesterday,
But I'll and I passed through its door;
We'll see the old gray year 19[illegible] more.
We have [illegible] with the pipes of Dawn [illegible]
[illegible] God's roads and Man's,
We'll [illegible] Manager, with our caravans.

[illegible] in Good Soul, the overlooked [illegible] who give to [illegible] their own [illegible] to be overlooked [illegible] Pity have [illegible] to live.

New Year is the stroke of [illegible] road.

[illegible] "Heaven" like [illegible] kind of serving.

[illegible] would [illegible]

[illegible] man's made truth.

CHILD LABOR

The revenue bill now [illegible] in the Senate contains a provision for a tax [illegible] on profits [illegible] interstate commerce shall be made with use of child labor under certain [illegible] conditions. This will probably receive favorable action by the Senate.

The purpose of this is not to raise revenue, but to [illegible] the employment of children [illegible] making it unprofitable.

The war has brought home to us the fact that the main power of our country is her greatest wealth. It is not only the most valuable, but the dearest possession of all.

We cannot have strong manhood and womanhood until childhood is protected [illegible] opportunity for strengthening [illegible] and for education. It is only thus that development of [illegible] and body together can proceed to the fullest extent.

Any money gain proved by placing a stand at [illegible] labor which does his powers instead of developing them is [illegible] long run a loss gain, but an economic loss.

A hundred and forty years ago came a period when [illegible] was given to for [illegible] and securing the Rights of Man. It is the duty of our day and generation to secure and protect the Rights of the Child.

THE CONDITION OF RUSSIA

What few glimpses we get thru the cloud which veils Russia from the Western peoples, show us a scene of utter confusion. They reveal a nation tossed in revolution, all its orderly life at an end. It is a mighty people given over to cold, starvation, cruel military domination.

In Eastern Russia there is scarcely food or clothing to be had at any price. Siberia is left off for lack of food, but its transportation is impossible, as the transsiberian railroad has been worn and neglected to such an extent that it is well nigh [illegible]

At the time of the Russian revolution the country was [illegible] ripe for disorder. A [illegible] monarchy imposes the [illegible] self-government, but [illegible] hordes of Russia [illegible] no opportunity to gain. There was no available ballot-box between autocracy and red anarchy. The Allies will be derelict in their duty unless they take some measures for helping Russia to food and to give an opportunity for general educating and to a settled government.

PEOPLE SHAMEFULLY NEGLECT THEIR EYES

About the last thing the average person decides to attend to is the examination of his or her eyes. They seem to think there is something clever about being able to exist without glasses, even when they know that they need them. YOU are differently!
