Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The mortification this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Scrofulous complaints of dormant or constitutional character, which were regarded by the sufferer as a life-long misfortune, and by the world as incurable, have been radically cured by this powerful alterative. Many running sores, which obstinately resisted all other treatment, have been completely healed by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were regarded by the afflicted and the community as simply hereditary taints, beyond the reach of medicine, have been thoroughly eradicated from the system by this remedy. Even consumption, which seems to have fastened its fangs so firmly upon the victim that no power could unloose them, has been conquered