Spredit

The perfect nut butter made from the original Danish formula. It is absolutely pure and palatable and is good on bread, hot biscuit and pancake

Spredit is the best butter substitute on the market. It is marked "oleomargarine" to comply with the law, but is entirely free from animal fats. Don't ask your grocer for oleo. Ask him for the best nut butter on the market—that's

Spredit

If he hasn't it, he can get it readily. It isn't higher priced that other oleo, but it is better.
