

THE ANDOVER ADVERTISER

The Liberal party is gaining in the election in the Austrian provinces.

It is said that Ex-President "Moses" Andy Johnson intends to run for Congress.

The Spanish Government is unable to find a king; and it is quite possible that we may yet see a Republic of Spain.

The bill repealing the Franking privilege, was defeated in the Senate on Tuesday, by a majority of ten, with some dozen Senators not voting.

Mr. Whitmore was reported by the House on Tuesday last, by a vote of 124 to 20. Thus he has received a fine punishment for playing the part of a Cadet warrant holder.

A company of Chinese laborers have been brought to Massachusetts to take the place of some shoemakers who were on a strike. The Celestials are said to learn the trade very rapidly.

The bounty bill, which passed the House last Friday, giving all soldiers $333 1/2 per month, deducting all bounties previously paid, will take, it is estimated, about $20,000,000, and has yet to pass the Senate.

The Grand Jury of the United States at Columbus, have indicted General Stryker, the late Pension Army for violation of the neutrality laws. Indictments will also be found against Donnelly, Gibson, and Fitzpatrick.

A Rev. Mr. Demorest is on trial before a New York Synod for preaching dry and uninviting sermons. It is reported that a shaking time would be among the "dry folks" of the parson.

Immense quantities of tobacco and whisky, with a large number of manufactures and specialties, have been made during the past week in the Western portion of Tennessee. A number of arrests of these engaged in illicit distilling has also been made. The value of property seized by the United States authorities amounts to about $50,000.

When the defeat of Ramsey's amendment, abolishing the banking privilege, was announced, many of his supporters came from those who have been fighting the bill. It is said that some of these party gentlemen will in due time be seen by the other side of their monthly. The people are searching for a course. We predict that there will be a bill comes before Congress it will pass.

Some of the newspapers opposed to the Administration of President Grant are belittling themselves by giving circulation to the foolish and lying story that the President has received a present of a life insurance policy of $20,000, the money to pay which was collected by the subscription of subscribers of the government. It has been suggested by inquiring at the office of the Company, said to have given the policy, that there is no truth in the report.

The Army Bill.

The maximum of the army as fixed by the Compromise Bill is thirty thousand men, the annual saving being estimated to be $2,000,000. The bill which prohibits military officers from holding civil positions will affect General Fickles, Minister to Spain, General Balaon, Consul to London, General Fitzpatrick, Minister to Chili and Gen. Porter, Pa'cock and Dent, on duty at the White House, who will have to resign either their civil or military office. All appointments and promotions are fixed at the following rates: General $12,000 a year; Lieutenant General, $10,000; Major General, $7,500; Brigadier General, $5,500; Colonel, $3,000; Lieutenant Colonel, $2,000; Major, $2,500; Captain, monthly, $2,000; not mounted, $1,800. Below the rank of Brigadier General is added ten per cent. to the current yearly pay of continuously serving officers for each term of five years.

The Law of the Road.

We commend the following to the consideration of pedestrians: "In a recent case in Boston, which arose from a boy having been killed by a street railroad car, District Attorney May in charging for the execution, mentioned to the jury the law relating to the right of road, and cited a number of authorities to sustain his interpretation. The view of the law is somewhat different than what is generally prevalent, and totally at variance with the common practice. It is stated distinctly to the jury that the street crossing streets are first and foremost, and superior to the use of any driven of teams. He said that the drivers must stop at the crossing streets, and if they were crossing on the Red Cloud's Speech in Cooper Institute.

"My Brothers and my Friends who are before me to day: God Almighty has made us all, and He is here to hear what I have to say to you to day. The Great Spirit made us both. He gave us hands and he gave you hands. You came here and we received you as brothers. When the Almighty made you, He made you all white and clothed you. When he made us He made us with red skins and hair.— When you first came we were very happy and you were few. You do not know when you came here to speak He is a representative of the whole American race, the first people of the continent. We are good, not bad.— The reports which you get about us are all on one side. You hear of us only as murderers and thieves. We are not so. If we had more lands to give you we would give them, but we have no more. We are driven into a very little island, and we are very dear friends, to help us with the Government of the United States.— The Great Spirit made us, our and our parent. He has been good and wise and skilled in things that we know nothing about. The good Father made you to eat game and us to eat wild game. Ask any one who has gone through to California. They will tell you we have treated them well. You have children. We too, have children and we wish to bring them up well.— We ask you to help to do it. At the mouth of Horse Creek, in 1852, the Great Father made a treaty with us. We agreed to let him pass through our territory for fifty five years. We kept our word. We committed no murders, no depredations, until the troops came there. When the troops were sent there trouble and destruction arose. Show that sinners have been various people sent there to do us ill. I only once did they reach us and the Great Father took away the only good man, and sent to us, Col. Fitzpatrick. The Great Father said we must go to the land and some of our men went to Hannegan near Leadville, and were treated very badly indeed. We were sent to Washington to see our Great Father. I saw him and he said to me, "The Great Father said that you were to be peace to be kept; we were to be peace. Will you help us? I had many children and they did not know how to read, and he did not tell us what we were to do. We thought the treaty was to be moved the treaty, and that we should then come some day. If they wanted to sign us, we would sign. We did not want to sign the Missouri, but wanted to know where we were. When I reached Washington the Great Father said to me, "What the treaty was, and he said that the treaty was not to be broken. All I want is right and justice. I have tried to get from the Great Father what is right and just. I want you to help me to get what is right and just. I represent the whole Sioux nation and they will be bound to what I say. I am no Special Edict, to say one thing one day and be fought for a year the next.

Let us see. I am poor and naked, but I am chief of the nation. We do not want riches, but we want to train our children right. Riches would do us no good. We would not care them with us to the other world. We do not want riches, we want peace and love.

The riches that we have in this world, Secretary Cox said truly, we cannot take with us to the next world. I wish to know why Commissioners are sent out to us to do nothing but rob us and get the riches of the world away from us? I was brought up among the traders and those who came out there in the early times treat of me well, and I had a good time with them. They taught us to wear clothes and to use of soap and powder. But by and by, the Great Father sent out a different kind of men; men who would not keep their word, and so sent them out there. I have sent a great many words to the Great Father but they never reached him. They were deflected on the way, and I was afraid the words I spoke lately to the Great Father would not reach you, as I am to speak to you myself, and now I am going back to my home. I want to have men sent out to you, like the men we have had on this island, and I have more time. You will let me in this. He and I in the West, I say, and I have some bread and we will understand one another. I can give you much obliged to you for listening to me. I go home this morning. I hope you will think of what I have said to you. I bid you all an affectionate farewell."
