REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

At a meeting of the Republican State Committee held at Congress Hall, Saratoga, on the 14th day of August, 1870, the following resolutions were adopted...

County Convention. The Republican Executive of several Towns of the County of Albany are requested to meet...

Republican Caucus. The Republican electors of the town of Andover are requested to meet in caucus...

We notice in the announcement from the Treasury Department that the estimated deficit for 1871 is sixteen millions of dollars less than that of 1870...

The Philadelphia Press says that Republicans of the interior are manifesting an unusual interest in the coming campaign...

The organization of the census bureau has been completed. There are now 275 clerks at work, and as fast as the reports of sub-divisions are received...

President Grant has issued a proclamation of neutrality which we publish in another column this week, in a very elaborate document...

In the next place, their section of the new act of Congress, passed under the name of regulating the manner of electing members of Congress...

Hon. Hamilton Ward. We publish in another column a card from Hon. Hamilton Ward, in which he withdraws from the contest for nomination by the Republican party...

We regret very much that Mr. Ward has been fit to withdraw his name from the field just now, for we believe that there could not have been an opposition of sufficient strength to have either defeated him at the Convention or at the polls this fall...

It is in the language of a patriot seeking for a fair expression of the will of the people, or is it that of an ally of the dishonest...

Inconsistent Democracy.

It will be remembered that just before the adjournment of congress the president proposed, in view of the European war, that the restrictions now placed upon the registration of foreign built ships be so far removed...

What the Republican party recently refused to do, the Democratic party would gladly have done. A Democratic Congress would have promptly passed a law authorizing free trade in ships...

Whereupon the Thras shows that leading members of the Democratic party took ground precisely the opposite of that which the Herald declares a Democratic congress would have taken...

The purpose of the Democratic party can be judged only by the course of its senators and representatives. A reference to the report of the congressional proceedings on the occasion referred to by the Herald will show that the diversity of opinion which existed among Republicans extended to the Democrats...

Mr. Chandler made an ineffectual effort to get up the bill, which had been given up, but Mr. Bayard, who had the bills defeated to yield...

So the Democratic Mr. Bayard frustrated the work which the Republican Mr. Chandler desired to promote, and which, if it had been carried out, would have done more for the Republic than any other measure...

Gov. Hoffman and some of the leading Democrats are endeavoring to make the people believe that Congress has no right to pass a law, that in any way put a restraint upon fraudulent voting...

In the next place, their section of the new act of Congress, passed under the name of regulating the manner of electing members of Congress, actually undertakes to punish offices, which can be officers only under State laws...

The Federal Courts will have to decline the jurisdiction; the State courts will have to punish, and in proper cases they will do it, when any offense against the law of the State is proved...

The Tribune says who is blind enough not to see what is here meant? 'Oh no! My dear Mr. Ward, you are the only man, who, since the death of Mr. Ward, has been fit to withdraw his name from the field just now...

To My Co-Constituents.

At the solicitation of many friends, and I believe with the approval of a large majority of the Republican party of the Congressional District, a few weeks ago I became a candidate for the 42d Congress.

Active opposition sprang up in the District, coming largely from sources that gave assurances of support when I became a candidate, and a warm and somewhat bitter contest has since been maintained...

A fair consideration of my claims in the face of much calumny and excitement, becomes impossible in the short time allowed me, so for domestic reasons, I cannot leave home to give further attention to the canvass...

In conclusion let me say that the mission of the Republican party is not yet ended. It is the duty of us all to lend our party discussions, and press on with undiminished effort to secure the continued ascendancy of its policy and principles.

HAMILTON WARD, Debutant, Aug. 23, 1870.

The French Government has forbidden the exportation of food. A woman in Iowa drowned her two children in a bucket of water, and then committed suicide.

The Rev. Merrill Allen, the senior Minister of Brown University, died on Wednesday last week, at his residence in Peabody, Mass., aged ninety-four years, four months, and fourteen days.
