LAWS OF NEW YORK.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, wild fowl and game animals for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Subdivision one of section two hundred and twenty-one of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and in section two hundred and twenty-two of this chapter, no person shall take any game birds, game animals or game fish at any time except during the open season therefor as specified in this section, or take any game birds, game animals or game fish in any manner or by means other than by hand, by gun, by rod and line, by bow and arrow, by falconry, by trap, net or other device, or by any dog when such game birds, game animals or game fish are not on land or within one hundred yards thereof, or take any game birds, game animals or game fish in any quantity in excess of the daily or other bag limit, or take, kill, possess, sell or offer for sale any game birds, game animals or game fish which have been taken, killed, possessed, sold or offered for sale in violation of this chapter or any other law of this state or any rule or regulation made by the department of conservation.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 185.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, wild fowl and game animals for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section three hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 325. Scientific purposes. Nothing in this article shall prohibit the taking of game birds, wild fowl or game animals for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, wild fowl or game animals are taken, killed, possessed, sold or offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 186.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 187.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 188.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 189.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 190.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 191.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 192.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 193.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 194.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 195.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 196.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 197.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 198.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 199.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 200.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 201.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 202.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 203.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 204.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 205.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 206.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 207.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 208.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 209.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 210.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 211.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 212.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 213.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 214.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 215.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 216.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 217.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 218.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 219.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 220.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 221.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 222.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 223.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 224.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 225.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 226.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 227.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 228.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 229.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 230.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 231.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 232.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for scientific purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-five of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225. Scientific purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for scientific purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 233.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for propagating purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-three of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 223. Propagating purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for propagating purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.
CHAP. 234.

AN ACT to amend the Conservation law, in relation to the taking of game birds, game animals and game fish for educational purposes.

Section 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Conservation law, as added by chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 224. Educational purposes. Game birds, game animals and game fish may be taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale for educational purposes when such taking is authorized by the department of conservation, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, and when such game birds, game animals and game fish are taken, killed, possessed, sold and offered for sale in accordance with such rules and regulations.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

JOHN J. LYONS,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.