Ask Questions Before--Not Afterwards

Millions of dollars are wasted on fake securities yearly, because the average person has a tendency to invest first and ask questions afterwards.

That's a thousand times worse than boarding a train and then inquiring where you are bound for, because it costs you a lot more.

When somebody offers to "let you in on the ground floor of a million dollar proposition," ask your questions first. This bank will know, or will find, the answers.

Before You Invest—Investigate

The Burrows National Bank

MAIL CLOSING

East

Train No. 1,000 .... 9:15 A. M.
" 26 .... 2:00 P. M.
" 8 .... 5:50 P. M.

West

Train No. 7 .... 10:00 A. M.
Train 1,001 .... 5:45 P. M.

Office Closes

Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 6:00 P. M.
Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7:30 P. M.

JOHN COMMON, P. M.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Mrs. Cecil Plumb of Almond is ill with diphtheria.

—The Bullard home on Dyke street has been re-roofed.

—No man should ask for a friend's candid opinion unless he is prepared for a shock.

—Richard Davis of Almond fractured his arm while picnicing at the Ledges last week.

—Mrs. Ila Clarke is caring for Mrs. Emma Robbins who is ill at her home on Church street.

—Frank Stimson of Bolivar fell from the roof of a barn at Vosberg, where he was working, breaking his leg.

—The Gavitt reunion was held Sunday, August 16th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gavitt. There was a good attendance.

—Charles Baker has sold the home which he recently purchased of the Lanphear estate, on Dyke street, to Belle Hollewell.

—The body of John Truesdell was brought from Detroit, Mich., last week to Belfast, his former home, for burial. Deceased was 71 years of age.

—Invitations have been issued for the celebration of the Fiftieth wedding anniversary, Saturday evening, September 5th, of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens.

—The W. R. C. members met Friday afternoon to observe the August birthdays. The honor guests for the month were Mrs. Eliza Cooper, Mrs. Adelia Jenkins and Mrs. Jennie Flint.

—Cyrenius Perry of Shinglehouse Pa., died suddenly, while eating dinner, at the home of his son, in Ceres August 20th. Mr. Perry was born at Alfred in 1850, and lived there the earlier years of his life.

—A Ford touring car, 1923 model was found abandoned on the Southern side of Cuba Lake, by the roadside. The car was taken to Cuba and is in the hands of officers of the village.

—The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church, meet with Mrs. Mae Rennells at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, September 8th, a joint meeting of the W. W. G. and the Women's Circle picnic supper.

—Charged with failure to report an automobile accident, Albert Moyer, 23 years old, of Bolivar, was sent to Little Valley jail for a term of 30 days when he was arraigned in police court before James E. Fane, acting justice, at Olean.

—The Cuba hospital has recently purchased necklaces for identifying new born babies. They are tiny blue beads, with white beads in which black letters spell the parent's name. These are sealed on the baby's neck as soon as born.

—Fred Wixson of Cuba, fifteen years of age, has been presented a gold medal for bravery, in the saving of five persons from drowning in Cuba Lake, at different times this summer. The presentation was made by State Senator Knight of Arcade.

—Hayden M. Setchel, assistant cashier of the Cuba National bank, has tendered his resignation of that position and in about a month will go to Florida, where he will be connected with a large real estate firm at Safety Harbor, on Old Tampa Bay, about half-way between Tampa and St. Petersburg.

—J. D. Cheesman has purchased a new Ford sedan.

—Luther Graves of Hallsport broke his arm while cranking a car, last Friday.

—The Walter Edwards house on Pleasant and East avenues has been newly painted.

—Mrs. Della Farwell of Belmont had the misfortune to fall at her home, breaking her hip.

—"Crauze Tell," a race horse fell dead as he passed under the wire, at the finish of the 2:19 pace at the Hornell fair on Thursday.

—[illegible] has purchased a Ford sedan [illegible] are busy learning to drive it this week.

—Merle Spicer winged a hawk near Andover, Monday and captured it, bringing it home with him.—[illegible] News.

—[illegible] Stebbins of Andover [illegible] day to visit their nephew, [illegible] Hurlburt and wife.—Whitesville News.

—Undertaker C. E. Brown lost his fine Jordan sedan car in the fire at Wellsville, Tuesday morning. The car was in the shop for re-painting.

—Mrs. Guy Harder entertained at a surprise party in honor of Miss Katherine Folsing, Thursday evening, at her home on Greenwood street.

—The Lane school, Miss Emma Folsing teacher, was awarded the fourth prize in the Rural School boothe exhibit at the Hornell fair, this year.

—In the faculty for 1925, of Belmont school we notice the name of Miss Fanny Sweet as teacher in the first grade and Miss Amelia Tubbs seventh grade and music.

—A million-foot gas well has been drilled in on the Fred Anderson farm, at Clermont, McKean county. Two wells, each producing 100,000 feet of gas daily, had previously been drilled in on this farm.

—W. E. Robbins of Fillmore has taken the contract to put in the plumbing, heating and ventilating works in the new high school building at Franklinville at approximately $40,000.

—Andover people regret to learn that the condition of Mrs. Getta Widger, formerly of Andover, was such as to necessitate taking her to a hospital in Elmira from her home in Westfield, Pa., last Sunday.

—Regular meeting of Edward Seaman Relief Corps Saturday night. Members are requested to be at the hall at seven o'clock sharp, when the session will be opened. Program will be postponed to next meeting.

—[illegible] J. Atwood is installing a new [illegible] front in his north store on main street.

—W. N. Rice is having his residence on Chestnut street, repainted. M. J. Grey is doing the work.

—The Johnathan Richardson family reunion was held at the home of Charles Lee Richardson at Elm Valley, Saturday. A large delegation of relatives were present.

—W. S. Calhoun has sold his residence on Maple and First streets to Henry Baker. Mr. Baker having sold his farm to his son, Harry, will move to the new home in the village. Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun contemplate going south for the winter.

—James Johnson of Allentown, was the recent victim of a hunting accident. A rifle in the hands of a friend with whom he was hunting woodchucks, accidently discharged. The bullet passed thru the thigh of Johnson, making a bad wound.

—Dr. John Seeley of Woodhull, a well known physician in that locality, has been accused of issuing too many liquor prescriptions. Federal officers recently raided an Addison restaurant where they found 54 filled prescriptions for whiskey, alleged to have been signed by Dr. Seeley.

—Mrs. Ella Green and Mrs. L. G. Probasco of Whitesville entertained at a bridge luncheon at the Murray Tea Room in Wellsville, Wednesday afternoon. Those from Andover in attendance were: Mrs. A. A. Porter Mrs. W. S. Calhoun, Mrs. J. E. Cannon, Mrs. J. P. Cannon and Mrs. J. S. Phillips of Bronxville, N. Y.

—Two women from Olean "lifted" several articles from a show case in the Stevens drug store at Friendship last week. Mr. Stevens who noticed the theft soon after their departure from the store followed them to Cuba where he found the goods in their car. The women paid for the articles and were allowed to go without arrest.

—A pigeon association at Auburn sent three crates of pigeons to Belfast, containing 108 fliers. They were released Saturday morning at 11:32 and the first ones reached Auburn at 2:10. Quite a crowd assembled at the station to watch the flight. The [illegible] about 15 minutes [illegible] final start. Several prizes were won by the owners.—Blaze.

—Mrs. [illegible] Bowen has [illegible] her residence on East avenue, to Calvin Slocum. Mr. Slocum having sold his property on Dyke street to A. C. McFetridge. Mrs. Bowen expects to leave Andover. The other families will move to the properties purchased by them. Andover people are pleased that Mr. and Mrs. McFetridge have decided to make their permanent home in our village.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

The Radio Corporation of America Announces New Models and a Big Cut in Prices

	New Price	Old Price
Radiola III	$24.50	$35.00
Radiola III A	$49.50	$65.00

Radiola super het. $116 strip. $256—6 tubes

Three new models have been added to the Radiola family. A new 5 tube, new 6 tube and an 8 tube set. See me for specifications and prices.

The Best in Batteries, Tubes and Radio Equipment.

FRANK GRAVES, Andover, N. Y.

100% PURE PENNSYLVANIA OIL

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Introducing the

EMCO OIL AND GAS

For a limited time only, while finishing the construction of our new up-to-date Filling Station on Main Street, Andover, N. Y., we will give to each auto owner buying ten gallons of EMCO gasoline at our Station at the regular price, a one gallon can of the not-to-be-excelled EMCO lubricating oil, worth about one-half the cost of the gasoline thus paid for by you. This only applies to the first ten gallons bought by such car owner and only for a limited time. Be quick and avail yourself of this opportunity.

EMCO gas and oil is made by the Emery Mfg. Co., of Bradford, Pa., one of the few refining companies permitted to use the label "Guaranteed 100% Pure Pennsylvania Oil." Pennsylvania crude oil leads the world in its gas and lubricating values.

Buy it, try it, and be convinced.

We are also pleased to sell you the regular Socony Gasoline and Motor Oils at regular prices, also the Sinclair Gasoline.

A liberal portion of your patronage is solicited.

Borden's Service Station

117 North Main Street

Andover, N. Y.

BOYS——GIRLS

On September 8, the Opening Day of School, we will give you absolutely

FREE

One Pencil and one Jot Pocket Pad with every 10c purchase of candy

A Good Place to Buy All School Supplies

J. RUSSELL ROWE

DRY GOODS AND VARIETIES

Successor to A. C. McFetridge

STORE CLOSES AT 11 A. M. LABOR DAY

F. L. BLOSS • Corner Grocery

Save Your Coupons!

K & B FLOUR and K & B COFFEE

Both Highly Guaranteed Products are for the exchange of coupons giving away valuable things for the home

Fruit Jars, Jar Rings and Certo for Canning

Prompt Delivery F. L. BLOSS Right Prices

HORNELL-WELLSVILLE BUS

New Schedule in Effect August 31st, 1925

7:30 A. M.	1:00 P. M.	LV. HORNELL AR.	12:15 A. M.	5:30 P. M.
7:45 A. M.	1:45 P. M.	ALMOND	12:00 A. M.	5:15 P. M.
7:55 A. M.	1:55 P. M.	ALFRED STA.	11:50 A. M.	5:05 P. M.
8:20 A. M.	2:20 P. M.	ANDOVER	11:25 A. M.	4:40 P. M.
8:45 A. M.	2:45 P. M.	ar. WELLSVILLE lv.	11:00 A. M.	4:15 P. M.

4:15 P. M. trip leaving Wellsville will connect at Hornell at 5:44 P. M., with Erie Train 1001 for Buffalo.

CUT THIS OUT AND PIN IT UP FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Every dollar of an ad readers money is above par.

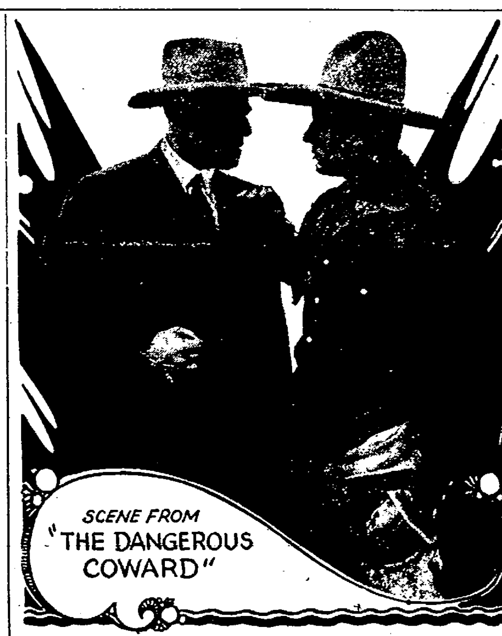
DOUBLE FEATURE PICTURE!

AT THE AUDITORIUM

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4 & 5

IF you're one of the seventeen million people who read the story or saw the play, you won't need coaxing to see the piccture.

If you're not, take a tip and get acquainted with laughable, loveable "Merton" and his fun-filled career. You'll enjoy a royal treat.



STARRING

FRED THOMSON

The world's champion all-round athlete in a picture so jam-packed with action and hazard that you hardly have time to catch your breath between thrills! Delightful romance! Strong drama! Mystery! Intrigue! Everything's there to the nth degree and you're going to have the time of your life when you see it!

Get there early and avoid the rush!

Also a two-reel Comedy and a reel of Aesop's Fables

For this great double feature program a slight raise to 35c for adults. Children 10c as usual