OUR WOMEN'S COLUMN

Conducted by AUNT MIRANDA

Syrups and Sauces

Cuts and kinds of meat that are either flat or rather of a pronounced flavor such as lamb or mutton and very fat meat like pork, require a sauce to bring out the full flavor of the meat. Fish most of all needs a sauce yet this is most often served a sauce, however, Mrs. Al. Brown gave us this recipe, very unusual and appetizing, a lemon catsup for fish as follows: Mix one tablespoon of grated horse-radish with the grated rind of four lemons; add three teaspoons of salt and the lemon juice, two tablespoons of celery and mustard seed, four cloves, dash of red pepper. Boil 30 minutes and seal. This is good in about six weeks.

Some think of cranberry sauce only with turkey or chicken but it is delicious with lamb or mutton. To make the sauce put one pint of cranberries on to cook with one and one-fourth cups of water, cook them until soft, strain thru cloth and add one and one-half cups of sugar to every two cups of juice; boil ten minutes longer and set in moulds to cool. To stew cranberries add one and a half cups of sugar to every three cups of cranberries, and one cup of water. Boil the water and sugar together for seven minutes before adding the berries. Cook until the berries burst.

Sauces to serve with puddings are many. A Mock Cream Sauce is made as follows: Mix one level tablespoon of cornstarch with one of sugar, then slowly pour on one cup of scalding milk, stirring all the while. Cook in a double boiler then set aside to cool. When ready to serve stir in one teaspoon of vanilla and the stiffly beaten white of one egg. Use in the place of whipped cream.

Welcome Shower

Mrs. James Cahill of Hornell gave a welcome shower, Thursday evening, Nov. 1st, in honor of Mrs. Franklin Murphy of that city. Refreshments were served, with cards as entertainment. Mrs. Murphy, formerly Miss Loretta Quigg of this village, received many fine gifts. Mrs. John Quigg of Andover was among the guests in attendance.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Consideration of the attitude of the organized motorists of the state towards the Gas Tax question, which, undoubtedly, will be brought before the 1929 Legislature, was the most important business considered by the new Board of Directors of the New York State Automobile Association, which held its first meeting here today.

President John H. Wright of Jamestown presided and recommended that the State Automobile Association should take a positive stand on the Gas Tax prior to the opening of the Legislature.

The directors empowered President Wright to appoint a committee to study the Gas Tax situation and make specific recommendations to a meeting to be held at Albany, January 7th.

Compulsory Insurance was another state wide legislative matter discussed and the president appointed the following committee to report back later on this subject: Chairman Owen B. Augspurger, Buffalo; James M. Mangan, Rochester; Claude J. Holding, Albany.

The South Olean wells will be abandoned for all time, Mayor Pierce states. The pipe in them will be pulled out and scrapped and all connections to them torn out. This will also mean the scrapping of the pump station in South Olean.

May Have Democrat Judge

The elevation of County Judge Bernard B. Ackerman, to the Supreme Court bench, as the result of the recent election, leaves the office of County Judge of Allegany county vacant after January 1st next. This vacancy will be filled temporarily by the governor. He being a Democrat will undoubtedly name a Democrat for the office. There being but two Democratic attorneys in the county, the office will without doubt go to Attorney Hinman of Angelica or Bliss of Bolivar.

SILAS KELLOGG AT LIFE'S END

Prominent Steuben County Attorney and Greenwood Postmaster Died Wednesday Morning.

Attorney Silas Kellogg, 87 years old, for the past 17 years postmaster at Greenwood, N. Y., died about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning following a lingering illness. Death resulted from a general breakdown.

The deceased, one of the best known men in Steuben county, has been in poor health for some time but had been active until last Saturday when he fell. He has been confined to his bed since and the shock, combined with old age, proved fatal.

Attorney Kellogg was born in the town of Grove, Allegany county, Dec. 8, 1840. He moved with his parents to Greenwood when about eight years old and has resided there since. He obtained his early education in the rural schools and later graduated from Alfred University. He entered the law office of the late Frank Robinson of Canisteo, who, at the time, was district attorney in Steuben county. Mr. Kellogg became his assistant and assisted in the prosecution of a number of cases.

In after years he moved back to Greenwood and practiced law and was actively engaged until 17 years ago when he was appointed postmaster by President William H. Taft. Just recently, it was learned, Mr. Kellogg filed his resignation with the postmaster general, to become effective January 1, 1929.

Mr. Kellogg was a Civil War veteran and the last surviving member of the William C. White Post, G.A.R., of Greenwood, of which he was commander for several years. He enlisted with the 86th New York regiment in 1861 and served with distinction until stricken with typhoid fever. Upon his recovery he was stationed at Washington, D. C., with special duties. He was ranked as a sergeant.

On March 6th, this year, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. The couple were married at the Universalist church in Greenwood by the Rev. L. K. Richardson in 1868. Mrs. Kellogg and eight children survive. One daughter died some time ago.

The children are: William G. Kellogg of Bemus Point, near Jamestown, N. Y.; George D. Kellogg of Albany; Mrs. Arling Cobb of Whitesville; Mrs. Churchill Cobb of Canisteo; Mrs. Grace D. Kellogg of Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. Kelts C. Baker of San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Mabel Stevenson of Greenwood.

For 15 years Attorney Kellogg was the valued Greenwood correspondent to the Andover News and editor of the Greenwood Times.

DEMOCRATS WATCH CANVASS OF VOTES

Lawyers Sent From New York City by State Democratic Committee to See Fair Count.

Belmont, Nov. 12.—James McGinnis and Milton Hauser, Democratic attorneys from New York City, are in Belmont today, overseeing the canvass of the official vote cast in the election of Nov. 6, for Governor, which is being made by the Allegany County Board of Supervisors. McGinnis and Hauser are two of the large number of lawyers who have been sent into each county of the state by the Democratic State Committee, to keep a watch on the check-up of the vote for Roosevelt and Ottinger, since the latter has declined to concede the election of the Democratic candidate.

"We are not here assuming that anything is wrong with the vote in Allegany county," said Mr. McGinnis today, speaking to a reporter. "We are simply overseeing the legal aspects of the count of the vote to find out what comes out in the final canvass. We have been sent out by the Democratic State Committee to see the tally and be sure that it complies with the law. To date we have had no reason to believe that there is anything wrong with the Allegany county vote.

"This is the first time that the State Committee has ever taken such an action," said Mr. McGinnis. "It has been done because there seems to be some confusion and hesitancy on the part of the Republican candidate to admit Mr. Roosevelt's election. So far, we are perfectly friendly with both sides and we hope to continue that way. You seem to have some pretty good fellows up here.

"But we are Democrats and fighting," said Mr. McGinnis in closing. "We will be here until the canvass is completed to see that Roosevelt gets everything that is coming to him."

Harry Keller of Cuba, county commissioner of election, arrived in Belmont this morning with the official count of the county's vote, and a committee was appointed, which went to work at 9 o'clock on the canvass. It was expected that the work will be completed late this afternoon, if nothing out of the ordinary arises.

The Armistice Day program in the morning was well carried out with a service of remembrance, rejoicing and loyality, and sermon in keeping with the day by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Greene, with special music by the choirs. A tureen fellowship luncheon in the church dining room and social hour, followed the Bible school.

At 2 o'clock, Rev. Edgar D. Van Horn of the Alfred Station church, a former pastor at Andover, presented a splendid discourse. MRS. EMMA CRANE INSTANTLY KILLED

Another Victim Thrown to Eternity at the Dangerous Erie Railroad Main Street Crossing, Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Crane of Friendship was the victim of a tragic death Sunday morning when she was instantly killed by Erie train No. 25, at the Main street crossing in this village.

Mrs. Crane had been in Andover to assist her sister, Mrs. Ransom Monroe, in the care of her husband, who is seriously ill. She had started to drive to her home in Friendship, leaving her sister's home a few moments before the accident. She drove her car directly in front of the train. The touring car which she was driving was carried several feet down the track before the train could be brought to a stop. The car was completely demolished. Mrs. Crane was hurled from the machine with terrific force.

This crossing is protected by a signal bell which, it is claimed, was working at the time.

Deceased was about 52 years of age and is survived by her husband and three sons. Undertaker Mason of Friendship came to Andover and took the body to that place where the funeral was held yesterday.

The Main street crossing is a dangerous one and several people have met their death there, and others escaped by a miracle in years passed.
