ALMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMOND, Oct. 24th, 1870. Mr. Editor:—I'm indignant, yes, very indignant, angry, displeased or disgusted are too mild phrases to express my contempt for those demagogues and patrons who have thus far united Almond in their pernicious...

Stated proposals will be received at this office until Friday, November 3d, 1870, for carrying the mail between this office and the Rock Railway Depot, twice a week each way.

Proposals to be made at ten o'clock, p.m., the accepted bid to continue during the pleasure of the P. M. General. No contract is required to be executed but persons bidding must be honest and capable and not less than sixteen years old.

Every body of the season in Millery at Mrs. Everett's. Our health called away to the death of our Mother is the reason of the delay in the issue of the paper.

Bishop Whittingham, of Maryland, has offered to present his library, 10,000 volumes, to the Episcopalians of Washington, if they will provide for it. The yield of grain in Oregon is said to be the quality and quantity of the crop...

Hartford, Conn., has had a terrible violation of the marriage pact.

No less than twelve large weddings took place there last week. Three of them occurred on a single block. We shall have to spell the name of this city Heart for hereafter.

The United States are threatened by an invasion of French troops. Jerome Meissonier, Rosa Hur, Galant and Sautrin are all with the intention of visiting and camps remaining in New York, it is a war continues.

VEYENARY SURGEON.

I would not attend to the owner of horse to the fact that I am now ready to attend to all cases from persons who have horses that need veterinary attention. My office is removed without delay to the residence of the owner.
