San Domingo Question. It will be seen by the President's message that he has by no means abandoned the hope of ultimately securing the ratification of the San Domingo purchase.

The House of Representatives now has 241 members. By the new law, Congress, under the next apportionment, is to have 274 members.

Revenue Reform in a Nutshell. These are the best considerations that come to us on this question of Revenue Reform.

Where the tariff comes upon the poor, it does not mean to them, it is a burden, and should be removed.

It is a fact that we must raise a pay of one hundred millions a year to the interest on our national debt.

So, since the people are not to raise this money at home, they must raise it upon what comes from abroad.

Then we have provisions to pay—taxes, and that is not to be feared or paid. And there are no provisions to pay—taxes, and that is not to be feared or paid.

It is a fact that we must raise a pay of one hundred millions a year to the interest on our national debt.

So, since the people are not to raise this money at home, they must raise it upon what comes from abroad.
