GEORGE H. McKEE FOUND DEAD

Whitesville Man, Stage Driver, Blew His Head Off With a Shotgun Monday Afternoon.

Whitesville, N. Y., April 30.—This community was greatly shocked this afternoon when it became known that George H. McKee had committed suicide at his home here. He was well known and drove the Whitesville-Wellsville stage line. He was found dead in the kitchen of his home at about 1 p. m., with a single-barrel shotgun lying beside him. He was about 76 years old. Evidently he had placed the muzzle of the gun to his forehead and pulled the trigger with a long stick.

Coming home from a shopping trip over town his wife found the lifeless body. Dr. H. R. Taylor was called immediately as was also Coroner H. E. Cooley of Wellsville, but death had been instantaneous as the top of his head had been blown off by the heavy charge of the gun.

Mr. McKee had made his daily trip to Wellsville this morning and appeared in all ways in his usual good health. It is said that this is his second attempt at suicide, having taken a dose of poison but a few weeks ago.

Coroner Cooley will issue a certificate of death by suicide.

DAVID MORRISON IS CHAMPION SPELLER

Rushford Lad Leads Allegany County and Rushford Girl is Runner-up in Spelling Contest.

Deftly spelling words which would cause many an adult to hesitate, girls and boys of Buffalo and seven counties of Western New York competed Friday evening in the semi-finals for the 1934 National Spelling Bee, conducted for public and parochial schools by the Buffalo Evening News. In many places the word list prepared for the contest was exhausted and the pronouncers were forced to turn to the dictionary.

Friday night's contest marked the completion of the largest spelling bee semi-final ever conducted by the Evening News. More than 1,060 schools were enrolled. All that remains now is to determine which of the 18 winners of semi-final contests will represent the area in the national final in Washington on May 29th.

Allegany County

Friendship, April 28.—Outspelling 61 contestants, representing 35 Allegany county schools, David Morrison, eleven, seventh grade, Rushford high school, was proclaimed the best speller of the county at the Allegany county final of the National Spelling Bee, sponsored by the Buffalo Evening News, in the Friendship high school Friday evening.

David was the champion speller of the seventh grade and his teacher is Mrs Agnes Morris. Margaret Sweet, runner-up, was awarded second place after she missed spelling "unique." Margaret is a student in the seventh grade, Rushford District 13. Her teacher is Mrs. Helen Brandes. She also is eleven years old and was champion of her school.

Some of the words causing the downfall of other spellers were "poll," "vicar," "Grecian, guinea" "recipe," "fiery," "aniline flavor," and "briefly."

600 Babies

A most remarkable record, one which has been achieved by few, if ever before, is that which Nurse Hattie B. Eggleston of this village has accomplished. With the birth Monday, April 30, 1934, of a fine seven and one-half pound daughter, Phyllis Alura, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry of Andover, Mrs. Eggleston has officiated as nurse in charge at the birth of 600 babies. And the best of all, she has never lost a mother, and but one babe and that the result of a pre-natal condition.

Mrs. Eggleston's babies are now scattered all over the United States. Most any section of the country you can find them. Her first was that of Jennie McGuire, now Mrs. Ward Hubbard of Grand Rapids, Mich. The children, parents, grandparents and yes, great-grandparents who have been assisted by this talented nurse will participate in a unique celebration in commemoration of the event of the birth of her 600th babe, at the Baptist church, Saturday evening of this week.

Invitations have been issued to all the families of the 600 babies to attend this celebration, which will consist of suppers at 5:30 and again at 7:30 p. m., with an evening session with a prepared program.

The News congratulates Nurse Eggleston upon her remarkable achievement and also the 600 babies in their good luck in having had such an efficient godmother.

The rules are quite a bit broader this season than last and the teams seem to be more equally matched.

The officers of the league for 1934 are: Ben. Richards, Wellsville, president; Wilfred Coyle, Richburg, vice president; J. Harvey Backus, Andover, secretary; Mat C. Burrous, Genesee, treasurer. The league will consist of eight teams as follows: Allentown, Andover, Belfast, Bolivar, Ceres, Genesee, Richburg and Scio. They will play the same number of games as last year in two sections. Each team will play seven games at home and seven away from home, and the season will close in August.

A. L. Bloss of Andover and Paul Fuller of Scio were appointed a committee to arrange the season's schedule. The season is to start as said committee sees fit.

A rule adopted Friday night is to the effect that should one team win both sections of the schedule, the second team in the first half and the second team in the second half shall play one game, the winner of which shall be the team to play against the winner of the team winning first in a series of five games for the championship. The play-off to be started the following Sunday after the winners have been decided.

Tax Collector Must Visit Tardy Taxpayers

Tax collectors of New York State must continue to do some leg work in order to fulfill their duties, in spite of efforts to relieve them. Gov. Lehman vetoed a bill eliminating that section of the tax law requiring collectors to call at least once on every person whose tax has not been paid and to verify by affidavit that he has not, upon diligent inquiry, been able to discover any personal property out of which unpaid taxes can be paid by levy and sale.
