Rebekahs Honor State President

Andover Rebekah Lodge was represented by several officers and members in attendance at a reception at Allentown in honor of Mrs. Clara Ingalls, president of New York State Rebekah Assembly, on Wednesday evening.

The guests included other Assembly officers and members from Rochester, Hamburg, Watkins Glen, Elmira, Olean and Canisteo.

Nearly all of the 14 lodges in Allegany county were also represented. An entertainment appropriate to the occasion was furnished by the lodges present.

Assembly President Mrs. Ingalls was called upon for remarks to which she responded very ably, as did other state officers who complimented her upon her years of untiring efforts and loyalty in Odd Fellowship.

Mrs. Ingalls was presented many beautiful floral pieces and gifts.

Refreshments were served.

Alcohol Will Not Harm New Body Paint

Says Guy S. Wood, Local Ford Dealer.

A radically different type of automobile body paint, which is impervious to alcohol and is baked in for four hours at a temperature of 250 degrees, has been developed by the engineers of the Ford Motor Company.

This new body finish has nothing in common with other finishes. You can pour alcohol over it, light a match to the alcohol, and, altho the surface will be terribly hot, it will remain unimpaired. Alcohol, which is a solvent for most body finishes, will exercise no harmful effects on the V-8's body finish.

Moreover, this paint is eminently satisfactory in any climate and under all conditions of weather. It is an enamel that is elastic. An exclusive Ford product, its base is a combination of the rare earths of Titanium and Antimony with the necessary color pigments.

Heretofore, motorists have had to be very careful when using alcohol around the car. A drop or two spilled on the surface marred the finish. This is a thing of the past as far as new Fords are concerned. This finish will last indefinitely. The motorist who would keep his car nice and shiny may do so by the simple process of running a cloth over it now and then and giving it a polishing once in a while.

PUZZLE . . . FIND THE NEW ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR IN MRS. G'S ELECTRIC BILLS

ANSWER, you can't find it because the cost of electricity has come down!

You'd think that with her new electric ironer, refrigerator and vacuum cleaner, Mrs. G's electric bills would be considerably higher than a few years ago.

But they aren't! And the reason is that while Mrs. G's use of electricity has increased, the cost of electricity here has come down.

Mrs. G's case is not unusual. Many people have had the same experience. They've found that while their use of electricity has doubled or even tripled, they are paying only a few cents a day more than before.

Electricity is the biggest bargain you can buy today . . . and the more you use, the bigger the bargain.

ODD FELLOWS HAVE INTERESTING SESSION

Work Third Degree Tuesday Evening on Five Candidates for Whitesville.—About 25 Visitors Present

Tuesday evening was a very interesting occasion for the local I. O. O. F. Lodge. The Andover third degree team conferred the degree upon a class of five candidates for Whitesville lodge, for which they received high compliments for their excellent work.

After the degree work, the Whitesville lodge made their official visitation and put on a very pleasing entertainment. The program was put on by the Cheese Brothers quartette, composed of Louis Cornell, piano accordion; Lee Millspaugh, harmonica; Harvey Leach, bones, and Rho Leach, guitar. Besides the instrumental numbers several vocal numbers were rendered with much credit to the performers with some minstrel stunts.

At the close of the lodge work light refreshments were served.

A wonderfully good time was enjoyed by the 67 members of the order present.

"The Maverick"

The News has completed arrangements for the publication of a new serial story from the pen of our townsman, Ralph E. Shaff, entitled "The Maverick." It is a thrilling Western story and in many ways depicts personal incidents of the author. It is full of love, romance and adventure that will hold the interest of the reader from chapter one to the very end of the story.

You may look for the first installment of this most unusual and intensely interesting story in our issue of July 6, 1934.

JAMES D. CHEESMAN GETS APPOINTMENT

His Nomination as Andover's Postmaster for 4 Years Was Confirmed by Senate, June 18th.

James D. Cheesman dropped the "acting" from in front of his title as postmaster here Monday when he received word of his appointment for a four-year term as Andover's postmaster. The announcement came thru a telegram from Senator Copeland as follows:

Washington, D. C., June 19, 1934.

James D. Cheesman,
Andover, N. Y.

Happy to say Senate confirmed your appointment as Postmaster at Andover yesterday.

ROYAL S. COPELAND.

Mr. Cheesman also received a congratulatory letter from Postmaster General Farley, and a report from the Civil Service Commission, giving him a standing of 86.10 for his examination.

FRATERNITIES HOLD THEIR MEMORIALS

Woman's Relief Corps, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Observe Ceremonies Honoring Their Dead.

Edward Seaman Woman's Relief Corps observed Flag Day, as is their custom, as their annual memorial, Thursday, June 14th. The members met at Legion Hall at 2:30 where a short program opened with the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner," followed by two readings, "In Memorium" Mrs. J. Harvey Backus and "Our Flags," Mrs. Henry Livermore. The Roll Call of deceased members was read by the secretary, Mrs. Pearl Mesler, followed by a very beautiful memorial service which included a chant of the 23rd Psalm: "Lead Kindly Light," and other appropriate songs, with "Taps" sounded on the piano by Mrs. James McDonough. It was a very appropriate and touching service.

Hillside and Valley Brook cemeteries were visited and a flag and floral tribute placed above "those who sleep."

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Lodges held their service last Sunday.

At 2 o'clock automobiles conveyed the members to the two village cemeteries, Hillside and Valley Brook, where the ritualistic services of both lodges was given. Erwin D. Baker and Frederick Mulholland, Noble Grand, in charge of the Odd Fellows and Mrs. Charles Harmon, Noble Grand; Mrs. Henry Carr, Mrs. Ernest Highby and Mrs. Grace Wagner for the Rebekahs.

The graves previously marked with the memorial flags of the orders were beautifully decorated with flowers.

At 7:30 p. m., the members met at I. O. O. F. Hall and marched to the Seventh Day Baptist church where the memorial sermon was given by the pastor, Walter L. Greene, D.D. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. McIntosh of the First Baptist church; prayer offered by Rev. W. C. Pero of the Methodist Episcopal church and benediction by Rev. F. H. Bisbee of the Presbyterian church.

The members entered the church, Frederick Mulholland, Noble Grand, leading the Odd Fellows and Mrs. Marie Hammond, Noble Grand, the Rebekahs, to the strains of "A Song Without Words," by Mendelssohn, skillfully played by the organist, Mrs. Will Bines. The opening and closing hymns were sung by the church choir, and two extra numbers finely rendered by a gentlemen quartet, Messrs. William Chase, Lee Millspaugh, John Croyle and Albert Wilson.

The church was prettily decorated with baskets of cut flowers and the entire services nicely carried out.

Chapin Reunion

The Chapin family reunion will be held Thursday, June 28th at the Pavilion at Cuba Lake. Basket picnic and tureen dinner.

Does Allegany County Need Cuba Lake?

The News Demands That the Board of Supervisors Let the Taxpayers of the County Have a Chance to Decide for Themselves Whether or Not They Want This Property.

We know that it is extremely unpopular, an unpardonable sin and in very bad form politically to criticise any action of our Board of Supervisors who are supposed to be super-men and can do no wrong. Allegany county has indeed been very fortunate in the past in the personnel and ability of those who have been chosen to look after the interests of our county. But they do occasionally step over the line of conservatism and careful consideration of the many propositions presented to them for decision to the hasty acceptance of projects that, to say the least, are mighty questionable. Especially is this true when such projects are backed and demanded by the bosses, and would-be bosses of the Republican party. They seem sometimes crazed to do the bidding of the ringmaster, especially when he cracks the whip.

Looking at it from our bi-focals, we can see nothing but trouble, expense and tax after tax levied upon Allegany county people in the proposition for Allegany county to pull Cuba's chestnuts from the fire and take over from the State of New York the ownership, management and responsibility of Cuba Lake.

Why is it that the State Park Commission is so anxious to get rid of this property? Why is the State so anxious and willing to make Allegany county a present of the property? They know that sooner or later the responsibility of ownership will cost the State of New York many thousands of dollars.

Why should people living in the other end of Allegany county from Cuba Lake be taxed to maintain a summer resort for Cuba and its environs? We believe we can partly answer that question. Because Cuba now has — and in fact, nearly always has had — and always intends to keep all of the major political offices as her citizens. Cuba honestly believes itself to be headquarters for the Republican party in Allegany county. With all these big Republican guys heading out of Cuba, why should they not be able to procure for their home town a little summer resort at the expense of the entire county? Cuba also has in her midst an aspirant to the chair of "County Boss" of the Republican party. Sure he is pulling hard for their summer resort.

Just as sure as night follows day, the time will come when the County of Allegany, if it takes over Cuba Lake, will be called upon to pay huge sums in damages, such as would be caused by the bursting of the old dam that supports the water of the lake, or some such other calamity. The State Park Commission now sees this very thing staring them in the face and are trying their best to unload this expense on the unsuspecting taxpayers of Allegany county.

If this Cuba Lake proposition is so fine a project, as some are claiming, why does not the Town of Cuba take it over and assume the responsibility? Why! These political wiseacres and attorneys would not stand for that for a moment. Lawyers, like printers, are always out looking for business. If they cannot find it they try to make business. They know that there is so much red tape and costs, if you win, you lose, in suing the State for damages that people scarcely ever try the experiment. But not so when suing a county. Should the county take over this Cuba Lake proposition we will see every ten-year-old lad who stubs his toe on a stick in a path or cuts his foot on a piece of glass in the highway or elsewhere in the park will sue the County of Allegany for damages, and in nine cases out of ten, will collect damages. Is that not good business for lawyers?

We do not hesitate to prophecy that should Allegany County become the owners of Cuba Lake it will not be five years before the County Board of Supervisors will be asked for heavy appropriations for its maintenance and improvements. It will be just another way for the politicians to make connections with the taxpayers' pocketbook, and pay their fellow citizens of Cuba for boosting them into office, by providing them with a fine summer resort at the expense of the entire county.

The Andover News protests this action and most respectfully asks the Board of Supervisors of Allegany county, before they go any farther with this proposition, to put it up to a vote of the taxpayers of Allegany county and let them decide for themselves whether or not they wish to take the responsibility of owning a piece of property that the State of New York does not longer care to take the risk of owning, and is anxious to unload upon the unsuspecting shoulders of the Allegany County taxpayers.

It seems to us that it is about time some of our members of the Board of Supervisors stopped being simply "yes men" to the dictates of the political bosses, and do a little good hard thinking for themselves.

Trip to Glass Works Is Planned

A county-wide Home Bureau motor tour to the Corning Glass Works one of the most extensive plants in the United States, is being arranged for Friday, June 29th, starting from Andover at 9:30 a. m., via. route 17. Motorists will meet there and proceed in a motorcade.

A stop will be made for lunch at a picnic grove on the way, each carload to provide a basket lunch for its members.

The factory must be reached by 1 p. m., in order that persons on the tour may have the advantage of guides who will conduct visitors thru all departments in operation, including test kitchens where recipes are tried out in Pyrex ware.

Other than Farm Bureau members will be welcomed on the trip.

JOHN CASEY SEEKS COMMITTEEMAN POST

Announces His Candidacy for Democratic State Committeeman From the Second Steuben District.

Hornell, N. Y., June 18.—John J. Casey of Hornell, prominent in Democratic circles, today announced his candidacy for the position of state committeeman from the second assembly district of Steuben county.

Mr. Casey is seeking the post now held by City Attorney Harry L. Allen, who has said he would not be a candidate again due to pressure of business.

It is also reported that Purdy Kinkaid of Cohocton, another prominent Democrat, will be a candidate for a similar post now held by Martin Kimmell, Jr., of Wayland, who was recently appointed postmaster.

Mr. Casey has been a resident of Hornell for about ten years, six of which he has served as committeeman. He was appointed deputy sheriff by the late Sheriff Lynn W. Kellogg. He is at present associated with the Phoenix Life Insurance Company. Mr. Casey is a close friend of Lieutenant Governor M. William Bray.

In announcing his candidacy today, Mr. Casey said he had been assured support of committeemen outside the city of Hornell, and will seek the endorsement of the city committee.

POLITICAL DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

Fall Primaries This Year to be Held September 13—General Election on November 6.

The political calendar including dates for primaries, election, etc., has been announced as follows, by Secretary of State Edward J. Flynn:

Primary designating petitions may be circulated beginning June 28th. Petitions may be filed from August 14 to August 21. The final date for declining designation is August 24 and vacancies caused by declinations must be filed not later than August 28.

To designate candidates a petition must contain signatures of three per cent. of the enrolled voters of the party in the political subdivisions, but need not exceed a maximum set up by law. The petitions for State Senator and Congressman need only 500 signers and the same maximum is set for Republican county offices. The Democratic primary petitions for county offices require only 340 signatures.

The fall primary will be held on September 13 from noon to 9 p. m. This date is five days in advance of the regular primary election date. The shift was made by the State Legislature so that the large Jewish voting population of the state might have full opportunity to vote in the primaries. The Jewish holiday of Atonement starts at sundown September 18, the regular primary date.

Eligible voters may register centrally again this year. In villages where personal registration is required, the dates for central registration are August 1 to August 31.

The general election will be held on November 6. Candidates have 20 days in which to file statements of election expenses.

The colors of the primary ballots are as follows: Democrat, green; Republican, cherry; Socialist, canary (yellow); Law Preservation, blue granite; Communist, scarlet.

W. R. C. Notice

The June birthday party will be held next Tuesday afternoon, June 26th, at the home of Mrs. C. S. Rennells. Tureen supper.

MUST SAFE BRIDGES BE PROVIDED?

If State Takes Truckman's Cash for Use of Roads, Why Sue When Bridge Goes Down?

After licensing a truck of a certain substantial weight, capable of carrying many tons, what is the obligation of the State of New York to provide safe roads and bridges over which to operate it? If a 21-ton load (truck and contents) breaks down a bridge posted for eight tons can the owner be made to pay the cost of repairs to make the structure safe for traffic?

These questions may be answered by test cases in the courts growing out of the June 5th crack-up of four girders supporting the west span of the Route 19 bridge in Belmont when Philip Lucci of Buffalo drove a Pacific Transportation Company truck over it bound for Wellsville. The admitted weight of truck, trailer and contents was 21 tons.

Lucci was found guilty Friday by Police Justice Frank D. Welch of driving an overloaded truck and fined $50 which was paid. His attorney, Mortimer A. Sullivan, Buffalo, told this paper's representative at the county seat that the case would be appealed to county court on the ground that the bridge was not properly posted. Edward E. Brogan of the state attorney general's office and District Attorney Ward M. Hopkins represented state and county interests. Present to study the situation as it affects future action regarding truck loads and bridges were O. J. Dempster and Thomas Nichols, Hornell office state highway department, A. J. Muench, Friendship representative state department in Allegany county; Harry Craig, county highway superintendent; Denzil G. Perkins, chairman county highway committee board of supervisors, with Assemblyman Harry F. Goodrich and Ray S. Beck, other members, representatives of the Moran Transportation company.

The possibility of the state suing transportation company for the $2,000 necessary to make the bridge passable after the accident, and of a combination of trucking interests to fight establishment of such a precedent, are imminent. A somewhat similar case is in the courts but has not reached determination by a court of record.

The county has 300 horse-and-buggy bridges similar to the Belmont structure.

ANDOVER LOST TO SCIO SUNDAY

Very Close Game Played at Scio, 5-6, in Scio's Favor. Untimely Errors Lost the Game.

The Andover baseball aggregation went to Scio Sunday, where they took a trimming for the third time this season. The game was a close one, however, 5-6. Untimely errors lost the game for the locals.
